THE ANDOVER NEWS.

George Spruson has returned to Horn-ellsville.
 Ward Oatley was in Hornellsville on business yesterday.
 No school this week. The Spring term begins next Monday.

Mrs. H. C. Norris and little daughter, are visiting friends in Angelica.

Miss Ella Whiting of Mansfield, Pa., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. B. Herrick.

Mrs. B. F. Smith, whose husband recently died here, has moved to Horn-ellsville.

Miss Anna Casey of South Hill is visiting Miss Kate Joyce, at the American House.

The total population of the State, as given by the late enumeration returns is 6,479,730.

Mr. A. W. Coon will soon move to Alfred Centre. We don't like to see Mr.
 Coon leave town.

The Almond correspondent of the Canaseraga Times says Arthur Starr will remove to Andover.

All persons who expect to dress in costume at the New England Supper, are requested to meet at the residence of A. M. Burrows, Saturday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock.

Henry Phillips has been appointed agent for Prangen's Laundry. Articles left at the store of W. H. Phillips will receive prompt attention, or the agent will call for them if desired.

Prof. Armstrong is spending the week's vacation with his wife at her former home, Macedon, N. Y. Mrs.
 Armstrong is in attendance upon her mother, who is ill.

There is some prospect that Andover will soon have a new undertaking establishment, in connection with either the furniture or bakery business, or possibly both. No definite particulars can be given at present writing.

The News has received, with the card of Periam Burrows Hardy enclosed, an invitation to the Commencement Exercises of the Long Island College Hospital, Class of '92, at Academy of Music, New York, Wednesday evening, March 23.

John Swain has a cow which will be two years old the middle of next month.
 She gives all the milk the family uses, including the making of all the butter required for the family and some to sell, besides furnishing milk for one calf and one pig. The cow is a half blood Jersey. What would she do if she were a full-blood?

Mr. John Deming went to Friendship yesterday.

A young lady arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Austin last Sunday.

C. A. Jackson of Belmont was in town yesterday looking after insurance matters.

Dr. C. W. O'Donnell attended the meeting of the Allegany County Medical Society, held at Belmont last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hunt and Miss Flora Bundy are in Ulysses, Pa., attending the funeral of Mrs. Geo. C. Marion, which occurs to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin D. Baker arrived in Andover the first of this week. They will soon begin housekeeping in David Davis' house on North Main street.

Masters "Sam" and "Ed" Joyce appeared at the firemen's benefit concert at Alfred Centre, last week, and their singing received the compliment of en-cores.

S. M. Proper will be in Andover about the fifth of April, for a short time. Any one having surveying to be done may secure Mr. Proper's services at that time.

S. P. Robinson has purchased a building lot of W. B. Clarke, on Greenwood street, and will build a residence there on the coming summer. Glad to know Mr. Robinson will move to the village.

James Clark, an old resident of this town, died at his home this (Wednesday) morning. Mr. Clark had been afflicted for some time with a cancer in his head, which was the cause of his death, at the age of 82.

Mrs. Jett Blodgett has been in a serious condition for nearly a week past, her friends entertaining little or no hope that she would survive. Last evening she was reported as slightly improved, but still very low. She is the mother of a child who was born last Wednesday.

V. A. Willard of the Belmont Post, who was advertised to speak to the Lanphear Valley open Alliance, last Saturday evening, arrived in Andover about the time the blizzard struck this place, on the afternoon evening. It is needless to say he stayed here over night.

Charlotte, wife of George C. Manon, died at her home in Ulysses, Pa., Monday March 21, 1892 aged about 45 years.

Mrs. Marion was well known in Andover, having been a resident here, her husband being employed by A. B. Atwood in his tin shop. Mr. and Mrs.
 Marion left here about twelve years ago.

Last Saturday evening the worst blizzard of the season occurred. Those who were out made haste to get in, and those who were in made haste to stay there. We haven't heard of any fatalities resulting, but verily believe no person could have endured the fury of the storm any great length of time without serious results.

W. B. Bundy has received notice of his reappointment as Notary Public, an office which he has satisfactorily filled for the past three years. Mr. Bundy is always ready to assist any body who wants to "swear." In addition to putting his official signature to a great many documents, he attends to pension matters for nearly or quite all the pensioners in this town, making out vouchers &c. Courteousness and promptness are appreciated as much in a Notary Public as in a bank cashier, and, being both, of course Mr. Bundy has double the usual allowance of those qualities.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. A.
 M. Burrows, next Monday evening. The following programme will be given: Music, No. 37 in Chautauqua songs; reading of the minutes; report of the critic of last meeting; roll call; quotations from Nathaniel Hawthorne; three facts about Hawthorne; lesson, the remainder of the questions in the March Chautauquan upon American Letters, Story of the Constitution, and questions and answers on Australasia; recess, report of the programme committee; table talk upon the week's reading in American Letters.

