THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Mark Houghtailing commenced as brakeman on the way freight Monday.

L. A. Burrows has the finest prescription case in the county. Ward Oatley made it.

Miss Emma Fuller of Hornellsville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Spruson.

Mr. Daniel Baker of Cuba spent a few days in Andover last week putting in a set of mill dogs for Geo. E Brown.

E. J. Atwood has had his business office remodeled. The place is now not only elegant in appearance, but convenient. E. L. Hann is the artist who made the change.

Mrs. H. Mourhess and son Volney attended the funeral of Phillip Hazeltine at Whitesville yesterday. Mrs. Mourhess will visit friends in Genesee Forks before her return.

Miss Mary Smith closed her school at Elm Valley, on Friday, Feb. 12. In the evening a load of her pupils spent a few pleasant hours at the residence of her father Mr. H. D. Smith.

Mr. Phillip Hazeltine died at his home in Whitesville on Tuesday, Feb. 16, 1892, aged 80 years. Mr. Hazeltine had lived all but eleven years of his life in Whitesville, and was widely known and highly respected.

Rachel Slocum closed a successful term of school in East Valley last Friday. Her closing exercises consisted of recitations, select readings, dialogues, singing, whistling and music on the violin and mouth-organ.

At the no license caucus held last Saturday evening, O. P. Crandall was nominated for excise commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of M. A. Woodbury, and Jesse Snyder was nominated for the full term.

A petition has been circulated in Andover against the passage of the bill requiring personal registration of voters in the rural districts. We'll bet that the man who introduced the bill can't give one good reason for its passage, while there are many good reasons why it should not pass.

The Allegany County G. A. R. Association will meet in this village on Thursday, Feb. 25th. The Post and W. R. C. have made abundant arrangements to furnish dinner and supper to all who come, and to bring them from train 10, and return them to train 1. All old soldiers are cordially invited.

Great Sale of Tobacco at Biele Williams & Co.'s, at 25c. per lb.

The donation Tuesday evening for the benefit of Rev. Wayne Brewster, netted the handsome sum of $97.35.

The ladies of the Baptist church are considering the matter of holding a New England Supper in the near future.

Mrs. Louisa Brigham, mother of Mr. John Brigham of this place, died at her home in Ulysses, Pa., on Friday, Feb. 12, 1892, in her 77th year. Mr. Brigham and family attended the funeral, which was held on Sunday.

On Friday evening of this week the Epworth League of Wellsville, will give an entertainment in the Baldwin Theatre, which promises to be a very unique affair. This would afford an opportunity for our amusement loving people to take a sleigh-ride to Wellsville and attend the entertainment.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. F. S. Clark next Monday evening. The programme will be as follows: Reading of the minutes. Music, "There's a Torch that Lights the Ages." Roll call, quotations from James Russell Lowell. One fact each about Hayes, Garfield and Cleveland. The lesson will be twenty-eight questions on "The Story of the Constitution," also "Physiology" and the "Russian Jews." Questions on American History. Recess. Report of programme committee. Table talk, "Christian and Sanitary Commission" and "Physical Culture."

The people of Angelica are greatly excited over the assignment of I. L. Fisk of that place who failed for $23,000. Mr. Fisk has always been a plain farmer, never engaging in other business to anybody's knowledge, and what he has done with all this money, which was borrowed from different persons is a mystery nobody can solve. Rev. E. P. Hubbell of Wellsville is "in it" for $500, and Rev. E. B. Williams, who formerly preached in Andover, is a creditor $1,000 worth, but we understand the latter gentleman is secured.

Last Sunday we took a short vacation, and went to see our friend Miss Krusen, who has charge of the station at Aroya, Colo. Her many friends will be pleased to hear that her health is much improved. We found her comfortably situated in a cozy little building of two rooms and the waiting room; she lives in regular old maid style, keeps everything just shining clean and does her own cooking. Right here we will say that she had the very best mince pie we have ever tasted, we do not say this to make our readers hungry, but to show our appreciation of the pie. Besides being "chief cook and bottle washer" of her kitchen, Miss Krusen has full charge of the railroad business at Aroya, and is deputy postmaster too. She sent her best regards to all enquiring friends, and we take this way of delivering them.—Times, Sharon Springs, Kansas.

On Monday evening of this week the members of the C. L. S. C. attended a Banquet at the home of Mrs. F. S. Clark. At the beginning of the season the ladies chose sides, with Mrs. Cochrane and Mrs. Herrick as captains. It was agreed that at the close of the half year the side which received the least number of credits by reason of not having their lessons as well as those on the opposite side, or not being so regular in attendance at the meetings, or not being able to furnish quotations from different authors, or not knowing when the different states were settled, or not being posted on the biographies of distinguished individuals, or not being so well versed in history, or not being "up" on the pronunciation of words, etc., etc., should provide and serve a supper for the winners. Without knowing it, perhaps, the ladies agreed on the very thing that pleased their husbands best, for not knowing which side would win, the members could not neglect their household duties in favor of the literary ones without being in danger of forgetting just how to properly season salads and prepare all the different viands to suit the taste of those who were to be the epicures. Well, Mrs. Herrick's side won, and such a spread as Mrs. Cochrane and her lieutenants set before them! It cannot be described, but it was unanimously voted that the ladies on the losing side in the contest were just the ones to get up a supper, if something a little better than usual was wanted. The caterers also treated their guests to a literary feast, the matter for which was original and prepared for the occasion. Last evening the members took a sleigh-ride to Wellsville, where they had another good time, all agreeing that it pays to belong to the C. L. S. C.

