SUPREME COURT—Allegany County.
Sassana Joyce vs. Samuel Hurley.

Take Notice: That pursuant to an order of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, made at a Special Term thereof, duly held at the court house in the city of Corning, in and for the county of Allegany, on the 9th day of November, 1891, and recorded in the County Clerk's office of Allegany county, Nov. 25, 1891, each person a party to the above entitled action, who at the date of the above mentioned order, had a lien upon any undivided share or interest in the property below described, is required to appear before the undersigned, the referee herein, at the office of Dolson & Dolson, in the city of Hornellsville, N. Y., on or before the 4th day of January, 1892, to prove his lien and the true amount due or to become due to him by reason thereof; that the causes above mentioned are described as follows: All that tract or parcel of land, situate in the village of Andover, in said town of Andover, known and distinguished as a portion of lot number 65 in township number 2, of the seventh range of townships in said county of Allegany, and bounded as follows: on the east by the east line of said lot number 65, and the centre of Main street in the village of Andover; on the south by John C. Dolson's store lot, about 2 chains and 41 links; on the west by Swink's land, 20 feet; and by the village lot known as McClary lot, formerly owned by E. Donnelly, about 1 chain and 30 links; and on the north by Dolson's lot, formerly owned by Hale Davis, about 4 chains; containing about one-half of an acre of land, be the same more or less, being known as the American Hotel property. Dated Nov. 25th, 1891.

ACME BLACKING is cheaper at 20 cents a bottle than any other Dressing at 5 cents.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAYS because shoes once blackened with it can be kept clean by washing them with water. People in moderate circumstances find it profitable to buy it at 20c. a bottle, because what they spend for Blacking they save in shoe leather.

It is the cheapest blacking considering its quality, and yet we want to sell it cheaper if it can be done. We will pay

$10,000 Reward for a recipe that will enable us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. This offer is open until Jan. 1st, 1893.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.
Prof. A. C. Mitchell was in town last week greeting old friends.

Mrs. A. W. Sullivan and daughter of Bolivar have been visiting Mrs. Sullivan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Catlin, during the past week.

Hon. A. C. Barney of West Union has been seriously ill of pneumonia for nearly two weeks. Yesterday he was reported slightly better.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Burdick, who have been very ill, are somewhat improved. Mr. Burdick is able to be out, but his wife is not able to sit up much of the time.

The doctors have to take it as well as other folks. Dr. Stillman has been quite ill for more than a week past, but we are glad to note that he was out again yesterday.

Union Services will be held during the week of prayer, as usual only that they will be held in the Baptist Church, as it is deemed better not to change the place of meeting.

Harry F. Crane's Dramatic Company played "Life in New York" last night at Prest's Opera house to a fairly good audience. Thursday evening Dec. 31 they will give another play.

There will be a donation for the benefit of Rev. G. M. Janes, at Prest's opera house in this village, Wednesday evening, Jan. 13, 1892. Everybody is cordially invited and it is hoped the hall will be crowded.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. J. L. Cunningham, Monday evening Jan. 4th, 1892. The following programme will be given: Music, Chautauqua song; reading of the minutes; roll call, quotations from Milton; one fact each about Henry Clay, and Abraham Lincoln.

When, where and by whom Pennsylvania was settled. Lesson, the remainder of the questions on "Social Institutions" in the Dec. Chautauqua; questions and answers in Botany; table talk; Leading facts in History and Christmas.

"Wert" Walker of this place, who holds a position as brakeman on the Erie, is taking a lay off on account of an accident which befell him a few days ago at Belvidere. He was on the ladder of a freight car on a train which had uncoupled. The car behind him came in contact with the one he was on, and Walker was badly squeezed about the limbs and body. The shock threw him to the ground. He was taken to Hornellsville and treated by the railroad doctors. Fortunately his injuries did not prove serious.

Of course you have noticed J. Hoyt & Co.'s big ad. We suppose this firm's business is not exceeded by any firm in this county, and a large share of their immense business is the result of hard work and persistent efforts to please the people. The firm's reliability has a great deal to do with it, too. There isn't any quibbling about their methods or statements. You know just what to expect from them and you are never disappointed. They advertise liberally and make money by so doing, and at the same time tell you of a good place to trade.

Roll Call of Andover Baptist Church.
D. V., the annual Roll-call of the Baptist Church at Andover, will be Jan. 2, 1892, at 2 p. m. All members are requested to respond to their names, either in person or by letter.
WAYNE BREWSTER, Pastor.

Died.
In Greenwood, Steuben Co. N. Y., Dec. 26 1891, of apoplexy, after an illness of thirty hours, Mrs. Gelia Clark in her 49th year.

For invitations of any kind, announcements, programs, etc., call at the News office. An elegant line of samples to select from.

1891—a silver watch, open faced, stem winder. The finder will be liberally rewarded for returning the same to this office or to D. J. Comstock's shop, and no questions asked.

Parties wanting logs sawed are invited to call on the undersigned at the Andover Grist Mill. I have purchased a first class saw mill and will be prepared to do all work in this line promptly. A convenient place to bank logs.
Geo. E. Brown.

Marriage of Prof. Armstrong.
Prof. Thomas H. Armstrong, principal of Andover Union School, and Miss Caroline Shourds, were married on Tuesday, Dec. 29, 1891, at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Shourds, in Macedon, N. Y. Prof. Armstrong and wife will arrive in Andover the last of this week. They will receive the hearty congratulations and best wishes of the people of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, were well remembered by Andover people, receiving handsome presents from the Board of Education, the teachers and scholars in the school and also from Mrs. Helen S. Clark, with whom the Professor has boarded since coming to Andover.

Election of Officers.
At a communication of Andover Lodge No. 553, F. & A. M. held Dec. 21, 1891, the following officers were elected:

H. D. Smith, W. M.
F. R. Hinchey, S. W.

SOUTH HILL NEWS.
John Horan, son of Henry Horan, who has been ill some weeks is much better.

E. M. Livermore has built an addition to his house.

Voorhees Hill school is preparing for an exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webster, of Rochester, N. Y. are visiting at Mr. Woods.

This bill boasts of the best Alliance financially, that there is in Andover.

Mr. Gus Fanton is seriously ill.

A new cheese factory will be built on the farm of C. Mingus. The work of erecting the same will soon be commenced. Farmers will derive benefits from this industry which will enable them like others to move to the villages.

The County Grand Army Association, which meets here on Thursday afternoon will be a pleasant gathering, although it will be mostly of a business nature. Arrangements and plans will be made for future work of 1892, officers elected, and reports of past work given. The session will be called at two o'clock at the Court House. About five o'clock the visiting comrades will be served with supper at the G. A. R. Hall. The business session is open to all.—Angelica Every Week.
