THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers Association, held at Bolivar, April 20, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect from the week beginning May 9, 1892:
 Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
 Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
 Rule 3.—Obituaries not less than 5 cents per line as published as a matter of news, and 10 cents per line for obituary notices to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Miss Ruth Randolph is at lake Cuba this week.

J. M. Beebe was in Olean Monday on business.

Mrs. Charles Hough of Alfred Centre visited Andover friends and relatives last week.

Miss Mattie Brown of Sherman, Chautauqua Co. is visiting Dr. Comstock and family this week.

Mrs. Jesse Hunt and little son Lawrence are visiting Mrs. Hunt's parents in Greenwood.

Lightning struck the Pease oil well derrick last Thursday, and followed the iron pipe to a small tank near by, which was consumed.

Last week Dr. Comstock did an iridectomy (removed the curtain of the eye) on Mr. Fred Lockwood of Eleven Mile, Pa. The eye is doing well.

C. B. Lever and E. F. Stearns have bought the livery of I. L. Palmer, which the latter recently bought of Mr. Lever. Charlie is "at home" again and has good company.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Herrick went to Addison yesterday to attend the wedding of Miss Carolyn Baxter, which occurs to-day. Mrs. Herrick will go to visit her son, S. G. Herrick, at Shady-side, N. J.

Charles Green, brother of postmaster J. C. Green, who recently sustained injuries by falling from a barn near Olean, is visiting his brother here. He has not fully recovered but seems to be on the right road now.

All ladies of the M. E. church who are interested are invited to meet at A. M. Burrows' carpet room Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. New carpet samples have been ordered, which will probably be here at that time.

The Allegany County Grand Army Association will hold a campfire at Wellsville August 30. Camp, 7 o'clock. Department Commander and staff will be present, and the program will be a great one for the "boys."

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bundy visited friends in West Union a few days last week.

Mrs. A. A. Porter of Tioga, Pa., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Frisbey.

Prof. A. D. Howe of Whitesville was greeting his many friends in Andover on Monday.

Miss Mary Richardson, who has been sick for the past four weeks, is improving slowly.

Hon. A. B. Cottrell has moved from Richburg to Alfred Centre, says the Alfred Sun.

A. V. Durand returned Saturday from a few days visit at Moscow, Rochester and Buffalo.

Erie carpenter A. A. McCann was at home over Sunday. He went to Friendship Monday morning.

Mrs. F. S. Clark, Emma Conn, Millie Barney and Frank Burrows, left for Chautauqua Monday morning.

The grand stand on the ball ground is nearly finished and the seats will be erected in time for the next game.

J. W. Richardson says he cut twenty large loads of hay from six acres of land. The loads would average a ton each. He thinks this beats the record.

It is Mrs. L. N. Corwin who has purchased the lot of J. A. Swink on the corner of Second and West Dyke streets and not Mr. Corwin as stated by the News recently.

A large number of people witnessed the opening of three buds on a night blooming cereus owned by Mrs. Everett last Friday evening. The sight well repaid the time spent.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Mr. P. B. Hardy of this place and Miss Annie W. Van Dusen of Eagle Village, N. Y. The happy event will occur Aug. 9.

The small boys have adopted the new "block system" on the streets and have several signal stations on Main street. If you want to avoid a collision pay attention to the signals.

The town assessors have completed the assessment roll, and the same may be seen at the residence of C. M. Barney until Aug. 15. On Aug. 16 the assessors will meet at the town house to review the roll.

Andover girls have caught on to the new suspender fad. One of our boys would like to ask what editor Shultz knows about Andover girls or their suspenders. We want more proof before we'll believe any such nonsense.

Mrs. John Rogers of Greenwood and her daughter of this place, Mrs. Joseph Updyke and her little daughter Alice, have gone on a visit to Minnequa, Pa., where Mrs. Rogers has a sister, Mrs. James Ketchum. They will visit the Mineral Springs a few days before returning.

Mrs. C. C. Colegrove met with a painful accident a few days ago. She was coming down stairs with an armful of clothing when she slipped and fell to the bottom of the stairs breaking an ankle and sustaining several bruises on different parts of the body. She is doing well at present.

At the school meeting held last evening F. M. Bassett was elected chairman and Mrs. Helen M. Brown secretary. E. J. Atwood was elected trustee in place of Marsh Bundy, resigned; Jesse Snyder was elected trustee to succeed himself, and L. C. Van Fleet was elected trustee in place of D. D. Remington, whose term expired.

Arthur C. Sidman is coming to Andover in August with his company of fifteen people, among whom are some artists of wide reputation. Sidman himself admits that it is the best company by 100 per cent that ever visited Andover. They will rehearse here and play one night. The play will be "Squire Haskins," much better and funnier than "Uncle Rube." Watch out for 'em.

The Andover ball team went to Wellsville last Wednesday and won a game from the club of that place by a score of 20 to 8. On Saturday the Wellsville club came up here and played another game and were again beaten by a score of 10 to 12. This makes three games in succession won by our boys from Wellsville, and it would seem that the club of the latter place ought to be satisfied. It is said, however, that they want to play again, and when our boys want a little practice they will probably accommodate them.

Those having accounts with me are requested to call and settle before Aug. 10, as I intend to be absent for a while after that date. A prompt response will be greatly appreciated.

Mrs. ELLA SEAMAN.

The Secretary of the Hornellsville Fair requests us to say that the price of admission has not been and will not be raised, but will remain 25 cents as heretofore.

Among the special attractions at the Hornellsville Fair this year, will be Mr. Wm. Hoeller the champion one wheel rider of the world, who will render the same program as when he performed before the royal family of England at the Queen's request. Mr. Hoeller is the champion whom Barnum and Bailey took to Europe and made their great sensation in London and Paris. His program will include riding down a fifty foot ladder.
