self which my excited imagination ed me, in fact, of the Zeus of Otricoli. pared with the impatient throbbing of Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. fancied to be: 'O, foolish heart, why To me it was in the highest degree re my heart with which I, on the apart thou not quiet; why mounts the pugnant. blood to my check, and compels me 'Enough tears have recently been ner. to turn back lest I betray myself?" | flowing from beautiful eyes, since his | already unconsciously, and a feeling of jeal- has appeared in The Cazette." ousy stole over me against that officer a connection with this young girl. If | Maier with an 'a-i,' but passably pretty to insult or intrude upon her. But Frankfort-on-the-Main." gave it back to its fair owner, with a pering about him, and one said:

hours. I made my way, at the proper time for visiting, to Kurprinze street.

my stops homeward one afternoon the seductive little snub nose, and the with the name engraved; "Von Gerds-I had taken leave showy white felt hat—the officer of hof." Now! Courage! The bell is of my friends, making an engagement | Lutzower street, the same before whom | pulled! I am in for it! quiet quarters of the city in which my the idea, since we had met many other the master was at home, took my card cheek number of foot passengers on the looking lieutenant of infantry in con- to the left of the entrance. His as- all the Paumwelfs in the whole world! "Who is that pale officer?" asked I surance that the master would be On one of the very first days of our pleased to see me sounded very conengagement we met the betrothed of my friend Erich.

"He?" said Erich, and laughed tenance, and a long, gray beard, in my heart. The became very grave "Why, he is the lately betrothed, the which, however, was carefully shaved for a moment; then nestling closer to At a curve of the street I succeeded in | handsome Paumwolf. I thought you from the broad chin. After I had ex- my side looked up at me with her infile, and felt myself thereby urged to | "No, no; but what is the story about able to help his daughter in her di- "You know I have, left all that beof golden blonde, sunshing hair, half _ "Well, nothing more than that yon- slight service—he seemed to be in- I pressed her arm more closely to covered by the dark English hat, as der blonde has—with much trouble, it formed of everything, and to have ex- me. "O, Eve! my own sweet Eve!" well as the extremely delicate, grace | must be admitted—captured him for | pected me somewhat—we passed from | I was so happy, so proud, that even will figure of the still youthful girl. | life, after he has caused nearly ninety- | the usual forms of politeness to a | the bold curiosity with which Lieut. Suddenly her step faltered, she half nine others to_dream of the same lively conversation that extended over Paumwolf stared at us in passing could turned, lingered for a moment, and happy fate. For myself, I never every possible topic. The time passed not irritate me. then walked hastily towards me, past | could have attained such an elegiac | as if on wings; almost an hour thus | Eveline and I have lived many years me, and back over the road by which she had just come Not for aboad of But he has been unfortunate. Young gentleman, and yet Fraulein Eveline sun never seemed to have risen until We Can Suit You with a lady on his arm, gayly chatting with and without money bags, bow ing the general said he hoped to see the house and grounds. But the hapand laughing. Could they have fright- down to him, after he has devoted me often at his house during my stay piest hours in our blissful life are ened my Unknown? A saddened in himself to them for half an hour, en in the city, I could not refrain from those in which we sit confidingly to terest stirred within me: I wished to tirely conquered by his irresistible pressing his hand in deep, heartfelt gether after the cares and duties of the gain some insight into her strange fascinations. And it is just the same gratitude. Not long afterwards I re day are over, and the tones of the turn, following her and keeping only allege, indeed, that behird that titanic cidedly a lady's handwriting—in their sounds on the clear evening air. a few paces behind. brow there is nothing but a cornfield, which Herr Gen. von Gerdshoff did Translated from the German for anything else you want. little clenched hand passionately to her | While Erich had been speaking my | von T. to dine. I must confess I never 4, and with tears in her violet eyes had wandered away from Paum- received an invitation with similar joy. eyes, and a half sad, half scornful ex- wolf. His pale face, framed in by What was the excitement and expecpression, murmured something to her- curling black beard and hair, remind- tation of the first court ball, as com-> pointed day, betook myself to the dinmyself most delightfully situated. "Yes, yes," laughed Erich; "simply ther from my thoughts than a desire | formerly been a cloth merchant in | in doing the honors of the house—the | The conversation having once turned | years—and I could not help admiring which she had hitherto carried slipped on the handsome Paumwolf, it did not | the tact and self possession with which | from her arm without her having re- soon leave the subject. On the other she, in spite of her youth, so charm- read the above carefully. marked it. Quickly I picked it up and side of our table the people were whis- ingly filled the position of hostess.

