SUNDAY SERMON.

ONE OF DR. TALMAGE'S STER-LING DISCOURSES.

Subject : "Fit wastebt Name of All."

TEXT: "The name which is above every ame."-Philippians ii., 9.

name."-Fniippians 11., 9.

Paul is her making rapturous and enthusiastic description of the name of Christ.
There are merely worldly names that sometimes thrill you through and through. Such was the name of Henry Clay to a Kentuckian, the name of William Wirt to a Virginian, the name of Daniel Webster to a New Englander.

Englander. By common proverb we have come to be-lieve that "there is nothing in a name;" and so parents sometimes at the baptismal altar gives titles to their children reckless of the fact that that title, that name, will be a life-time hindrance or a lifetime help. You have no right to give your child a name lacking either in euphony or moral mean-ing. amon proverb we have come to be-lacking either in euphony or moral meaning its a sin to call a child Jehoiakim or Tiglath-plieser—or by anything that is disagreeable. Because you have tad an exasterating name yourself is no reason why you should inflict it upon your progeny. And yet how often it is that we see a name full of jargon rattling down from generation to generation simply because a long while ago some one happened to be afflicted with it. Institutions and great enterprises sometimes without sufficient deliberation take nomenciature. Mighty destinies have been decided by a name. While we may by a long course of Christian behavior get over the mistortune of having been baptized with the name of a despot or a cheat, how much better it would have been if we could have all started life without any such incumbrance:

When Paul in my text and in other pas-better it would have been it we could have all started life without any such incumbrance!

When Paul, in my text and in other passages of Scripture, burst forth in aspirations of admiration for the name of Christ, I want to inquire what are the characteristics of that appellation, "The name which is above every name." In the first place, speaking to you in regard to the name of Christ, I want to tell you it is an easy name. You are sometimes introduced to people with long and unpronounceable names, and you have to listen cautiously to get the names, and you have to hear them pronounced two or other simes before you risk trying to utter them, but within the first two years the little child folds its hands and looks upward and says "Jesus."

ad says "Jesus."
Can it be that in all this church this morn-

and says "Jesus."

Can it be that in all this church this morning there are representatives of any household where the children are familiar with the names of the father and mother and brother-and sister, yet know nothing about. That name which is above every name?" Sometimes you forget the name of a quite familiar friend, and you have to think and think before you get it, but can you imagine any freak of intellect by which you should force the name of Jesus? That word seems to fit the tongue in every dialect. Down to old age, when the voice is tremulous and uncertain and indistinct, even then this regal word finds potent utterance.

When an aged father was dying one of the children came and said, "Father, do you know me?" and in the self-rium of the last sickness he said, "No, I don't know you." Another child came and said, "Father, do you know me?" "No," he said, "I don't know you." Then the village pactor came in and said, "Dou you know me?" He said, "No, I don't know me?" "No, I don't know me?" He said, "No, I don't know me?" "No, I d

Jesus. I love Thy charming name,
Tis music to my ear.
Fain would I sound it out so lond
That heaven and earth might hear.

Tis mease to my ear:

Fain would is out so load
That heaven and earth might hear.

Ent I remark further in regard to this name of Christ, that it is a beautiful name. Now you have noticed that you cannot disassociate a name of the control to the and impressing the first the kingdom of heaven.

The provision of the first the kingdom of heaven, which stands for love, for patience, for self secrifice, for magnanimity, for everything that is good and glorious and tender and sympathetic and kind! It is aromatic with that is good and glorious and tender and sympathetic and kind! It is aromatic with all odors. It is accordant with all harmonies. Sometimes when I look at that name of Jesus Christ it seems as if the letters were made of tears, and then they seem to be gleaming crowns. Sometimes that name seems to be twisted out of the straw on which the interest in the seems to be twisted out of the straw on which the interest in the seems to be used to reign. Sometimes I sound that was to reign. Sometimes I sound that was all desus, and I hear in it the cob of Getheemane and the groan of Calvary, and then I spake His name and it is all a ripple with gladness and aring with hosanna. Glorious name! Take all the glories of bookbindery and put them around the page on which that name is printed. On Christmas morning wreathe it on the wall. Let it drip from harp's string and let it hunder out in organ's diapason. Sound it often, sound it well, untievery star shall seem to shine it, and every flower shall seem to breathe it, and wountain and sea, and day and night, and earth and heaven acclaim in full chant, "Blessed be His glorious name forever." "The name which is above every name."

