

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, Editor

ANDOVER, N. Y., FEB. 24, 1892.

A new vegetable is about to be introduced to the people of the United States, through the Department of Agriculture. It is the root of the callily, which resembles somewhat in appearance the ordinary Irish tuber but with the addition of a few whiskers that have nothing to do with the quality of the article as an esculent. It is more elongated, and when cut the interior is a trifle more viscid; but a section of it is so potato-like that you would not be likely to distinguish any difference. In cooking, it has first to be boiled in order to destroy certain acid properties, after which it may be fried, roasted, baked, or what not, according to taste. Farmers in Florida have begun to raise these calla roots for market. The plants grow readily in swamps, and so thickly that the yield of a single flooded acre is enormous. They reproduce themselves by the multiplication of their roots underground, so that the grower has simply to dig up the offshoots and leave the parents to propagate anew. For centuries the Egyptians have cultivated a similar crop during the season of the Nile overflow; and at the present time callily bulbs are a common vegetable plant in Japanese markets. So prolific and palatable are they, that their propagation in many parts of the United States, where conditions are favorable, may reasonably be looked forward to as an agricultural industry.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

Slippery, slumpy, slushy. The man who votes from spite, instead of principle, is pretty "small potatoes." Comrade H. C. Coleman, of Alfred, was in town on business last week. Miss Maud Fulmer has consented to teach two weeks extra before closing the winter term of school. Mr. Barr H. Robbins of Spring Mills was enumerating the inhabitants of this place last week. Mr. Theodore Cobb of Spring Mills received the Republican nomination for Supervisor, and Mr. Norman S. Bartlett of Whitesville was nominated for the same office on the Fusion ticket. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Warfield, of Andover, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Potter. Mr. Maxson and Mr. Stillman, of Genesee, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown, several days last week. Miss Mary Wood of Andover was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Miranda Wood, several days last week. Over twenty members of Whitesville Lodge I. O. G. T. visited the lodge at this place, Saturday evening, and a tip-top time is reported. It is said the Democrats, Prohibitionists and Alliance men have sandwiched their interests and will vote the same ticket, in order to beat the Republicans. If they win, wonder if free whisky will be on tap. Elder Gibson preached a good sermon in the S. D. B. church here on Sunday evening.

SOME GUMPTION.

CORWIN HILL NEWS.

Rev. G. W. Gibson and wife made several calls in this place on Tuesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Blackman returned to Wellsville on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. David Bullard and her sister, Miss Lila McGraw, visited friends and relatives in Hornellsville, several days last week. The Green of South Hill was in this place on business last Friday. Mrs. Brown visited her mother's family Saturday and Sunday at their home in Greenwood. Mr. D. P. Corwin fell while drawing logs on his farm, on Monday, and sustained painful injuries to his back.
