

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NOBBS, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., July 13, 1892.

ONE SIDE.

No doubt Mr. Cleveland is waiting for official information of Mr. Stevenson's nomination.

Jerry Simpson thinks the nominee of the Omaha convention will be elected.

The Democrats believe that the workingman can be brought to a state of mind in which he will cut off his own nose.

If there had been Free Trade in this country there would have been no strike at the Homestead works.

The old conundrum as to how the Democrats expect to carry the country for Cleveland when they concede that they will lose New York remains unanswered.

A person who wishes to vote for Free Trade and Free Silver can take his choice between three parties this year—the Democratic, the Prohibition and the People's.

The funny Grit papers are attributing the lock-out and loss of life at Homestead to Protection.

ANOTHER SIDE.

Surely it must be plain to all men that the Tariff is the sum of all villainies: the embodiment of every injustice.

We must have no doubtful policy in the matter of financial reform. We must make a twin issue with Tariff Reform, and if the money kings of the East attempt to dictate to us they must yield to the majority of the party.

Both candidates are men of great ability, and both have shown in the Executive chair honesty and courage enough to entitle them to respect.

Confidence in Cleveland's election seems to be abroad in Chemung county.

The men who steal and the men who applaud the stealing make up the Republican party of to-day.

In order to stimulate American composition, The Ladies' Home Journal has just made public an attractive series of liberal prizes for the best original musical composition by composers resident of the United States and Canada.

Dr. L. A. Platts has been elected president and I. M. Langworthy secretary of the board of trustees of the Alfred University.
