THE ANDOVER NEWS.

A meeting of the Allegany County Publishers Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892: RULE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
RULE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged 21.
RULE 3.—Editorial notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

B. M. Austin of Coudersport is in town for a short stay.

The W. R. C. will meet at eight o'clock next Saturday evening.

works or rain, or something to lay the dust.

Mrs. M. D. Mc'arn and son Harry of Elmira visited Mrs. Mourhess the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Goodwin of North Clymer are visiting the family of his father, J. M. Goodwin.

Inflamed eyelids are prevalent here.
We don't know the cause, but we do know that the disease isn't very funny.

Mrs. S. T. Van Gorder of Elmira and Mrs. Loxley of Saginaw, Mich., daughters of the late Jason Hunt, are visiting relatives here.

A cubic yard of gold is worth $9,797.
This information is given so that those persons who have a cubic yard of gold on hand may know just how rich they are.

Ward Oatley has had the grip during the past week. The grip in summer is extremely out of style, but there are some things we can't be stilyish about when we want to.

Fowler & Remington have a small shipment of new furniture. More goods are on the road, and as soon as they arrive have been made to their store they will have a grand opening.

Last week's News contained an account of the finding of a balloon in the town of York. No one was in it and it came from was a mystery. A few days ago the mystery was solved by the finding of a man who claimed the balloon was his. He said he was about to make an expedition in a balloon to the North Pole.

At the meetings given at Mrs. Trainor's, on Monday evening, tobacco, etc.,

The drillers at the Mutual Company's well on the Richards farm have had bad luck thus far, but are getting along all right now. They will soon know what is there.

Here is an item for the young ladies to show the young men: A raw onion chewed slowly and swallowed without undue haste will destroy the odor of ice cream.

Married, at the Methodist parsonage in Andover, June 27, 1892, by Rev. G. W.
Gibson, Mr. W. F. Schouner of Troupsburg, N. Y., and Mrs. M. C. Burdick of Hornellsville.

Miss Floral Metcalf, a former pupil of Andover Graded School and a recent graduate of the State Normal School in Mrs. Wm. B. Clark.

Calvin Sloenn is now ready to receive village taxes at one per cent. Taxes may be paid at the cheese factory, at his residence, or any other place where you happen to see him.

The Board of Trustees have decided to notify those whose sidewalks are not in proper shape that they must repair them or build new ones. Don't be surprised if you get a "gentle reminder." The probability is your next door neighbor will get one too.

Miss Nellie Stonecipher of Cummings, Kas., and Miss Edith Hatch of Providence, R. I., have been visiting at the home of their uncle, H. P. Benton, during the past week. Miss Stonecipher left the first of the for Jersey City, while Miss Hatch will remain here a few days longer.

Reports have reached Andover from West Union concerning an attack made upon an elderly gentleman by a man who was working his farm in that place.
The trouble is said to have occurred on account of a difference of opinion in regard to the work. If all reports are true it's time to call on the Pinkertonians or the state militia.

It is currently reported, says the Wellsville Democrat, that Rev. F. W.
Beecher has renounced his allegiance to the Congregational society and its doctrines; that he will be confirmed by Bishop Cox, examined and ordained a rector in the Episcopal faith, and assigned a charge this fall. This report is confirmed by some of Mr.
Beecher's most intimate friends.

The Hornellsville Tribune of July 7 contained the following from Purdy Creek concerning the closing exercises at the school at that place, taught by Miss Minnie Walker of this place: "The school exhibition has come and gone leaving behind it many incidents that will no doubt be remembered for many years by the pleasant event which reflects much credit on Miss Walker, who occupies a place in front line as teacher and disciplinarian, as the exhibition was all that could have been hoped for, the house being packed to its utmost capacity many being unable to secure standing room. The program was carried out to the letter which awakened unusual enthusiasm. The dialogue, entitled "The Male Cook" would have done credit to a Hornellsville audience.
The children's exercises in gymnastics alternating with songs and recitations, brought with it a noise which was not a little embarrassing to the little ones.
There has been no hesitation in pronouncing it not only a success but putting all previous ones a little in the back ground. The essay by Miss Walker and the recitation by Miss Lillian Thatcher of Canisteo are simply the result of culture, education and refinement which foreshadows for these young ladies higher and more noble aims in life as the years go on.

The seven counties veterans' association of this state and Pennsylvania will hold a grand reunion at Ross park, Binghamton, August 23. General Palmer, commander-in-chief, and Colonel Poole department commander of New
