In Harlem women who take their babies into stores when they checked, and go about their shopping in comfort. Such a feature would do well in Andover, and we could name the clerk who should have charge of the "baby department."

The library consists of a large number of volumes, embracing dictionaries, cyclopaedia, histories, works of reference, etc. The other equipments consist of apparatus for teaching various branches, such as physiology, anatomy, chemistry, natural philosophy, etc. Any person who will take trouble to inspect these new appliances will not long remain in doubt of their utility in teaching of the branches of study to which they are intended.

THE DEATH RECORD.

MRS. HELEN S. CLARKE. Mrs. Helen S. Clarke, relict of the late Deatur M. Clarke, died at her home in this village at noon on Tuesday, April 12, 1892, aged 62 years. As is well known to all her friends and acquaintances, Mrs. Clarke had been in ill health for some time, and while her immediate death had not been looked for, it was thought she could not withstand disease for any length of time. For about two weeks previous to her death she had appeared somewhat better, and had even taken short walks out of doors. She had a bad attack the evening previous to her death, and another a short time before the end. Mrs. Clarke was universally respected as a Christian of high standing in this community. The funeral was held at the S. D. B. church this (Thursday) morning, conducted by the Rev. Joshua Clarke. The remains were taken to Green's Corners for burial.

MORRIS J. BROWN. Morris J. Brown died at his home on South Hill, Tuesday evening, April 12, 1892, aged 32 years. Deceased was a brother of Rev. J. H. Brown of this place, and was a most estimable young man. He had studied for the priesthood, but some time ago was compelled to abandon his studies on account of ill health. The funeral will be held at the Catholic church in Wellsville Friday morning.

MRS. THOMAS O'DONNELL. Celia, wife of Thomas O'Donnell, of this town, died at her home on Monday afternoon, April 11, 1892. She had been ill about two weeks. Deceased leaves a husband and six children, three sons and three daughters. The funeral services were held at the Church of the Holy Sacrament in this village yesterday (Wednesday). Rev. Father Heilly of Belmont officiating. The family of the deceased have the sympathy of all in their loss of an estimable wife and mother.

Found Dead in Bed.

Samuel J. Bines was found dead in his bed, at the American House, this (Thursday) morning, about 8:30 o'clock, by his sister, Mrs. Harry Joyce. "Sam," as he was familiarly called, had been in usual health, which, however was not of the best, apparently up to the time of his death. He went to bed about ten o'clock last night, and so far as anyone knows, slept well all night. When found this morning the body was not entirely cold. The deceased was 22 years of age.

Charles Bines, of Belmont, was called to the scene of the above tragedy, and was found by the body of the deceased in the room. The body was found on Saturday.

Mrs. Kate Lanahan of Linwood, Ontario, was in attendance at the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell.

Ray E. Smith, son of H. D. Smith of this place, has returned from the Hornellville Business College, and now holds a position in W. H. Phillips' store.

A donation for the benefit of Rev. Joshua Clarke will be held at the Seventh-day Baptist Church in this village, on Thursday evening, April 27th, to which all are cordially invited.

Republican Caucus.

Niles' Challenge not Accepted.

The challenge published in the Andover News of March 23rd, to Melville Niles for his special benefit, that he might have the golden opportunity to prove what he said to be true, was not accepted; therefore the challenge stands against him as a falsifier, malicious and revengeful, in the most villainous manner. He could have no excuse whatever for not accepting the opportunity or proof, if he had any, as I offered to pay all costs made for referee, also $5.00 extra to referee provided he decided in Niles' favor. I would most seriously advise Mr. Niles to go a little light next time, for it does seem as though to carry such a load through all time to never ending eternity must be a severe task upon one's nervous system.