Have you ever heard in a Methodist church, during a time of revival, a score of souls come to the altar and cry out for mercy under the power of just two lines of glorious old John Wesley?

Jesor, the name high over all, Inheaven, or earth, or sky.

Jesus, the name high over all, In heaven, or earth, or sky.

In heaven, or earth, or eks.

To the repenting soul, to the exhausted invalid, to the Sunday-school gull, to the snow white, octogenarian it is beautiful. The aged man concer in from a long walk, and he remultiously opens that done of his bome, and he heigh his bat on the old nail, and he puts his case in the usual place, and he his on his couch, and he says to his children and his grandchildren, "My dears, I am going away from you." And they say, "Way, where are you going, grandfather?" "Oh," he says, "I am going to Jesus," and so the old man faints away into heaven.

room you." And they say, "Way, where are you going, grandfether?" ("Oh, he says, "I am going to Jesus," and so the old man faints away into besue."

And the little child comes in from play and she flings herself in your lap, and she says, "Mamma, I'm so sick, I'm so very sick;" and you put her to bed, and the faver is worse and worse, and some midnight, while you are shaking up the pillow and giving the medicine, she looks up in your face and says, "Mamma, I'm going away from you." You say, "Why, where are you going, my darling?" And she says, "I am going to Jesus." And she says, "I am going to Jesus." And the red cheek that you take to be the mark of the fever turns out to be only the carnation bloom of heaven.

On, was it not beautiful when a little child heard that her playmate was dying, and she went to the house, and she clambered upon the bed of her dying playmate. "Where are you going to?" and the dying girl said, "I'm going to Jesus." Then said the little girl that was well as she bent over to give the parting kiss to her dying playmate, "Well, then, if you are going to Jesus; give my love to Him." In Some of the little girl that was well as the hent over on the lite of the old man. When my father was dying the village minister said to bim, quoting over his pillow this passage, "This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation—that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinnera," and there he stopped. Then my father finished the quotation by saying, "of whom I am chief."

But I remark again, in rezard to this name of Christ, that it is a mighty name. Rotheshid is a name mighty in the commercial world, Silliman is a name mighty in the political world, Wellington is a name mighty in the political world, Wellington is a name mighty in the political world, Wellington is a name mighty in the political world, Wellington is a name mighty in the political world, Wellington is a name mighty in the political world, Wellington is a name mighty in the political world, Wellington is a name mighty in the pol and pray and believe and rejoice and trimodel, it is a mighty name. Under its power the last remote of superstition will come down and the last Juggernaut of iniquity will be shattered to pieces. The red horse of carnage, spoken of in apocalyptic vision, and the black horse of death must come back on their haunches, while the white horse of victory goes forth monuted of Him who hath the moon under His feet and the stars of the moon under His feet and the stars of heaven for His liara. Mighty name! It will make the whole earth tramble, and then it will make all the nations sing. Mighty name? The name!

Other dominions seem to be giving way. France had to give up some of her favoritaprovinces; Spain has lost agreat deal of her prover; many of the thrones of the world are being lowered; many of the scapters of the start of the Peace o'er the world her oile wand extend, And white-robed innocence from heaven descend

Returning justice lift aloft her scale;

Peace of the world her olive wand extend.

And white-robed innocence from heaven descend.

But I remark again, taking, a step forward in this subject, that the name of Christ is an enduring name. You get over the fence of the graveyard and you pull the weeds back from the name that has nearly faded from the tombstone, and you wish that Waiter Scott's "Old Mortality" would come along and rechisel it so that you might really find out what the name is. Why, that was the name of the greatest man in all the town, in all the country, in all the State, now almost faded from the tombstone.

And so the greatest man is all the town, in all the country, in all the State, now almost faded from the tombstone.

And so the greatest manse of this world either have persible or are perishing. Of Gernary, Richard L. of Engla, dourself, of them now? None so poor as to do them reverence. But the name of Chrig's is enduring forever. It will be preserved in the world's fine art. There will be other Bellinis to sketch the Madonna, and other Ghirlandsajoa to present the baptism of Christing the spirits in prison, and other Giottos to appal the vision with the Crucificion. It will be preserved in the world's grand and elaborate architecture, and frotestanism shall yet have it's St. Mark's and Its St. Peter's. It shall be preserved in the world's grand and elaborate architecture, and Protestanism shall yet have it's St. Mark's and Its St. Peter's. It shall be embalmed in the marts of all the good of care of the state of the state of the standard of the progeneral the bring the preserved in the world to great the harts of the standard of the progrey of the bring the physician who gave him sight? Shall the lost and wandering ever forget who broug name of Christ in the thunder of falling towers and in the crass of tample walls, and see it interwoven into the firing banners of fame, and the redeemed of heaven would say." Let the temples and the palaces burn; let them burn; we have Jesus left." Blessed be His glorious name forever. "The name which is above every name."

