The True Meaning of Thanksgiving

By Mary Brown

As Thanksgiving Day grows near, we see bulletin boards and displays around the school which remind us of the first Thanksgiving.

When our ancestors instituted this great holiday it was with a spirt of humble gratitude toward the heavenly father. As a christain nation we have carried on the tradition which they began in 1621.

Feasting and Gaiety have become a major part of the modern celebration and sometimes the true meaning of this great day is overshadowed by these pleasures.

Thanksgiving Day is a time to count our humble thanks to God.

We may think this sounds like sentimental idealism, but in these grave times the meaning of Thanksgiving is even greater than on that first day.

Although we are not Pilgrims there are many things for which we must be thankful. If we cannot find anything to be grateful for in our own heart, then thank God that we don't live in Russia or Korea.

When we sit down to our meal tomorrow, enjoy it, but I hope we won't forget the true meaning of Thanksgiving Day.

Students to Hear Oratorical Contest

James Conde' Mildred Briggs, Charity Howland, Marion Milligan, William McNeil, Thelma Mickle and Laura May Croyle are the students who will speak in the annual 1951 and 1952 Oratorical Contest which will be held in the Andover Central School Auditorium on December 7, 1951.

These students have written essays on the Constitution of the United States of America.

James Conde' was the first place winner in the school contest last year, and second place winner in the county contest.

This contest is sponsored every year by the American Legion of Andover. The prizes will be: first prize, ten dollars; second prize, five dollars; and third prize, three dollars.

The judges for this contest have not been selected.

The winner of the school contest will compete in the county contest in January.

Have You Noticed?

By Mary Fowler

The "Junior Jitters"? They're due to the Junior Class Day.

The point chart in the English room? Some Hi Herald members are making rapid progress while others aren't doing so well.

All the pupils calling on Mr. Mandel? Report cards came out and some of them had to be collected because of red marks.

How happy all the students are? We're all looking forward to Thanksgiving vacation.

Joyce Spicer's new jumper? It's a pretty green one which she made in homemaking class.

That everyone is on a diet? That's so they can eat more for Thanksgiving.

How wide-awake the basketball players are? They're getting in at 10 each night. Keep up the training boys.

The super-salesmen from Student Council? Let's all buy season tickets to help support the team. Any student council member sells them.

How many people are talking about the basketball transportation? Seems the players are going to be riding home on the spectator busses.

The senior's English projects? They are on display in the English room.

F. H. A. Nets $95 On Hobo Day

The Future Homemakers of America Hobo Day that was held Saturday, November 10th in the village and gym resulted in a net profit of $95 for the organization.

On Saturday at nine o'clock the F.H.A. girls met over in front of the school. Then the girls went to the streets that were assigned to them previously. Most of the girls worked in pairs.

Among the jobs the girls did were washing windows, cleaning rooms, dusting, washing woodwork, washing, ironing, cleaning out cellars, and other odd jobs. The F.H.A. netted $79 from this part of the venture.

To top off the day, a Hobo Dance was held at the school from eight till twelve. The music was by records, round, square, Virginia Reis, Polkas, and the Hackey Pakey. At about ten thirty Charity Howland was crowned gueen of the hoboes, and Dale Green King of the hoboes. The club netted $16 from the dance.

Critics View the Team

By Kent Harder

The big question that many people of our fair village are asking one another is this: "What are our chances in basketball this year." with hot competition like Alfred, Almond, Whitesville and Canaseraga the boys will certainly have a good tough job. So to give the people the inside on the coming season, the following interviews were made. These three people cast critical eyes on the material and came up with the following reports.

Our first critic is the man probably most able to foretell the future, Coach Stackwick. Coach came up with the logical answer, "It's too early to predict." However he went on to state, "the boys are shaping up very well. We'll base our play on drive, hustle and a lot of spirit. We hope to get an early start by being in shape, better shape than the opposition." He closed in stating, "we'll be in there at the finish."

Critic number two, finds Mr. Glenn Bronson in the spotlight. "From what I can observe, I think the boys should do very well. What I like to see is that the boys show good sportsmanship in losing as well as in winning. I like to see a team fight and scrap and play to win the game as a team."

Our last critic, last but not least is Mr. Conde'. He stated, "I'd say with greatest sincerity that this year's team will be one of the best. The players are some what inexperienced but they have a great will to win. Last year saw some good talent and great boys leave but they set a goal that the boys this year will be glad to follow. Our coach is the best. He has a lot of new ideas that should surely help the team."

Well, there you have it fans. It's up to you to come and make your own dicision.

The Spy

Here I am again to tell you the latest hot off the press news. My agents have handed me this certain information about these certain people, at these certain places as follows:

In the Latin 1 contest the Tigers lead the Lions with a score of 62-46. Charles Howland and Lucille Smith lead the Tigers with scores of 19 and 20 while Ann Harvey and James Conner lead the Lions with scores of 13 and 14.

My agent stationed at the skating rink informed me that Ann Marvel and "Chuck" broke-up and that Alura Grossman seems to be flashing around Gary Holland's call card. I also hear that Jean Daley has a pretty new plaid skating skirt. Gay Rogers and "Eddie" Harkinrider are back together again, I hear.

Next I see what my agent stationed at the movies has for me. Oh! Yes, Rodney Wheeler was seen escorting "Millie Miles. Also I hear that Irene Hurlburt and "Butch" Vickers were there together.

My agent at the Canisteo rink tells me that Shirley Tidd and Betty Ann Kemp still make their weekly trips there. He all so said that Mary Brown and Roger are still going together.

