THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892: Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged 25c.
Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 25c. per line.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Porter were in Hornellsville Saturday and Sunday.
Ex-President R. B. Hayes has been engaged to deliver an address on Grange and G. A. R. days at Chautauqua.
S. J. Fowler has been spending a few days in Buffalo. He expects in the near future to open a large furniture store in Andover.

Rev. D. E. Redmon, of New York, formerly of this place, will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.
Mrs. Celista A. Witter died at her home in this village June 6, 1892, aged 80 years. The funeral services were held June 8, and the remains were taken to Hartsville for burial.

James M. Reed of Scio had been engaged as principal of the Brooklyn school at Wellsville. Miss Nettie Perkins will have charge of the intermediate and Miss Mary E. Wilcox of Andover is retained in the primary department.

Clayton Green, an employe of the Allegany Centre terra cotta works, who was severely hurt by being swept away in the flood, an account of which was given in the News last week, died Thursday from his injuries. He was a young man and leaves a wife.

Buffalo had a big flood last Thursday. The streets were flooded, sidewalks washed away, street cars were driven through places where water almost covered the seats, children were taken from school in ice wagons, houses were struck by lightning, and the Queen city had a reckless time generally.

Some people seem to be natural born fools. A few days ago Mrs. William Blossburg was about to give her 2-year-old child a dose of laudanum when she felt uncertain about the size of the dose. She placed the bottle on the table and went to ask a neighbor about the matter.
The child got hold of the contents before Mrs. Blossburg returned, and the poison was administered. The child soon after the dose was found dead.

J. W. Richardson has added a steam engine to his dairy equipments. His churn and separator are now run by that power—in fact, milking the cows is about the only work done by hand on the premises.

Miss Evelyn Baldwin, daughter of Wm. A. Baldwin of Wellsville, has just been graduated from the New York Women's Medical College. She will associate herself with Dr. Franc Hamilton of Rochester.

The Irene Taylor Dramatic Company has played in Prest's opera house every night this week to crowded houses. The troupe is a first class one. They close to-night with the drama, "New York Day by Day."

The Olean City Council at its session Saturday, June 11, let the contract for the construction of outlet sewers for the whole city to Messrs. Albright, Simpson & Mandeville, contractors of Olean, for the sum of $32,954.91. Mr. B. Phinney formerly a resident of Andover, is a member of the council from the sixth ward.

The bill passed by the legislature for the protection of fire insurance policy holders has become a law. Agents are prohibited from charging a fee for the policy or any compensation therefor.
A violation of the Act is made a misdemeanor with a fine of from twenty five dollars to one hundred dollars for the first offence.

Mr. Waldo W. Miller, who is well known as a former business man in this borough, has just sold his entire lumbering interest at Hammond, Ia., to a firm in Michigan. Mr. Miller had one of the finest plants of its size in the South, including a steam mill with a daily capacity of 50,000 feet, a railroad 3½ miles long equipped with a Baldwin locomotive and heavy logging cars. The timber tract consists of 4,000 acres of choice yellow pine lands estimated to yield sixty million feet of lumber. Mr.
Miller has returned to Andover, N. Y.
—Wellsboro (Pa.) Agitator.

We understand Mr. Miller has made large reinvestments in lumber in the south, so it appears that he is not entirely out of business in Dixie yet.

J. C. Green went to Olean Saturday to see his brother Charles, who met with a serious accident near that place last Thursday. Mr. Green is a builder, and was at work on a large gambrel roof barn.
He was on the roof of the barn, about thirty feet high from the ground, when he lost his footing and slipped to the eaves and then fell to the ground a distance of 20 feet, striking on his hips and shoulders. He was picked up for dead; a doctor was summoned, and everything possible was done for him. He soon showed signs of life, but was seriously injured internally, and has lain in a critical condition ever since. Mr. J. C. Green returned Sunday, but has news from his brother twice a day.

Died at Oramel on June 1st, after weary years of painful suffering, Florence Spaulding, aged thirty-three years, only sister of Mrs. Henry Stephens. By her death a faithful sister is left in lonely sorrow. Only four short weeks was she a member of their family, yet she won the love and respect of all those who knew her best. To the afflicted ones our heartfelt sympathy is offered.
After a prayer at the house by Rev. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens accompanied the remains to Canaan, Conn. for burial.
—Oramel cor. to Cuba Patriot.

Messrs. D. B. Spaulding and H. P.
Benton of this place attended the funeral services at Oramel.

Mr. W. S. Ault, who has been peeling hemlock bark in the wilds of McKean county, Pa., for several weeks past is home on a short visit. He reports business at that place lively and wages good.

Last week Tuesday Elder H. D.
Clarke officiated at the burial of Mr.
Maxson Baker, of Stannard's Corners, who died very suddenly, his illness lasting only five hours. His age was 67 years and his death is said to have been caused from the after effects of the grip. He was at work planting corn the day before his death.

Mrs. Corell Livermore, who recently gave birth to twin boys was attacked with blood poison and for a while it was feared she could not recover, but under the skillful treatment of Dr. Asher J. Remington of Whitesville, she was, at last accounts, improving.

Does not the fact that a bill was introduced in the late Legislature to repeal the law—which it is claimed was enacted by the United States —exempting soldiers' homes purchased with pension moneys from taxation, prove conclusively that such a law is in force? That being the case, is it not a fraud on the soldiers to compel them to pay taxes on the aforesaid homes? It is the opinion of some that taxes heretofore paid on said homes, since the law was enacted should be refunded with interest. What in the use of laws if they are nothing but dead letters? Some Grant men

[Of course friend Gumption understands that no state law could repeal or nullify a U. S. statute, nor would the introduction of the bill you refer to in the State Legislature be conclusive evidence of the existence of a certain U. S. law. If the law exists which exempts certain property from taxation, it can be found, but it might take a Philadelphia (or Andover) lawyer to find it.—Ed. News.]

Cards of Thanks.

The undersigned desire to thank the neighbors and friends for the assistance rendered and kindness shown during the illness and death of their mother Mrs. Celista A. Witter. We wish to make special mention of services rendered by the family of Mr. John Brigham.
F. J. WITTER.
THANKFUL WITTER.

We desire to say to our friends and neighbors, that words fail to express our gratitude for their many kindnesses, during the sickness, death, and burial of our beloved mother. Also for the beautiful flowers, so expressive of sympathy.

COMSTOCK & BENEDICT DRUGGISTS.

NOW JUST WAIT A MINUTE!
Let Us Reason Together.

We are here for a purpose and have engaged in this business with the intention of keeping a good thing at a fair price. We have the largest stock of this line of goods in town by half, and so offer you the largest assortment from which to select. We intend to sell our goods at a good living profit, but you must know that no man can do business very long and give away goods. Be sure not to confuse our price with that of a cheaper and inferior article.

We have the largest line of dolls in the town of Andover and the prices range from one cent to one hundred and twenty-five cents. Look at our line of clothes, hair, and bath brushes. We have now in stock a full line of the Gospel Hymns with numbers from one to six. We have oranges, lemons and bananas of the finest quality and at low prices during the season. If we have not the size of window glass that you want, we can cut it. Remember we can furnish anything in the line of window glass. We are daily receiving new goods and so increasing our already large stock of drugs, medicines, notions, etc.
