Panthers Slay Belmont 73-41

The A.C.S. machine opened against a weak Belmont fire on their home court recently to touch off the '51-'52 season winning 73-41.

The machine failed to roll at first and the scoreboard showed Belmont leading 7 to 1. This was the only time Belmont appeared to be in the game. With three six foot men guarding the boards, Andover forged into the lead and gradually pulled ahead in a game which displayed a 45 per cent shooting average for the A.C.S. men. The guards Rich and Charlie Davis, worked to make a showing as excellent ball handlers. Ron and Les Monahan with the help of Slug Slocum dominated the backboard and displayed wonderous talent at sinking the ball through the net.

Ron and Les Monahan shared scoring honors with 16 points each followed by Slocum with 13. The other two starters also hit the double figures. Charlie Davis hit for 10 and was followed by Rich Davis with 10. Harder was next with seven.

Four Girls Receive Japanese Letters

After waiting two months, four high school girls received letters from Japanese high school boys as a result of sending their names and addresses (together with those of others in the high school) to the Japanese correspondence Club to promote friendship and understanding between students of both countries.

The envelope which Mrs. McFadden, our English teacher, mailed to the Japanese Club contained the sex preference of those who wished to receive letters from Japanese teenagers.

Most of the girls wanted to receive letters from boys but few of the boys stated a preference for either sex.

Mary Fowler and Irene Hurlburt read their letters in English class and Margaret Daley and Betty Harris will read theirs in class soon. Mary Fowler also received one from the correspondence director requesting that if she weren't going to answer her letters, would she please hand them to someone who will answer.

The letter Irene Hurlburt received was from a 15-year old boy named Jadasi Yanase. This letter was written November 22 and received November 27.

Mary,s letter was from a 16 year old boy who also sent his picture.

The Spy

Now that school is back in full swing after that l-o-n-g vacation, you all probably want to know the latest happenings. So here I am and without further delay I'll begin.

First my agent in school tells me that the juniors have all settled down from the tension of the play and are very happy at the profit. Good job, juniors!

Sad news has been received from my Wellsville agent that Dale Pelton has broken up with Jean Hollis.

I hear the student council is doing very well with its' season ticket sale, thank to "Mike" Connor's encouraging little talks each morning on the news cast.

I see the contestants who are going to be in the oratorical contest have started the hard job of memorizing their speeches.

My agent about town tells me that on the Eddie Harkenrider vs. Gay Rogers case, they broke up again. But don't take it too seriously. They may be back together by next week's issue of the paper.

Oh, did you know that the cub cheerleaders are making new purple skirts to go with their new white sweaters this week. Their first game is Tuesday, Nov. 27.

I guess that's all for this week, kids, and don't forget the Spy hears all, knows all, and tells all.

Latin Contest Creates Interest

Latin I and Latin II classes have been holding contests in school by dividing each class into two parts in order to create more interest in learning Latin during November and December.

The first Latin I contest ended November 20 with the Tigers beating the Lions with a score of 109 to 89. The high scorers were: For the Tigers; Lucille Smith with 35 points and Charles Rowland with 33 points. For the Lions Ann Harvey with 31 points, and Jim Connor, 27 points. A new Latin I contest began after Thanksgiving vacation.

The Latin II contest began just before Thanksgiving vacation between the boys and girls, and is to end before Christmas vacation. Mildred Briggs with 8 points and Mary Jane Sackett with five points are high on the girls side. Teddy Smith with five points and Charles Davis with four are high on the boys side.

In the second Latin I contest the puellae lead the pueros with a score of triginta novem to viginti quinque.

James Connor is high scorer for the boys with novem points and Charles Howland and David Conde tie for second place with sex points each.

Ann Harvey is high for the girls with viginti points and Lucille Smith is second with quattuor decim.

Certamen procedit. Quo Vadis.

Wildcats Romp to 50-30 Win

by "Points" Pelton

The Andover junior varsity beat the Belmont cagers last Tuesday by the one-sided score of 50 to 30 on the local court.

The Wildcats demanded an early lead and held it and at half-time lead by a score of 28-11. In the second half the junior varsity went on another scoring spree.

Ed Harkenrider was high man for the locals with 16 points, followed by Jerry Green who tallied 12. High man for the visitors was H. Keiser with 9.

Have You Noticed?

By Mary Fowler

Phyllis Perry's lovely engagement ring? Congratulations Phyllis!

Irene Hurlburt making those daily trips to the post office.

Ann Marvel riding around in a green chevrolet truck?

That the Spy has once again started roving the halls of A.C.S?

The triumphant smiles of the basketball players since they won the Belmont game?

That the school deer-hunters haven't reported any buck so far? Maybe those who skipped school will come back with good reports.

Quite a number of people missing from school since vacation? Too much Thanksgiving dinner, no doubt.

The bandage on Lois Ruger's arm? She burned herself quite badly during vacation.

Cheerleaders Make Debut

The A.C.S. cheerleaders made their debut recently as they cheered the Andover team in her home game with Belmont.

Varsity cheerleaders Carol Nye, Gay Rogers, Marian Milligan, Charity Howland and Anne Marie Joyce, wore purple "Army style jackets" with white collars, cuffs and bands, with a purple "knee length" skirt with set-in white pleats. Barbara Clark, Lucille Smith, "Mimsie" Briggs, "Pat" Baker and "Sandy" Bostwick, the J.V. cheerleaders, wore short, full purple skirts lined with white and buttoned to a white blouse with purple sleeves and collar.

By the way, have you purchased your basketball season ticket yet?

Junior Play Nets $115

By Mary Anne Joyce

The first junior play ever to be presented in this school, which was given Monday afternoon and evening in the auditorium, made a profit of $115.

The play was entitled "Aunt Susy Shoots the Works" with Gay Rogers and Kent Harder in the leading roles.

Corrine Alvord, a member of the seventh grade, was credited with selling the most tickets for the play for which she received a $1 prize.

Harvey

By Sandra Bostwick

As most of you have probably heard Harvey is sick but he won't let his readers down and sent the following letter to me to pass on to you.

Dear Kids:

I'm sorry I couldn't be with you the last couple weeks but have been quite sick with a cold. (I'm afraid I'll live now.)

Ann Marsh was up raving about the new jute box in Gleason's. When I get out of this old bed, I know that will be my first stop.

I hope you all had a happy Thanksgiving and didn't get sick from eating too much turkey, like I did.

Congratulations to the basketball team for winning our first game. I hope the team can do as well in all the other games! The new cheerleaders did a good job too.

I hear from some of my visitors that Miss Joanne McDonough from Detroit was here over the Thanksgiving holiday to visit relatives. That must have made "Jim" Yannie very happy.

In regard to the Latin I contest, the Tigers are still ahead. Come on, Lions! Oh, yes, the Latin II class has started one, too. The boys are ahead of the girls.

I hear that Terry Mulholland and Alura Grossman had a couple of Wellsville escorts to the movies Saturday night.

My visitors tell me that Mike Connor, Jo Ann Marsh and Dale Green are working faithfully to give good daily news reports.

I hear Annabelle Kemp went to the dance in Canisteo Saturday night with Charlie Bettinger. I also heard that Mary Fowler is now in the campaigning state in getting a boy friend from Hornell.

I wonder why "Teddy" Smith drank her coke so fast Saturday night after the movies. (Could it have been that Mary Jane Sackett was going) I also wonder why Ann Marvel has such a sudden interest in green cars.

That's about all, I guess, and I hope next week I'll be out and getting news for you.