with a surprised, somewhat haughty that he did not rather take little Gerds- she whispered some pleasant remark glance, as I remained standing before | hof, whom he so recently courted. | to a young lady about her tasteful | shoes. her rather longer than was absolutely | The girl is of altogether different stock | toilet, or repelled a too gallant cavalier | = "Yes, but the money—the money?"

the 4 you wish to console her for the loss of the first bloom of routh le window of escort, the cousin in the Guards, very

the little fay who wandered to my quiet lode | conversation we never knew.

Within the elegantly furnished salon | street.

pressed to him my pleasure at being nocent, childlike eyes.

us came sauntering along an officer, ladies with and without pedigree, had not appeared. But when at part- Eveline's blonde head flitted through himself the honor to invite Herr Baron | The Boston True Flag.

CATARRH,

indeed friends, so that I soon found tachian tubes.

Here she asked an old gentleman after

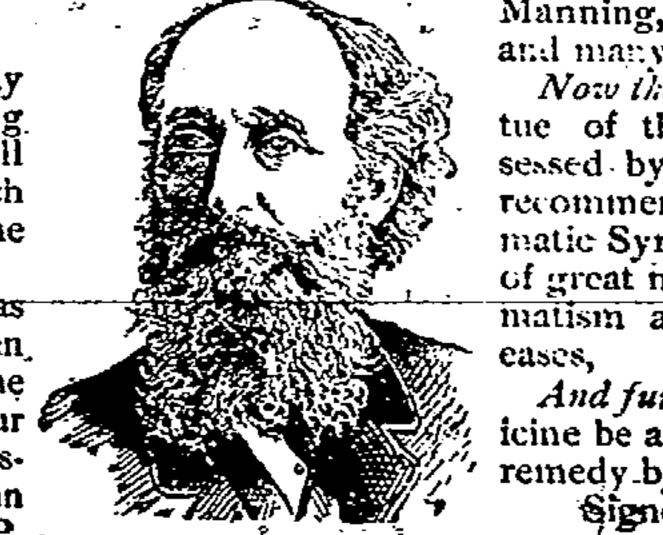

I was a riddle to myself; how. Now I was on the steps. Oh the best forget Paumwolf! To this fond, proud fut, and there were many ladies and last few years had passed away so with its somber fir trees and its rush gentlemen continually going in and quictly and monotonously; grave grown pouch, of the beautiful grand piano which I exposition had brought me to the city merry was gathered a large party, clusively that the etiquette of the instrument to my beloved violoncello; some young girlish faces before us unknown to me. And yet it was not better, too, than my overseer," mighty progress of civilization at home there—yes, certainly, there he was which made me remark with almost much, the replied, and it would give for a reunion later on in the evening, my little friend had taken flight, for An old servant dressed in livery and dropped her lids over the clear, violet looking houses were either govern- I indicated the direction to him. I found the general, an old, dignified "Shall we turn back, Eve?" I asked, ment offices or were inhabited by city. "The one with the black beard, next gentleman, with erect, military bear playfully, though I could not prevent ing, martial but not unfriendly coun- a slight feeling of anxiety from rising anything in this line don't fail to

T&M. MCTIGHE.

ar. Job Printing done on short notice conduct, and therefore made a hasty with the old ones. Many, to be sure, ceived a delicately written card—de- piano and violoncello mingle their Heads, or ments are offered to societies, churches a VSICIAN AND SURGEON,

The Erie offers low rates and Eastward from ANDOVER, N.

GEO. B. ALLEX,

(Lackawana & Pittsburg.)

*Daily, excepting Sundays.

e. J. Huspay

G BRICK, MARBLEHEAD.

