THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Rev. G. M. Janes and daughter were in Wellsville, Monday.

A. A. Porter of Tioga, Pa., was in town the first of this week.

L. H. Thompson returned Thursday from a trip to Johnsonburg.

Frank S. Clark went to Chautauqua last week for a few days outing.

Miss Alice Patridge of Bolivar visited Miss Minnie Freeborn the first of this week.

Mr. Stillman Davis of Friendship was the guest of J. W. Richardson a day or two during the past week.

Mrs. G. M. Baker who has been very ill for some time is slowly convalescing under Dr. Brainard's care.

Miss Nellie Potter will take a vacation from her duties in the postoffice, and will join Sidman's dramatic company for a few weeks. Miss Minnie Freeborn will take her place in the post office.

At the Democratic caucus last Thursday evening, Joseph Krusen was elected chairman and Byron A. Clair secretary. The following gentlemen were elected delegates to the County Convention which occurs at Belmont to-morrow: District No. 1, P. Delaney, D. P. Regan, District No. 2, John Prest, P. Cannon.

The following delegates to the Democratic County Convention are as follows: Thomas O'Connor, Wm. F. Kane, John Kaufman, Jas. J. Smith, A. E. Cowles, W. P. Decker, Daniel Hanrahan, F. B. Knowlton.

The bright particular jewel in the Heavens the past month has been the planet Mars; it is now said to be nearest to the earth that it can approach and can be readily recognized with the naked eye. It is still 35,000,000 miles away. There are good many mariners who would like to see this side of Heaven whose jewels would shine with a brighter luster than any heavenly orb, whose heart-tears would turn into diamonds of delight, many a sailor were glad to see the planet Mars.

"Squire Haskins" is a very funny play. Those who like funny plays should take advantage of the present opportunity to see one, at Prest's opera house, next Tuesday evening.

Go and hear the Silver Lake Quartette.

L. C. Van Fleet was in Cuba on business, yesterday.

Miss C. Hann is visiting friends in Wellsville this week.

Floyd Richardson and wife of Richard spent Sunday in Andover.

Mrs. F. P. Cole and daughter visited friends in Wellsville on Monday.

Work is progressing on the Mutual Company's gas line to Greenwood.

Mrs. Franc Allen went to Wellsville on Monday to attend teachers' examination.

The cellar is nearly finished for Mrs. L. N. Corwin's new house on Second street.

Mrs. Anna L. Ware and daughter Fannie L. are visiting friends in Alfred Centre.

Misses Josie and Agnes Parker of Andover are visiting their cousin, Mrs. S. J. Freeborn.—Wellsville Reporter.

Mrs. M. A. Lawrence of Oramel, who has been visiting in Andover for a few weeks past, returned home yesterday.

Little Edith Lawson is better. Her father is here from Russell, Kas., being called here last week by her serious illness.

H. E. Miner spent Sunday at Cuba Camp Meeting. Mrs. Miner, Mrs. B. C. Cole and others were there through the whole week.

Rev. G. W. Gibson did not return home last week, but he writes that he will be here next Sunday, and will hold services in the Methodist church at the usual hour.

The Purdy Creek correspondent of the Hornellsville Tribune, Mr. W. B. Jenkins, with his family, are visiting relatives in Andover and Greenwood this week.

The celebrated Silver Lake Quartette will give an entertainment at Prest's opera house, Saturday evening of this week. A Prohibition speech will also be made by Rev. C. H. Mead. No admission fee. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Clarke of Independence have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary E. Clarke, to Mr. A. G. Crittenden. The interesting event will occur at the home of the bride's parents, on Tuesday, August 30.

We have received a letter from Philip O'Connor of Chicago, who tells us that he is under the doctor's care, and has been advised to travel for his health.

Mr. O'Connor says it is his intention to visit Andover about Aug. 25. We shall be glad to see him, and believe there are a great many people here who will extend a cordial welcome to him.

Mr. P. B. Hardy of this place and Miss Annie W. Van Deusen of Eagle Village were married on Tuesday, Aug. 9, 1892, at the bride's home. Mr. Hardy is the elder son of R. Hardy of this place.

Miss Van Deusen has been preceptress of Andover Union School, closing her duties in that capacity last June. The newly married pair will receive congratulations and good wishes of a large circle of friends here and elsewhere.

"Ed." Dean, who resided in Andover until about two years ago has been in town for a few days past. Mr. Dean has been addicted to the use of liquor for the past twenty years or more. Those who knew him when he lived here are aware of his appetite for drink, and he says that the past two years has seen a marked change for the worse. In fact, Mr. Dean says that until six weeks ago he was a "total wreck." We give these facts because they are necessary to what follows. About six weeks ago Mr. Dean went to a Bi-chloride of Gold Cure, and to-day is as different from what he used to be as can be imagined. His eyes are bright, his step is elastic, his intellect is restored, and in fact he is transformed into a new man. He is happy and he says is through with whisky forever. Mr. Dean is enthusiastic in his praise of the gold cure, and seems anxious to help other unfortunates to rid themselves of the liquor habit. No person in Andover will hesitate to congratulate Mr. Dean on the change, and rejoice that he has been reclaimed to the ranks of respected and useful citizens.

Mrs. John Rogers of Greenwood and Mrs. Jas. Updyke of this place and her daughter Alice have returned from their two weeks visit at Minnequa, Pa. Mrs. Rogers found her sister and son E. C. Ketchum in very poor health but hoping they may recover soon. Mrs. Updyke visited the Mineral Springs a number of times and she thinks ice cream and mineral water was good for them through those warm days, which they had plenty of while gone.

"Squire Haskins" is a very funny play. Those who like funny plays should take advantage of the present opportunity to see one, at Prest's opera house, next Tuesday evening.

Go and see "Squire Haskins," at Prest's opera house next Tuesday night. He's immense!

Beebe, Williams & Co. have a new supply of dried beef.

Arthur C. Sidman will appear in "Squire Haskins," next Tuesday evening at Prest's opera house, supported by his company of talented artists. Don't fail to attend.

Try the Seal Skin cigar at Beebe, Williams & Co.'s. They are fine.

I will sell, let on shares or rent my farm, three miles west of Andover village.

HENRY BULLARD, Andover, N. Y.

The Managers of the Hornellsville Fair secured unequalled attractions early in the season, but they capped the climax when they arranged to have the joint discussion of the issues of the present campaign discussed between McKinley and Campbell assisted by other able representatives of their respective parties.

The selection of other speakers will be made from the following list: Roswell G. Horr, Bourke Cochran, Governor Flower, Senators Carlisle and John E. Russell, Chauncey M. Depew, James G. Blaine and others. This joint discussion will occupy a portion of two days. The fair begins the 22nd and continues six days. