PULMER VALLEY NEWS.

Our correspondence last week was "laid over" through mistake, though not ours. We do not like to criticize too sharply, but sincerely hope it will not occur again.

Haymaking is in full bloom. The crop is above the average and quality never better.

Mrs. Freeman is suffering with a sprained ankle.

Herb Clark and lady took in the excursion to Portage.

John Casey and wife have begun housekeeping at his home near here.

Mrs. Ed. Cooney and children of Bradford, Pa., are visiting her sister Mrs. R. McAndrew.

Miss Maggie McAndrew closed a very successful term of school on Tuesday with a picnic. The program was well selected and the presentation showed careful training. On the whole it was a perfect success. Everybody had a good time. Much credit is due Miss McAndrew for the pains taken with her scholars, also to our present trustee, Mr. Griggs, who has spared no pains to have a profitable school.

Mrs. F. O. Livermore has a rose bush of "Seven Sisters" variety which presented 75 blossoms at one time. As they are various colors the bush is certainly beautiful.

We hear some inquiry for help in buying. Some are even denouncing the law which prohibits pauper labor. But we think it is only for political ends.

All four Presidential candidates have supporters in this school district. It seems that everybody should be satisfied this year unless some do not admire such a variety as has been presented from National conventions.

Patrick Lynch is building an addition to his barn.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs. C. T. Livermore of Independence, formerly of this place, who has been very low for some time, is improving under the treatment of Dr. W. W. Crandall of Wellsville.

Grant Sherwood is working for Clark Bros., Charles Bloss is helping M. G. Stout; and Ed. Truman has secured the services of Laderni Trask.

We hear there is soon to be a move made with view to producing natural gas or oil in this section. It has long been known that there is a strata of gas sand about 900 feet below the surface, with 30 feet of third sand at about 1400 feet. We await anxiously for developments and have confidence that we may yet enjoy some of the benefits of an oil field.

Crops are looking well and weather very favorable for harvesting.

Come up, Mr. Editor, and we will go fishing for trout. There are a few left in our stream yet. Bring up a shot gun and shoot squirrels while waiting for fish to bite.

L. A. BURROWS, M. D.,
Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free Trial Bottles at L. A. ### INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

Big rain storm here Friday night. Mr. Leon La Forge, of Alfred Centre, is the guest of his cousin Mr. Oscar Potter.

I was misinformed in regard to the wedding at Elder Kenyon's the 10th inst., and I was pleased to find it out for any one silly enough to marry during the intense heat of the summer solstice, ought to have a "son stroke."

Your correspondent has been quite sick for a week or more, suffering from his old complaint, rheumatism, and catarrhal fever, etc. [Sorry to hear it, Gumption, and hope you will be out again soon.]

Charles Henry, second of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Clark, who would have been 19 years of age in September, died of inflammation of the bowels, Friday, July 15, 1892. Charley was a good boy and a general favorite, and his death falls with crushing force upon his bereaved parents, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends. Elaborate funeral services were held at the church Saturday, Elder H. D. Clarke officiating.

Children's Day at the S. D. B. Church has been postponed to July 30th.

Mrs. Reberd, of Geneseo, Illinois, visited E. A. Cottrell's people the past week.

Mrs. Geo. E. Brown Worse.

A letter received by Geo. E. Brown from the Superintendent of the Willard Hospital contains the unwelcome intelligence that Mrs. Brown has recently shown a decided change for the worse. She has for some time been improving nicely, and the physicians were hopeful that she might soon return home, although they have advised her friends to allow her to stay a while yet. But now the conditions are entirely changed. The letter says:

"We never considered her as recovered, and we have advised you from time to time not to remove her from hospital treatment. Her present set back confirms our judgment of her case, and we would advise you to continue her treatment as long as we deem it necessary. We are unable to state what will be the outcome of the relapse, but you may feel assured that we shall do everything in our power to restore her to her normal mental condition."

It is hoped by Mrs. Brown's friends here that the relapse may be only temporary.

James Hammond's Baby Takes a Ride.

On Monday of this week the youngest child of James Hammond, a boy aged nearly two years, had a thrilling experience in riding down hill. Some of the older children had the boy out in a carriage. They went out in the fields, on R. Hardy's land east of the railroad track. There is a very steep hill that runs down to the flats and pond which the track crosses. The children wheeled the carriage quite close to the bank, blocked the wheels and wandered a short distance away. It is supposed that the baby jumped around in the carriage and moved the wheels away from the blocking. The carriage started down the hill and soon attained a terrible speed. When near the bottom of the hill, which is about twenty rods long, the carriage struck an obstruction and was overturned, the baby landing in a good soft patch of mud that must have been made specially for the occasion. Some of the workmen on the track saw the carriage coming down the hill and ran to the rescue, finding the baby half frightened to death, but not seriously hurt.

Riding down hill isn't popular in summer, and we'll venture to say that Mr. Hammond's baby has had enough of "roller coasting" to last a whole season.

The Maccabees.

We are requested to publish the following letter as showing the attitude of the Catholic church toward the order of the K. O. T. M.:

Law Office of
ATKINSON, VANCE & WOLCOTT,
PORT HURON, Mich., Jan. 24, 1891.

MAJOR N. S. BOYNTON, Port Huron:
DEAR SIR: Before I joined the K. O. T. M. I was careful to consult the Very Rev. E. VanLamer, our pastor here, in reference to the position of the Catholic church toward the order. He assured me it was friendly, and that I could join with his approval. After that I attended a brother's funeral in the Catholic church here, when Father VanLamer welcomed the order, said Mass for the brother and explained the kindly feeling existing. Catholic Maccabees are all right with the church.

O'BRIEN J. ATKINSON.

The K. O. T. M. is in an exceedingly prosperous and healthy condition. On June 30th the membership under Supreme Tent jurisdiction was 31,859, and the membership in the country at large, including the Ladies of the Maccabees, was 32,359. At the same date there was a balance in the endowment fund of $18,078.50, and no assessment will be made for July.
