New Furniture and Undertaking Firm.

Messrs. S. J. Fowler and D. D. Remington have formed a copartnership for the purpose of carrying on the furniture and undertaking business in this place. The new store will be located in the building now occupied by Mr. Remington as a grocery. The grocery stock will be removed, the building renovated and put in first class shape, and the stock of furniture which the firm propose to carry will be such that every person in this section of the country can find the quality of the goods desired, whether it be the best or cheapest. We believe public sentiment warrants the statement that such a store is required here to meet the demands of trade, and Messrs. Fowler and Remington will soon demonstrate that they will fill every requirement. The new store will probably be opened about the 15th of July.

The undertaking branch of the business will be in charge of Mr. S. J. Fowler, who, as our readers know, is already located here in this business, and Mr. Fowler may be found in his office in E. Smith & Co.'s bakery, as heretofore.

All persons having accounts with me are requested to call and settle at once, as I wish to close my books as soon as possible. Please don't delay.

We intend to sell our goods at a good living profit, but you must know that no man can do business very long and give away goods. Be sure not to confuse our price with that of a cheaper and inferior article.

We have the largest line of dolls in the town of Andover and the prices range from one cent to one hundred and twenty-five cents. Look at our line of clothes, hair, and bath brushes. We have now in stock a full line of the Gospel Hymns with numbers from one to six. We have oranges, lemons and bananas of the finest quality and at low prices during the season.