My friends, have you made up your mind by what name you will accest Christ when you see Him in heaven? Now that is a practical question. For you will see Him, child of God, just as certainly as you sitchers and of God, just as certainly as you sitchers and up your ment to call. Christ was the word of the control of the con mry of lily and rose and amarath, and perbaps you will look up into the face of Christ and ary, "My Lord, Thou art the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley." Some time there will be a new soul come into heaven to take its place in the firmament and shine as the stars forever and ever, and the luster of a useful life will shine forth remnions and beautiful, and you will look up into the faces of Christ and say, "My Lord, Thou art a brighter star, the Morning Star, the Star of Jacob, the Star of the Redeemer."

up into the lacks of Chinas art, the Morning Star, the Star of Jacob, the Star of Leving Star, the Star of Jacob, the Star of Leving Star, the Star of Jacob, the Star of Leving Star, the Star of Jacob, the Star of Leving Star, the Star of Jacob, the Star of Leving Star, the Star of Leving In created and a crystalline ura, and wandering up the round banked river to the pacety of the water first thinke in silver will be derinking to honor and everlashing joy, and you will be drinking to honor and everlashing joy, and you will be drinking to honor and everlashing joy, and you will be drinking to honor and everlashing joy, and you will be drinking to honor and everlashing joy, and you will be wandering among the lambs and sheep of Living Water. We day you will be wandering among the lambs and sheep of heaven feeding by the rock, rajoicing in the care of Him who hought you out of the wilderness world his face and say, "My Lord, my Lord, Thou art the Shepherl of the Everlashing Hills."

But care its another name by which you can be sufficiently and the same Laven not mentioned yet. It imagine that heaven is all full. Every throne has taking. Every harp has its harper. All the wealth of the universe has come into heaven. There is nothing to be added. The eong full, The ranks full. The san will set after with its splendor the domes of the temple, and burnish the golden streets into a blaze, and be reflected back from the solid pearl of the twalvegates, and it will be noon in heaven. Noon on the river. Noon on the hills. Noon in the valleys. High noon. And then you will look upon the full irrediation, and you will ery out, "My Lord, my Lord, Thou art the Sua that Never But at this point I am staggered with the insufferable splendor, until after awhile you can look upon the full should be starting the star of the walvegated with the insufferable splendor, until after awhile you can look upon the full rediation, and you will ery out, "My Lord, my Lord, Thou art the Sua that Never But at this point I am staggered with the treatistion, and you will cry out, "My Lord, my Lord, Thou art the Sun that Never State 1 and 1

His worth if all the nations knew, Sure the whole earth would love him too.

Sure the whole early would love him too.

Fury God that He may move upon this assemblage now, that we may see Him walking through all these aisles, that the Holy Spirit may spread His wings over this autitory. Now is your time for heaven. Oh, my friends' meeting once, perhaps never again until the books are opened, what shall we say of this morning's service? Have I told you the whole truth? Have you listing to the whole truth? Now is your time for heaven. Come into the king-ten. If you never had an invitation before, I give it to you never had an invitation before, I give it to you never had an invitation before, I give it to you never heaven. Come into the king. Inc. If you never had an invitation before, I givest to you now.

I do not ask what your sin has been or what your wandering. That is not pertinent to the question. The only thing is whether you want Christ. Come in the farthest off. Come, the nearest by. "Where sin abounded, grace shall much more abound." Is tuere in all this august assemblage a man who feels he is too wicked to come? You are mistaken. Come now. "Now is the acceptal time; now is the day of salvation."

O ye who are young, come now! It is no gloomy religion that I preach. It will take no color from your chees. It will take no spring from your step. I know what I am taking about. I have fat the consolition of this grace in my own heart. It is not a theory with me. I know in whon I boileve, and He has been so good a friend to me, I have a right this morning to commend His friendship to all the people.
Oh, come into the kingdom! Do not say you are too bad. "Let the wicket forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts." "Look unto Me, all ye ends of the earth." How is He cainer to do-drive.