TED VIO

Transpired on Dec No single day in the calendar has time for mating, when they are poptilized in the singular degree productions in the calendar has time for mating, when they are poptilized in the singular degree productions in the solution of the solutio certain spell seems to have con-seeching each other to be "my valen- oxygenation of the blood and induces the most beef and mutton. Whatever partes, who on three separate occa- study of birds will tell you that mates give rise to phthisis. Scrofula in early there is no doubt that there exists a

No. 29—Way Express.....141 p. m. tors, De Morny and Saint-Arnaud, horror of getting into debt, which is nature that Americans need not ex-No. 1—Through Express. 8.20 p. m. had caused the deputies to be arrested still characteristic of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the French people pect to compete with them in business cluded in France among meat yielding the resign of the France among meat yielding the closed, except those whence the Napo- | Cor. Poston Transcript. leonic proclamation was being issued. and Paris to be occupied at every

New York Herald.

the furiously for the males, who sit | halation of dust, or metallic particles, | animal food is a primary way who disputes the prize and wins give rise to the deposit of tubercle, and eities, who pass the larger part, sians had been completely routed, now, but the factor being a bankrupt taint. If more associated with irritations has as yet found a satisfactory throne. He and his fellow conspirational much of its old social stigma. That and it is from this attribute of their cows, bulls, calves, sheep and pigs; tened locks crowned a face pitiful to the prices.

HOLIDAY GOODS!D

your purchases.

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition, and its patronage is composed of Austerlitz" burst forth, and in the France. The causes which led to pendent upon chronic enlargement of other branches of agriculture. Now berior class of young men and women from all parts of the continent. Send for cate evening, when the Austrians and Rus-WILLIAMS & ROGERS, Rochester, N. Y.

TRAINS LEAVE ANDOVER, EAST-No. 6-Way Express.... 11.14 a. m. No. 14—Atlantic Express...

In Dec. 2, 1804. Paris was aroused est party carrying off the prize. Some especially if carried on in a gramped land wherever the one de by the firing of artillery and the ring- of the more pugnacious often fight un- posture and in a close heated atmos is sure to be an increase. nd empress of the French. The pope unprejudiced and ready to say, May lead up to confirmed consumption in atmosphere surcharged with on the head of the first mon- with her dearly worr valentine, only ences, imperfect food, intemperance, to bestow a crown upon it. If the superior female be a "star" add much to the power of the incita- their lives in offices, shops and workget rid of him and share another. - 1

New port. Figure and expensive any streamers for albany, and the round time extent that one another to an extent that are associated in the same person, that a change is working in this direction. The cold winter's morn at a change is working in this direction. Not many years ago bankrupt that a change is working in this direction. Not many years ago bankrupt time. Not many years ago leaving 26,000 men on the field, the was considered such a crushing distion and inflammation of the larynx solution. For several years, past oldiers' cries of "Vive l'Empereur!" grace that traders used extreme pru- and trachea, it shows a delicacy and farmers have been obliged to sell their greeted the most powerful sovereign dence in their dealings, and when the susceptibility of the mucous membrane cattle at prices which they consider in Europe—the terror of a continent. | times were bad sacrificed comfort and of the part, which commonly depends | ridiculously low, and at the same time On the morning of Dec. 2, 1851, pleasure rather than run the risk of upon the same constitutional influ-butchers meat is extravagantly high Prince Louis Napoleon, president of not being able to meet their liabilities. ences that may lead to phthisis."— especially in Paris. This is partly the the French republic, was anxiously Now bankruptcies in France are com- Herald of Health. awaiting in the Palace of the Elysee mon enough and their number is intidings of the bold stroke on which he creasing every year. Familiarity with counted to elevate him to the imperial the idea has removed from the fact. The Japanese are content with little.

