A Piano SENT on trial

WE PAY FREIGHT

If you do not keep it. We think you will keep it. It pleases everybody. It is an honest piano. It is the WING Piano.

You may have a preference for some other make. Still you are a reasoning creature, and open to conviction, no doubt. The question is too important to be settled without due thought. Years of satisfaction or of regret come with a piano. Does it wear well? The WING Piano does. "Look before you leap."

Whatever piano you buy, there are piano secrets you ought to know. Our free book tells them. Send a postal card for it. It may help you to buy a different piano. We take that risk. We also tell you the nearest dealer where you can see a WING Piano. It is worth looking at. So is the price. WING & SON, 215 Broadway, New York.

The logic of common-sense speaks strongly in favor of a medicine that is at once simple, easy to take, and helpful when taken. It took a good pharmacist a long while to prepare an absolutely certain blood remedy, but he succeeded, at last and we have it. A bottle of Diamond's Blood Bitter is nothing more or less than a doctor's prescription to build you up. Only it's cheaper—that's all. Trial bottle, 50 cents, at druggists.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Perfectly Well.

FILMORE, Dubuque Co., Ia., Sept., 1889.

Miss K. Finigan writes: My mother and sister used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for neuralgia. They are both perfectly well now and never tired of praising the tonic.

It was indeed a miracle.

284 First St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 3, '90.

I wish to state what a wonderful benefit Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic has been to my brother, who has suffered from rheumatism since 1888 and has not been able to do work of any kind since that time. He has tried all kinds of patent medicines and different doctors of skill, but all without benefit, until he took the Tonic. He has continued to use it, and I will be doing him besides the good he has done himself, say and hundreds besides me who have seen him while in his sickness, that it was indeed a miracle to see him restored to health.

W. D. GRAHAM.
