The Postal telegraph office was on Monday moved from H. E. Miner's store to Beebe, Williams & Co's, store. Jason Beebe will hereafter be the operator, and is prepared to transact business with "neatness and dispatch."

A birthday surprise party was given to Mr. A. C. Crandall Monday evening at his home about two and one-half miles south of this village. Forty-eight ladies and gentlemen were present and the occasion was one of great enjoyment to all.

A party of our young ladies took their best young men for a sleigh ride last Saturday night. The objective point was Mr. Talcott Brown's of East Valley, which was reached in good season. They were cordially received by Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and spent a very pleasant evening.

Dr. W. W. Crandall left on train 12 Monday night for Albany to attend the annual meeting of the State Medical Society. The doctor is the honored vice-president of the society, the medical fraternity evidently appreciating that worthy physician's capabilities. —Wellsville Reporter.

Arthur C. Sidman, well known here as "Uncle Rube," is coming to the front in the theatrical profession. His company carry their own brass band and concert orchestra of ten soloists, in reality two distinct organizations, musical and dramatic, numbering 30 people. He is doing the large towns and is meeting with good success.

Mr. Brown conducts a large and successful business in the line of furniture and house-furnishing goods, with headquarters in New York.

The recent cold weather has given a severe test to the gas supply, not only in Andover, but also in every other town in this section where gas is used for fuel. Andover is the only place where a general cry for "more gas" has not been heard. We have had no lack of the convenient fuel, and are consequently greatly favored, for the time when we need gas most, is when the weather is the coldest. The Mutual Company's gas service is the best in existence.

The people of Angelica like to "see the cars come in" occasionally, even if they have to go out of town to do it. At least this is the idea we get from the following notice in last week's Every Week: "Grand excursion from Angelica to Belvidere on Sunday, Jan. 31, via Hills stage, if the sleighing is good. Plenty of conveyances to accommodate all who desire to go, which will meet trains 3 and 10 in the morning and 18 and 1 at night. Leave orders Saturday afternoon. Round trip 75 cents."

Facts are Stubborn Things. BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 2d, '92. This is to certify that I was for a long time troubled with biliousness. My bowels were costive and my tongue was coated white. I had little energy and was generally "used up." The physic which I took did me no good I took one box of "Dr. Hart's Family Pills," and before I had finished it all bad symptoms had disappeared. They are the mildest and pleasantest pills I ever took and do their work well.

H. L. HOWARD, Manager Men's Furnishing Department, J. L. Hudson, 392-394 Main Street.

DR. HART'S FAMILY PILLS Are the best family pills ever compounded. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, and act on the Liver, Spleen, and all the glands of the system. Mildest, surest, most lasting effects. Do not gripe; are as harmless as bread. One box will convince you. Sold by all druggists or mailed for 25 cents. Hart Rheumatic Remedy Co. Buffalo, N. Y.

BLACKING is cheaper at 20 cents a bottle than any other Dressing at 5 cents.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAYS because shoes once blackened with it can be kept clean by washing them with water. People in moderate circumstances find it profitable to buy it at 20c. a bottle, because what they spend for Blacking they save in shoe leather.

It is the cheapest blacking considering its quality, and yet we want to sell it cheaper if it can be done. We will pay for a recipe that will enable us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. This offer is open until Jan. 1st, 1893.

$10,000 Reward