Mrs. Dr. Sprague, who has been in town for a couple of weeks in the interest of the Western New York Home for Friendless Children, located at Randolf, has received offers of aid from many farmers in this section, in the shape of produce, but the roads have been so nearly impassable as to preclude the possibility of delivering the goods.
 We are now requested to state that those who will donate potatoes, beans, butter, flour, or any article of produce, are requested to bring the same to this village on or before the first of April.
 Call at D. B. Spaulding's drug store and receive directions as to where the goods shall be left. It is hoped this call will meet with a hearty response. This Home is one of the most worthy institutions in the State, and everything given for its support is sure to do its full share in helping to carry on a good work. Give liberally.

Last Friday night the members of Lincoln Camp, S. of V. treated the members of Seaman Post, G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps to warm sugar, at Union Hall. Everybody present had a jolly time, and the "boys" made a record in the cooking line.

In accordance with a recent ruling, the apportionment of the regents' fund to schools is now based largely upon daily attendance throughout the school year. One day's absence imposes a loss of two cents for each pupil. It will readily be seen that irregular attendance subjects a school to great loss. It believes every patron of our school to see to it that pupils are present every day.
 Only illness or other as good cause should prevent any from answering to their name at least once a day.

Baker--Hays.

On March 17th, 1892, a number of the many friends of Mr. Erwin D. Baker of Andover, and Miss Mary A. Hays, gathered at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Hays of Purdy Creek, N. Y., to witness the fulfillment of a contract they have been quietly arranging for the past two years or more, and only needed the services of the Rev.
 G. W. Gibson of Andover, who is an expert in bringing such contracts to a happy consummation to the satisfaction of the parties interested and every one present. With Miss Angie Powell at the organ rendering a beautiful wedding march, the bridal party entered.
 The bride was attired in a Mode Lansdown, trimmed-in-embroidered Chiffon, and wore roses and hyacinths. Miss Rosa Baker of North Bingham, Pa., was the bridesmaid, and Mr. Melvin Travis of Hornellsville was best man.

After the introduction of Mr. and Mrs. Baker to the company by Rev. Mr.
 Gibson, and hearty congratulations had been extended, a bounteous repast was served which the 80 guests seemed to enjoy as a part of the pleasure of the day.

Among the many guests present, those from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Baker and family, of North Bingham, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fam-um of Ulysses, Pa.; Oris Plicen and Miss Reynolds, of Ulysses; Mrs. M. J. Atwood and daughter, Mrs. D. J. Com-cock and daughter, Mr. J. W. Deming, wife and daughter, Mr. I. M. Bebel and Miss Brainard, Mr. Z. L. Cook and Miss Duteher, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilcox, F. M. Lee, wife and daughter, all of Andover.

The presents were many and were both useful and beautiful. A number of them were elegant and expensive, and all were fit tokens of the esteem in which the bride and groom are held by their friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Baker is one of Andover's industrious, intelligent young men, and is respected by all. He is sure to make his mark in the world. Miss Hays is loved and esteemed by all who know her and is a lady of sterling worth. After a brief sojourn among friends they will soon commence house keeping at Andover.
 ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Death of a Niece of W. H. Church.

From the Elmira Advertiser of March 11th we take the following: About 10 o'clock last night, death took from Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Crane their only child, Susie, a lovable little girl aged eight years. The little one had been a patient sufferer for many months and the loving parents have watched constantly at her bedside, at the family residence, 321 Orchard street. Her life had been despaired of for several days, yet the blow comes with crushing force to her parents, relatives and friends.

The Advertiser of March 14 contained the following account of the funeral: The funeral of Susie Crane was held at the family residence, Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Thomas K. Beecher officiated and spoke words of condolence to the grief-stricken parents and friends. The burial was at Woodlawn.

Mrs. Crane is a sister of W. H. Church of this village. Mrs. Church attended the funeral services of the child.

Spring Wraps.

In spite of the wintry weather our new Spring Jackets are moving off surprisingly fast. We are showing Reefers

OH, WHAT A COUGH!

Will you heed the warning? The fatal perhaps of the sure approach of that most terrible disease, consumption.
 Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of 50c to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough.
 It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold the past year. It relieves cough and whooping cough at once. Mothers do not be-without it. For lame back, side or chest use Shiloh's porous plaster. Sold by D. B. Spaulding.

BLACKING is cheaper at 20 cents a bottle than any other Dressing at 5 cents.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAYS because shoes once blackened with it can be kept clean by washing them with water.
 People in moderate circumstances find it profitable to buy it at 20c a bottle, because what they spend for Blacking they save in shoe leather.

It is the cheapest blacking considering its quality, and yet we want to sell it cheaper if it can be done. We will pay

$10,000 Reward for a recipe that will enable us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c a bottle. This offer is open until Jan. 1st, 1893.

WOLFF & RANDOLPH, Philadelphia.
