$10,000

will be paid for a recipe enabling us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that the retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. At present the retail price is 20c.

This offer is open until January 1st, 1893. For circulars address the undersigned.

ACME BLACKING is made of pure alcohol, other liquid dressings are made of water. Water costs nothing. Alcohol is dear. Who can show us how to make it without alcohol? We can make ACME BLACKING as cheap as water—freezing, or put it in fancy packages like many of the water dressings, and then change for the outside appearance instead of charging for the contents of the bottle?

WOLFF & RANDOLPH, Philadelphia.

PIK-RON

is the name of a paint of which a 25c. bottle is enough to make six scratched and dulled chairs look like newly finished mahogany. It will do many other remarkable things which no other paint can do. All retailers sell it.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. AZONZA, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."
CARLOS MARTY, D. D., New York City. Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.
"Castoria cures Colds, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, Eruption, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion, without injurious medication."
"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

DO THE REGENTS' PAY?

You'll Say "Yes," After Reading This Report.

The one subject which, above all others, has interested the people of Andover this winter is, "The Regents." Some months ago, when this subject was being agitated, I attempted to show through the columns of the News that it paid in other towns and would pay in Andover. As a guarantee of my confidence in the efficiency of a Regents' department I guaranteed the people a return, the first year, of the interest on $1,000—or $60. I have already given one report of the work done in our school at the first Regents' examination, and am now prepared to give a second report.

As I said in my last report, we did not anticipate accomplishing much work at our first examination, nor did we anticipate any advanced certificates at our March examination; but we were happily disappointed, and as a result of our last effort we are glad to report fifteen preliminaries, four 20-count and two 30-count certificates. The 20-count and 30-count each draw $5, and each student now holding a preliminary is, at present, drawing about two cents per day from the Regents' funds. This you will see will bring us an income this far of $59, and the June examination is yet to come.

Below we give the names of students who have earned during the present year a preliminary, 20 count or 30 count certificate.

BOMB FACTORY IN THIS STATE.

Discovery Made on a farm Two Miles Southwest of Buffalo.

Charles McAllister, a farmer living about two miles southwest of Brockport made an important discovery while chopping wood in a swamp on his property a few days ago. In the centre of the swamp he found a hut made of bark and so carefully constructed as to reduce the chance of detection to a minimum. At the time of the discovery the hut was deserted. He found a sheet iron stove, a crucible, soldering irons, and two small boxes of fulminate. There were a number of tin bombs scattered about the place, several of which appeared to be loaded. Mr. McAllister secured one of the empty bombs and the boxes of fulminate.

It was expected that the occupants of the camp would return. A midnight visit was made to the place last night by Mr. McAllister and two newspaper men. The Anarchists, if such they were, had returned and carried off the loaded bombs. Two empty ones were secured. The hut is situated on a hummock surrounded by water in the midst of an almost impenetrable thicket. A death's head had been carved in the door and had been painted with phosphorus giving it a ghastly effect in the darkness.

Hon. F. B. Youmans on Hill

Hon. F. B. Youmans is pretty well known in Andover, then for the following from the Elmira Gazette may be of interest here:

Hon. F. B. Youmans of Elmira, N. Y., is a brother of Congressman Youmans of Michigan, and was chief clerk at the Treasury Department during the last administration, says the Washington Post. He is located at the Metropolitan Club in New York, and that he was also very friendly to the ex-President. "But," said he, "you can't find a Democrat in Elmira that is opposed to David B. Hill. His townsmen, who have known him longest, are warmest in their advocacy of his nomination to the Presidency. They think his chances of carrying the state superior to Mr. Cleveland's, because of the feeling that the latter was not as intent on giving Democrats the patronage at his disposal as the public hoped for. They regard Mr. Cleveland as a man of the highest integrity and always praise his administration, but for senator Hill there is nothing but unbounded admiration."

More or Less Funny.

The Easter lilies have faded, The Easter Service is said, But the Easter Bonnets are with us, And the bills are still unpaid.

Hornellsville man to small boy: "What's all that crying about over in your house?"

Johnny: "Willie pulled down a jug of molasses on himself in the pantry this morning and ma is combing his hair."

Susan B. Anthony says she will throw up her hat if the woman's-suffrage bill becomes a law. Susan may get hilarious, but not many women will treat their new Easter bonnets in that way, what ever happens.

A news item says that the sole personal effects of a man who died in Auburn Me., were a Bible and a pack of cards. He was a thrifty brother and had prepared himself for either place in the future world. There is nothing like being an all around man in a future as well as in a present sense.

Baby McKee recently had to be sent away from the White House table because he asked for pie twice. It seems to run in the blood. Baby McKee's grandpa is a candidate for re-election.

Quite a number of sympathizing friends from this place attended the funeral of the late Mrs. D. M. Clark of Andover, who was a former resident of this place, out of respect to the memory of a good woman, who was loved and esteemed by all who knew her. Elder Kenyon officiated at the grave here.

SOME GEMPTION.

Niles and Truman Again.

Mr. Editor and Readers of the Andover News: Of course you all remember the publication, written by myself, in the News of March 2, 1892, also Mr. Truman's challenge to me in the issue of March 23, 1892, in which he says I have unjustly and falsely accused him, in a vicious and wrongful manner; and he challenges me to prove it under a forfeit of $500. It will be seen at a glance that he has the whole thing fixed to suit himself. Now, Mr. Editor and readers of the NEWS, I had a paper drawn up which corresponded exactly with Mr. Truman's challenge, only to make the thing balance, if I did prove the assertions which I made in my piece, that he (Mr. Truman) must pay me $500. Mr. Truman was asked to place his signature to the paper, but he refused to do it, and for that reason I did not accept his challenge. Now then, he says I have falsely accused him. I can prove that I have not falsely accused him. He says that I have slandered him; but Mr. Editor, I can prove that I have not slandered him, because I said nothing but the truth, and the truth is not slander, though it may cut to the quick. Mr. Truman says in his piece in the issue of April 13, that the challenge stands against me as a falsifier and malicious and wrongful in the most villainous manner. Well this, Mr. Editor, we accept, because it is quite natural for a man when he is compelled to swallow a bitter pill, to try and get some one else so taste a little also.

Mr. Truman shows a great deal of feeling for me for having such a load to carry through time and eternity; but I am afraid that the load falls heavier on other shoulders than mine, as it does not seem to tax my nervous system very much yet. ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y.