Oh, come into the kingdom! Do not say you are too bad. "Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts." "Look unto Me, all ye ends of the earth." How is He going to do-drive you into the kingdom? He will not do it. If you get in at alls. Wha does the you have you will not be kingdom? What do it. If you get in at alls. Wha does the earth." He was lifted up. What for? To read the earth. He was lifted up to draw for? To read you will not be kingdom of our own come. What he was the was the highest of the come. The way have heard of that warrior of ancient. Then who went into battle against Christ. He hated Christ and he went into battle fighting Christ, but in the went into battle fighting Christ, but in the went into warlow wounded, he was struck by the and in fell, and as he lay with his face up to and fell, and as he lay with his face up to and fell, and as he lay with his face up to and its wounded, he was struck by the sum and the life blood was oping a way, put his hand to his heart and took a malful of blood from the wound and held it up to the sun and cried out, "Oh, Jesus! Thou hast conquered,"

And if to day, my bearer, struck through by the arrow of God's reason.

put us and the wound and held it up to of blood from the wound and held it up to the sun and cried out, "Oh, Jesus! Thou hast conquered."

And if to lay, my bearer, struck through by the arrow of God's gracious Spirit, you realize the truth of what I have been saying, you would surrender vourself to the Lord who bought you, you would say: "I will no longer battle against Christ's mercy. Lord Jesus, Thou hast conquered." Glorious name, I know not what you will do with it; but I will tell you one thing here and now, that I take Him to be my Lord, my God, my pardon, my prace, my comfort, my salvation, my heaven. Blessed be His glorious name forever. "The name which is above every name."

Connecticut Republican Convention

Connecticut Republican Convention,
New Haven, Conn., May 2.—The Republican State Convention will meet at Hartford on Tuesday, Joseph L. Barbour of Hartford will be temporary chairman and Gen. Hawley of Hartford permanent chairman. The delegates-at-large will probably be Gov. Bulkeley, James P. Platt of Meriden, Thomas Lake of Windsor and ex-Lieut-Gov. Louis N.
Croke of Brooklyn. They will in all probability go the Minneapolis unin-Loxnon, May 2.—The return made to the order of the bankruptcy court against Mr. For of duelling and seconding fame, shows blathe is a director in various companies, but the connections do not appear to have been lucrative ones, as his liabilities are placed at 3,650 pounds, while his assets amount to only 236 mounds.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 2.—The canals of the State were opened at midnight Satur-day. The Erie canal, according to Divis-ion Superintendent Chambers was never in better condition than it is now and there is no fear of a break as everything is in excellent shape from one end to the other.

the state of the s

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

One of the most beautiful of Patti's possessions, which she showed to several of her friends during her recent visit to of her friends during her recent values in the larger than a fen-cent piece. It is completely studded with diamonds, so that he case is one mass of brilliant, spurk ling gens. Experts value it at not less than $1,000. It is a foreign, upon-faced they writch was the first principle with stem-winding watch.

THERE is no European country in which women clerks are more employed than in France. Indeed, it is rare to enter a Fren i shop and find a mat serving as an accountant. Bookkeepen are paid from £40 to £120 a year, and accountants much the same. In the commercial houses, where the women clerks are also employed, they ofter have an interest in the business.

The British Government spends abo This British Government spends about $2,865,000 dinually in supporting the royal family. Of this sum Queen Victoria receives $4,425,000; the Prince and Princess of Wales $25,000; the Duke of Edinburgh and the Duke of Connaught $125,000 each; the daughters, Princesses Christian, Louise, Beatrice and the Duchess of Albany $30,000 each.

At Charkoff, in Russia, two girls who were friends fell in love with the same young man. He was slow to make his selection between them. They agreed were friends fell in love with the same young man. He was slow to make his selection between them. They agreed that either could win him if delivered of the baneful competition of the other. They decided upon a duel by drawing lots. On the day following one of the young ladies was found dead in her room. She had poisoned herself with phosphorus. But her friend is broken down with sorrow and remores. It is more than likely that she will not live to enjoy the fruits of her victory.

The public schools in Doming, N. M., had to be closed recently because a violent sand storm prevailed. Little incidents like that indicate the inconvenience, distress and positive danger, not ready comprehended by Eastern dwellers, caused by the miniature simons in the dry, sandy prairie and the hot-plain districts of the West. The storms come up suddenly, the sky is darkened as by a thunder storm, everything is enveloped in a dlinding whirl of fine sand, and seeing is impossible. The worst hats for a few minutes only usually, but for hours the sand is wisked about in a most distressing manney. The public schools in Deming, N. M. distressing mann distressing manner.

The air-shaft, which was originally devised for the purpose of improving the centilation and sanitation of the lunge apartment and tenement howers, in Now York, where seeves and even hundreds of families are gathered together under one roof, is gradully being diverted from its original use. Instead of repaining an instrument of bealth and life, it is becoming an engine of destruction. It is by degrees taking the place of po son razors and pistols as a meane of suicide. The number of men and women who have sought the repose of death by hurling themselves down the air-shaft of the houses in which they resided is becoming alarming.

alarming.

The disastrons effect upon shipping of the storms that have been so frequent this past winter on the British coasts, and of such unusual violence, have suggested to the proprietors of the Daily Graphic, of London, to offer a prize of one hundred pounds for the dest means of establishing communication between a stranded ship and the shore. Many sketches and plans have been submitted already, but a few weeks have still to elapse before the various proposals will be submitted to the three judges, one of whom is an Admiral in the royal navy. In the mean time there is an excellent opportunity for Yankee ingenuity to enter the competition, which is generously open to the whole world, and perhaps to capture the prize. perhaps to capture the prize.

"More has been done in the way of irrigation in California than in any other Statie or Territory. That it does pay there can be no question. Large areas which, in their arid condition, could not be sold for more than from $1 to $5 an acre, have been made in the highest degree productive, and are worth to-day from $200 to $1,000 per acre. Figures clearly show that irrigation has added millions upon millions of dollars to the land value of California. In some cases there are complete waterworks establishments, owned by corporations, which, by diches and conduits, supply water to the surrounding region at an average cost of only from $1.25 to $1.50 cach acre per year. For orchards, vincyards and grain lands this is not a great cost. Irrigation is making thousands of men rich. As nearly as can be ascertained, the irrigated lands of California comprise three and one-half million acres. Irrigation has cost $20,000,000,000, up. ti thas increased the value of the land $500,000,000, perhaps twice the "Mone has been done in the way

The World's Clove Caddies.

Two little islands furnish four-fifths of the cloves consumed by the world. The islands are Zanzibar and Pemba, and a little while ago Arabs found it very profitable to bring slaves from the African lake region to the coast and smuggle them in the night over to Pemba to work on the clove plantations. These farms were very remunerative once, but the market has been overstocked and the price has fallen so low that the clove-raisers have decided to diversify their crops.—[New Orleans Picayune.]

Cotton Bedford cords, in light colors, made up with white corduroy into medi-fied tailor costumes, are atylish and he-

o de la companya de

Dyspepsial

and I got more and more

Suffered from dyspepsia so that I Could Not Eat Vegetables or meat, and at last so that I could not even abutter on my toast. Used to dip the toat to and even then it would distress my toa and even the serine I hired a vici lera. butter on my toast. Used to dip the toat tea and even then it would distress stomach. In the spring I hired a girl pen-nently, my health was so poor. She tied, persuade me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla at lady for whom she had worked had been gon-She said: 'It will only ly benefited by it. cost a dollar to try it. dollar to try in.

I Dragged Along
Theran to take Hoolig.

Until August, when I began to take Hodisan saparilla. In about a week I felt a little ster Could keep more food on my stomach adapt stronger. I took three bottles, am new perfectly well, have gained 22 pounds, am ineral lent health. I owe all this to Hood's Sarsaparilla am glad to let you know what it has don me." MRS. WILLIAM LOHE, let Val Burn set, Freeport, 111.

Hood's Pill's are the best afterding Pills, assist digestion, cure headache. The old saying that "consumption can be cured if taken in time" was poor comfort. It seemed to invite a trial, but to anticipate failure.

The other one, not so old,

"consumption can be cured," is considered by many false. Both are true and not true; the first is prudent-one cannot begin too early. The means is careful liv-Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is sometimes an important part of that,

Let us send you a book on CAREFUL LIVING-free.

COTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 132 South 5th Avenu, Your druggist keeps Scott's Emulsion of cod-ing oil—all druggists everywhere do. $1.

