Pay your gas bills and save the discount.

Do not almost kill yourself by violent purgatives. Take Simmons Liver Regulator.

Republican Preliminary Caucus.

The Republicans of Andover held a meeting at the club rooms last Wednesday evening. The object of the meeting was to get an expression of opinion, and a decision by vote, upon the question of holding a preliminary caucus before the date of the regular caucus. The object of this is to place before the people the names of those who are candidates for office, or those whose friends desire them to run for office, in order that the voters, when they come to the regular caucus, may know who are candidates, and thus make a choice between those whose names have been announced. Of course, this is not intended to bar out any person whose name is not presented at the preliminary caucus, but the idea seemed to be that it would be advisable to announce the candidates' names at the preliminary caucuses. It was decided to hold the preliminary caucus on Wednesday evening, Feb. 17, at the club room, and it is hoped that every Republican in Andover will be present.

Democratic County Convention.

A Democratic County Convention was held in Belmont yesterday to elect delegates to attend the State Convention to be held in Albany on Feb. 22d. F. L. Newton of Bolivar, I. S. Hunt of Belfast, and A. E. Cowles of Wellsville, were elected as such delegates.

County Press Association.

The publishers of Allegany County's newspapers met at Belmont last Friday to consider the question of forming an organization of those connected with the newspaper business in this county. It seemed to be the opinion of those present that such an organization was needed. J. F. Coad, of the Cuba Patriot, was elected temporary president, and W. M. Barnum, of the Belmont Dispatch, temporary secretary. A committee was appointed to prepare by-laws and rules, and submit the same for consideration at the next meeting, at which the permanent officers will be elected. The committee consists of J. F. Coad, of the Cuba Patriot, J. P. Mosher, of the Sabbath Recorder, and H. C. Norris, of the Andover News. G. W. Fries, of the Friendship Register, was invited to prepare a paper on "The Benefits to be Derived by Organization," to be read at the next meeting. After a very free discussion of matters of interest to those present, the meeting adjourned to meet at Cuba on Friday, Feb. 19, at 10 o'clock a. m.

We use Alcohol

pure alcohol to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING. Alcohol is good for leather; it is good for the skin. Alcohol is the chief ingredient of Cologne, Florida Water, and Bay Rum the well known face washes. We think there is nothing too costly to use in a good leather preservative.

Acme Blacking retails at 20c.

and at that price sells readily. Many people are so accustomed to buying a dressing or blacking at 5c. and 10c. a bottle that they cannot understand that a blacking can be cheap at 20c. We want to meet them with cheapness if we can, and to accomplish this we offer a reward of

for a recipe which will enable us to make Wolff's Acme Blacking at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. We hold this offer open until Jan. 1st, 1893.