Death of L. H. Hall.

Mr. Lewis H. Hall died at his home in this place on Friday, Feb. 12, 1892, aged 37 years. He died very suddenly, his death probably being due to a stroke of paralysis. He had been in usual health up to the time of his death, and was on the streets only about two hours before the sad event occurred. Mr. Hall was a Union veteran, and was a most respected citizen and neighbor. He leaves a wife and four children. Mrs. E. O. Vochees, of Olean, Misses Minnie and Bertha, Hall, and Lewis S. Hall. The funeral services were held at the Seventh Day Baptist church on Monday, Rev. Joshua Clarke officiating.

Correctly Described.

A jolly load of good looking, youngish ladies from Andover were in town last evening on a sleigh-ride. They had supper at the Kitchen and seemed to be having a very happy time. Perhaps it was because they knew their husbands were safely at home.

There were in the crowd, Mrs. B. E. Rutrows, Mrs. P. F. Bundy, Mrs. D. J. Comstock, Mrs. D. K. Porter, Mrs. M. A. Orvis, Mrs. F. E. Comstock, Mrs. F. S. Clark, Mrs. G. M. Barney, Mrs. Ward Oatley, Mrs. S. J. Mourhess, Mrs. D. H. Hunt, Mrs. C. H. Lever, Mrs. D. Randolph, Mrs. J. L. Cunningham, Mrs. W. L. ...

Married.

at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in Andover, Feb. 10, 1892, by Rev. Father Brown, Mr. John Dean and Miss Elizabeth Joyce. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Peter Joyce, and the groom is the youngest son of Mr. Anthony Dean, Sr. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock a. m., in the presence of a large number of people. Miss Ella Garvin of Warsaw was the bride's maid, and Mr. W. E. Wagner of Wellsville was best man. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the bride's parents, where about 80 of their friends and neighbors awaited them. After congratulations the party sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast, after which many hours were spent in merry-making. The happy couple left on train 1 for a trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo and other places. Guests were present from Hornellsville, Canisteo, Greenwood, Rexville, Olean, Alfred, Wellsville and Andover.

The wedding gifts were very numerous and many of them were exceedingly costly and elegant.

The bride and groom are favorites among their acquaintances and the people of Andover generally, and received many heartfelt words of congratulation and good wishes.

Andover is First to Settle.

We have received the following communication from County Treasurer Gardiner:

ANGELICA, Feb. 15, 1892.

The collector from your town, Calvin Slocum, has settled and paid up in full, and is the first collector in the county that has his discharge.

D. D. GARDINER, Co. Treas.

Attention Please.

D. V., there will be meetings at the Baptist Church in Andover, four evenings each of the next two weeks, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. All our members and congregation are urgently requested to attend as much as possible. All others are cordially invited and most welcome to take part and participate in the meetings.

"I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord." "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near." "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy and abundantly pardon."

WAYNE BREWSTER, Pastor.

Stock Breeders' Association.

A meeting was held in Hornellsville recently to organize the Western New York Fine Stock Breeders' Association. After adopting a constitution declaring the object of the association to be fine stock breeding, the following officers were elected:

Pres. F. S. Peer, Mt. Morris, N. Y.
Vice Pres. John F. Langworthy, Alfred Centre, N. Y.
Sec. C. D. Ranger, Hornellsville, N. Y.
Directors for one year: L. H. Benjamin, Haskinsville; E. A. Heselbine, Hornellsville; W. G. Tucker, Elm Valley.

Directors for two years: Alanson Stephens, Hornellsville; Melville Niles, of Alfred Centre; C. H. Hartshorn, of Hornellsville.

A committee of the officers and managers will meet at the Page House in Hornellsville, on Thursday, the 18th inst., to perfect arrangements for a meeting to be held early in March at which papers will be read by the breeders in the state. This Association proposes to do good work for all breeders in general, and its own members in particular. Farmers and others who want to join, can make application to members.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express to our friends and neighbors our heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses shown us during the death and burial of our beloved husband and father.

We use Alcohol

pure alcohol to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING. Alcohol is good for leather; it is good for the skin. Alcohol is the chief ingredient of Cologne, Florida Water, and Bay Rum the well known face washes. We think there is nothing too costly to use in a good leather preservative.

Acme Blacking retails at 20c. and at that price sells readily. Many people are so accustomed to buying a dressing or blacking at 5c. and 10c. a bottle that they cannot understand that a blacking can be cheap at 20c. We want to meet them with cheapness if we can, and to accomplish this we offer a reward of for a recipe which will enable us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. We hold this offer open until Jan. 1st, 1893.