Rheumatism,

Disordered Liver, Impaired digestion, gout, billious-headache SWAMP-ROOT cures kidney difficulties, La Grippe, urinary trouble, bright's disease.

Impure Blood,

scrofula, malaria, gen'l weakness ordebilit; Guarantee—Use contents of One Pattle, if not be efted, Druggists will refund to you the price paid. At Druggists, 50c. Size, $1.00 Size, Trailer Park Park Toruggists, 50c. Size, $1.00 Size, Trailer Guide to Health Tree-Consultation for Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

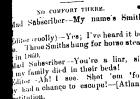

"August Flower"

What is August Flower for ?" for Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver.

Nothing more than this. We believe August Flower cures Dyspepsia.

We know it will We have reasons. August Flower cures Dyster Resons for knowing it. To-day it has an honored place in every town and honored place in every town and largest manufacturing plants in the country, and sells everywhere. The country, and sells everywhere thing reason is simple. It does one thing and does it right. It cures dyspepsize

SHELLS STRIPLE PLATE SUGAR STORY SHELLS STRIPLE RAVES AND PLAS FOR SHELL SHELL

HE JOKER'S BUDGET

OF THE PRESS.

using a Boy—His Art—A Sordi

nggestion - Ample Explanation-

eant His Watch, Etc., Etc.

AND YABNS BY FUNNY ME

ostess—Ah, Miss Budd, let me i uce Signor Barbini, the great arti-tiss Budd (enthusiastically)—I am i to meet you. What is your speci n drawing? ignor Barbini (of the opera)—Crowe riana; crowds.

"UNEASY LIES THE HEAD," ETC. dith—And so that is the great lend ociety? Why, I thought he own establishment, I have noticed h out so often.

. Of course. He goes in da ave his hat stretched. -[Judge. A SORDID SUGGESTION. ince this is leap year, isn't it of course the proper thing or the young woman in the case
To purchase her own ring?

--[Washington Star AMPLE EXPLANATION.

She in affright)—Oh, Tom, why u make such awful faces at me? He contritory:—I can't help it, de yeavglasses are falling off and I de nt to let go of your hands.—[Judge MEANT HIS WATCH.

Olivia—Say, Lily, I saw Fred Har-ing into a pawnbroker's yesterd hatever could be be doing there?

Lity Oh, I don't know - passing no away, may be! AN INVARIABLE SETTLER. orren ... What's that? You don't on Miss Sweetleany more?

No: I didn't prop

yuse Georges-Sare? Jack Sure as shooting. One nic etanded to admire one of her rings tehed up a tritle closer to exami-tre closely, you know. (conge-reflectively) - Y-e-a, I kno Jack Well, sha took it off and har to me. Cluden [Judga, NOTHING IS MADE FOR NOTHING.

Every part of even the smallest Otherwise it never would l en developed.

"Van you tell me, my friend," saiderly gentleman to the keeper of eangerie, "what the hump on that all's tack is for?"

"What s it for?"

"Yes. Of what value is it?

"Well, it's lots of value. De couldn't be no good widout it."

Why not? "Why not? Ye don't suppose ped pay to see a camel widout any h do yer:" TIME TO UNDERSTAND HER.

Jones (who has quarrelled with reetheart, Cora Bellows)—And is parting be forever, Miss Bellow Cora Bellows—Of course it a aven't I told you it should every e ever quarrelled? It looks like ght to understand me by this time MUCH OUT OF LITTLE.

"Shallow is a man of rather small e, isn't he?"
"His wife makes much of him."
"It's surprising where she get's aterial to do so."

HAPPILY DESCRIBED.

What a stir Belle and her young making down stairs," said wn, as the sounds of laughter ting up from below at a late hou A stir!" said Mr. Brown. "T natural. They're having a sp

SURE ENOUGH.

exclaimed Miss Passe. ittle scream of delight, "here's rtisement in the paper which ives wanted." "What's that to us?" said Missure, "We're not wives."

HE WAS A NOVICE. Benefactor-Are you too wes

rk?
Tramp (indignantly)—Sir!
Benefactor—I mean, does it mak
red to work?
Tramp—I don't know. I never don't know. I never

They were in love, their paren bed the match, and, by a curio cidence, they were sent abroad i me ship.
"And held each other's hands a

No; heads."

MAKE AND LET. Makel was sitting on the floor pl th her doll, when her aunt said t "Mabel, put down your doll and d shell these pess."

e me do ever