My agent back in school tells me that both the basketball team cheerleaders are ready for the games ahead and I can assure you, "The Spy" wishes them good luck.

"Ed" Harkenrider is the champion forgetter of the Freshman class. He frequently fails to remember to return his report card.

The lastest bulletin from the Senior homeroom says that "Ronnie" Ellis has come back to school.

Did you know that the sophomore class had a very bashful boy? In English class it seems that he would not read his lines in a play written by Ruth Atwell. The boy was "Jerry" Green who choked on his "love" lines in the play.

Charity Howland Attends State F.H.A. Meeting

Charity Howland, who is the state representative of this district, attended the State Future Homemakers of America Executive meeting on Friday, November 16 and Saturday, November 17, for the purpose of discussing plans for the coming year.

The first meeting was held on Friday at 2:30 and lasted until 6 o'clock. In the meeting they planned the 1952 meeting; the time and place, general plans for the program, speakers, business meeting, etc, and specific plans for the state meeting, appointed committees, decided on responsibilities, and set up a program.

On Saturday the meeting was held from 9 o'clock to 1. During this meeting they discussed a work program for 1952-53, state budget, how to help local chapters plan better programs, state handbook, state song and others.

The meeting was held in Voorheesville since the state president, Peggy Hines, lives there.

Kitchen Korner

By Billie Ryan

A white sauce is the basis of creamed soups, creamed dishes, gravies, souffles, and croquettes. It is a mixture of flour and milk with fat and salt added for flavor.

Each type of sauce, (thin, medium, thick) has a different use and a different proportion of ingredients.

Thin white sauce is used for creamed soups. The ingredients are:

1 tablespoon of fat, 1 tablespoon of flour, 1 cup of liquid and ½ teaspoon of salt.

Medium white sauce is used for creamed dishes and gravies. The ingredients are:

2 tablespoons of fat, 2 tablespoons of flour, 1 cup of liquid and ½ teaspoon of salt.

Thick white sauce is used for souffles and croquettes. The ingredients are:

3 to 4 tablespoons of fat, 3 to 4 tablespoons of flour, 1 cup of liquid and ½ teaspoon of salt.

To combine white sauce follow the five easy steps:

1. Melt the fat in a pan; add flour and salt; stir until well blended.
2. Cook the mixture until it bubbles. briskly for 1 minute.
3. Remove from heat and stir in the milk slowly.
4. Cook the sauce until it is thick and smooth, stirring constantly to prevent lumping.
5. To keep the sauce hot, cover the pan and place over boiling water.

Fashion Facts

By Charity Howland

This week let's select perfumes for the high school girl or junior. Did you know that perfume was a part of glamour and fashion? Well, it is.

In selecting a perfume, don't be content with a sniff at the bottle. Instead try the perfume on your skin to determine whether it blends with your body scent. Remember, always avoid trying more than two or three at a time. The sense of smell is the easiest fatiqued. After your choice has been narrowed down to two, don't buy a large bottle. It's best to buy trial sizes at first.

To go along on that big date or new job remember to use good old soap and lots of warm water. Only through this careful cleansing can a healthy and lovely complexion result.

Look to your hands? Hands show up your personality. White hands accompanied by clean, well shaped nails are the best and most popular. Always remove chipped polish.

Upward to the hair now. Ever see a girl with bright shiny hair that looks like a halo and wish for the same? Weekly shampooing and rinsing followed by a curl setting job can obtain this. An old fashioned brushing of a hundred strokes will also do wonders.

Meet Our Teachers

By Mona Milligan

In the spotlight this week is Mrs. Florence Corwin who resides on Baker street. Mrs. Corwin, who teaches kindergarten, has four children, Karen, Claudette, Allen and Mary Ellen.

Since she was born near Richburg, Mrs. Corwin attended Richburg High School but received her advanced education at Fredonia Normal.

You may see Mrs. Corwin driving her favorite car, the Oldsmobile, which should be blue instead of green because blue is her favorite color. She also has many more favorites which include: as a food, steak; favorite book, "Son of a Hundred Kings"; and favorite radio program Fred Waring.

If Mrs. Corwin had her choice of seeing a movie, I'm sure it would be "Showboat."

Her favorite movie actor is Spencer Tracy, and the singer she mentioned was Mario Lanzo, singing "Why Do I Love You."

As a pastime, Mrs. Corwin likes to read, go to the movies or square dance.

To conclude this interview Mrs. Corwin stressed that gum chewing was her pet peeve.

"Never let situations over which you have no control destroy your peace of mind" was her implied philosophy of life.

Senior Interview

By Mary Lou Clark

This week it was my privelege to interview the president of the Student Council and Senior Class, Michael Connor. Michael is the son of Mrs. Monica Connor, one of the A.C.S. first grade teachers. Being born on October 13, 1934, in Wellsville, he now resides on Center street. "Mike" has two brothers, James and John and one sister, Mary Ellen.

He is taking Driver Education, English, physics, typing and business law. His major is scientific with mathematics and business his special lines.

"Mike" is active in the Camera Club and in sports as well as in the senior class and the student council.

Some of his favorites are:

Food: Chicken
Car: Buick
Book: Don Quixote
Author: John R. Tunis
Actor: Van Johnson
Actress: Esther Williams
Subject: Physics
Female singer: Doris Day
Male singer: Gary Crosby
Color: Blue
Movie: "Battle Ground"
Sport: Basketball
Song: "My Truly Fair"
Pastime: Hunting.

The philosophy of life that "Mike" follows is one many people should follow "You get out of life what you put in it."

Because "Mike" feels he is best suited for this work, he chosen to be a certified public accountant.