ousquin matter and His Daughter. Here is a story of Joaquin Miller 10 cents in selling a clock, they are be relied on to turn their bayonets and his daughter. She went to Wash- satisfied. Where a thrifty tradesman which are better adapted for work against the people. The news brought ington as the star of a troupe of barn can live and bring up a family on $10 than they are to become butchers in by successive messengers was good. storming actors, who were producing a month there is little hope for the meat, and there are other breeds which The plot had succeeded. Barricades his favorite play, the "Forty-niners." luxurious American. The whole na- are best adapted to become food for had still be overcome and the boule. The play was produced at the Dime tion seems to be engaged in what a hungry mortals. This difference a vards had to be swept clean with shot Museum, now extinct, but at that time | Connecticut Yankee would call a too often overlooked by French proand shell, but that was only the work one of the cheapest halls in the city. whittling business. The stocks of ducers. They often buy bullocks for of a day or two. On the evening of One night, while Maud Miller was go- many of the stores would not bring $5 | field work which would bring them Dec. 2 Louis Napoleon was within ing through her part as the heroine of at auction, and the merchant sits like in more money if fattened for the marreach of the crown and the Tuileries. the play in a perfunctory manner, the Turk in his bazaar surrounded by ket, and they fatten cattle that are fit stimulated by numerous libations at his goods and with his legs crossed only to plow and draw wagons.

denly seen to stop, with her gaze fixed | counter, and his goods liang on a

One thing especially impressed me cried Maud, and then bursting into three times as much as he expects to age of five years a French bullock will at the time and will never be forgotten, says a contributor to The Writer.

| The time and will never be forgotten, says a contributor to The Writer. | tears sprang off the stage. The curget. You offer him one-fifth and weigh as much as one of the Durham get. You offer him one-fifth and kind, and that while it is attaining. toward the place where Joaquin had you a bowl of charcoal for your pipe and thus made to earn its feed. politician, and from this ideal he was stood he had vanished. Shortly after while you are looking at his goods, San Francisco Chronicle. lie sold out a part of his property, dis- and as a rule it seems to be indifferent Taking their advice, posing of his cabin and the ground it to him whether you buy or not. If If you are undecided what to give occupied to a Washington admirer. you go away without buying he bows your friend for a Christmas present, ne united with the persecuted and ob- He has since declared his intention of politely and says "Sayonara," fare- you are sure to find the right article at rourse, he said, he attributed all his never returning to Washington, and well, with as kind a smile as though has disposed of the last two lots he you make a purchase, and if you offer the news room. possessed in this city, the lots named him something out of the usual order Then turning to me and laying his being the ground directly in the rear hand on my head, he remarked, in his of his cabin on Meridian hill—Balticalculating machine, consisting of a case in many other instances, we owe pulmonary congestion, is likely to vegetariant may say to the contrary hattles, for the most part, the strong tarris, indoor occupations of all kinds, tion of meat and the ratio of mostality

Porerumers of Communities

4 modical gentleman, who has

The Japanese Merchant.

of a phthisical tendency are, slight muestion of securing them a regular morning eough, often disregarded by land constant supply always at low frequent hoarseness, general brices is one of paramount import flesh, an habitually quick | \ Alongside and closely connected fault of the farmers and partly the fault of the system on which the

in their beds, the printing offices to be ple, is much less so than it was.—Paris in their own country. They do busi- animals, but their flesh is consumed ness on a margin that would ruin an in small quantities as compared with American tradesman, and if they that of the bovine, ovine and porcine make 5 cents on the sale of a watch or kind. the shrine of Bacchus, she was sud- serves his customers. His floor is his Among the better breeds for fat cattle the Durham stock stands pre-eminen. Wy acquaintance with the poet in a pitiful stare toward the small audi- wall or are piled within easy reach of for its extraordinary precocity. He has a space altogether | stances are cited of Durhams to

The division bummers and peanut about as large as a small bedroom gained regularly from a pound a venders who comprised it turned to and the whole of the front of this is three-quarters to two pounds daily. the tall, noble figure and delicate yet hunt for the cause of her embarrass- open. The floor is raised about two Crosses between French and Durham commanding features with which we ment, and saw standing near the door feet from the ground and the custom- breeds give the same results in three are all familiar, nor attempt, either, a sorrow stricken old man, whose whi- ers sit on the edge as they haggle over that are obtained from native breeds The Japanese merchant always asks | breeders insist, however, that at the Origin of Visiting Cards.

" | are tied together with the red cords."