last week, as the proprietor and help generally were in the clutches of larrippe.—Wellsville Reporter. We got one.
Clark White of Whitesville, who underwent an operation about two weeks ago for strangulated hernia, is able to go out around. Dr. Comstock performed the operation.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Ora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown of West Union, and Mr. Floyd Green of Independence.
The marriage will occur Jan. 12.

of road master of the Western division of the Erie, for some time past, has been promoted to the position of Superintendent of the Tioga division of the road reliable.

Regents' Examinations will be held in Andover Union School January 25.
Those not attending this school who wish to take the examination should notify Prof. Armstrong at once, in order that application may be made to State authorities.

Mrs. Louisa Green, mother of Postmaster J. C. Green of this place, died at her home in Hinsdale, N. Y., Tuesday morning, Jan. 5, 1892. The deceased was in her 74th year. The funeral services will be held Thursday. The deceased had been ill a long time, and her death has not been wholly unexpected.

Mr. B. F. Smith died at his home in this village on Thursday, Dec. 31, 1891, aged 35 years. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon. The deceased had been in the employ of Prangen Brothers, at their ice house, for some time past, and was a good citizen, much respected by the people of this place. He leaves a wife and two children.

The News office has just received a series of new and elegant script type, for printing wedding stationery, calling cards, &c. We are prepared to do the best of work, and invite those needing anything of the kind to call and see our fine line of samples.

The family of D. B. Spaulding have all been ill during the past week. They are all thought to be improving except Mr. Spaulding's mother, Mrs. Thankful Spaulding, whose condition is critical.
Her extreme age (101) renders her recovery very doubtful.

Phillip Shaw, of Greenwood, who has suffered with neuralgia of the face for twelve years, had 1 1/2 inches of the infraorbital nerve removed by Dr. Comstock. The nerve was cut about 3/4 of an inch from the brain, and removed from the bone as it extends forward under the eye.

A difference having arisen between Mrs. Sarah Atwell who took care of the school house last year, and the Board of Education, relative to the amount of money she was to receive for her services, Mrs. Atwell sued the Board for the amount she claimed to be due her.
The trial is to take place this afternoon before Justice Harman.

The C. L. S. C. will meet next Monday evening, with Mrs. Emma Conn, and the following programme will be given: Music, Chautauqua song; reading of the minutes; roll call, responses from Alice or Phebe Cary; one fact about Andrew Jackson and William Lloyd Garrison; when, where and by whom was Rhode Island settled. The lesson will be eight questions on "Social Institutions," and eleven questions on "The story of the Constitution," in the Jan. Chautauqua.
Also questions and answers on "American Facts and Fancies," with questions on the history. Recess. Table talk, each one to tell a story about Lincoln—one of his stories, or a story of the civil war.

evening Jan. 16, at which the Sons of Veterans will be present. The committees have arranged an entertaining program, and a well known musical comrade will sing the beautiful song "Mo Roysters," from the popular opera
"The Dining Room Girl."

Baham-McLaughlin.

Mr. Michael Baham of Bradford, Pa., and Miss Mary McLaughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin of this village, will be married to-morrow (Thursday) morning at 8 o'clock. Mr.
Baham is well known to many in this place, and the bride is one of the most popular of Andover's young ladies.
Both have a large circle of friends who will unite in wishing them unlimited happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Baham will reside in Bradford, to which place innumerable good wishes will follow them.

Not Money, nor Twins, But Regents!

The following two line paragraph was in the last issue of the ANDOVER NEWS:
"We must do it—we can't help it—excuse us—just once—HURRAH!" Just these two lines and nothing more. We have carefully looked the issue through for a clue to this jubilation utterance but find none. What is the matter, Ham? Is it a boy? or a girl? or twins? or triplets? or have you been trying Br'er Howden's corn remedy? or have you been appointed postmaster? or struck a flowing well? or has a rich uncle died and willed you his wealth? Give us a tip, Ham.—Angelia Republican.

Death of Timothy Hyland.

Timothy Hyland, Sr., died at his home in this town Monday Jan. 4, 1892. On New Years day Mr. Hyland was in his barn and fell a distance of about fourteen feet, breaking two ribs. One of the broken ribs penetrated the lungs and chest. After this accident the process of breathing forced air under the patient's skin. Dr. Comstock was called, but very little could be done, as the injuries were pronounced fatal. Mr. Hyland was 75 years of age. The funeral services will be held at the Catholic church in this village, to-morrow (Thursday) morning.

No one too old to be cured of Rheumatism.

OLEAN, Catt., Co. N. Y., June 1, 1886.
Hart Rheumatic Remedy Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
GENTLEMEN—One year ago last winter, I was so badly afflicted with Rheumatism in my arms and shoulders, that I was unable to dress myself for five months, and all the remedies I could hear of I tried without relief. Hearing of your Remedy, I purchased and took five bottles and was entirely cured. I have not felt any pain, lameness, or soreness since I was cured one year ago. I am seventy-four years of age. I feel very thankful, and can conscientiously recommend it to an afflicted in the same way.
Yours respectfully,
Mrs. E. J. Lockwood,
No. 48 Barry street.

Arrested For Fraud.

Harry F. Crane's alleged dramatic company played two nights in Andover last week, to slim houses. They stopped at the American House, and when the time came for settlement with the landlady there wasn't enough money in the company's treasury to pay the bill, which amounted to about forty dollars.
Two of the female members, Mrs. King and L. Georgia Drake, gave Mrs. Joyce an order on the administrator of an estate in Greenwood, from which they claimed they had money due. The company then left for Allentown. Mrs.
Joyce telephoned the administrator, who said the order was worthless. Mrs.
Joyce then procured a warrant charging the women with fraud, and officer H. S. Smith was despatched to Allentown to bring them back to Andover.
Mr. Smith returned Monday bringing one of the parties. They were also accompanied by Dr. King. The other woman was taken sick at Allentown and will be brought here as soon as she is well enough.
"The trial of Mrs. King will take place to-day at 1 o'clock before Justice E.
Kinney and a jury.
LATER—The trial did not come off and the case will probably be settled.

THE BLACKING is cheaper at 20 cents a bottle than any other Dressing at 5 cents.
A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAY because shoes once blackened with it can be kept clean by washing them with water.
People in moderate circumstances find it profitable to buy it at 20c. a bottle, because they spend for Blacking they save in shoe leather.
It is the cheapest blacking considering its quality, and yet we want to sell it cheaper if it can be done. We will pay

$10,000 Reward for a recipe that will enable us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. This offer is open until Jan. 1st, 1893.
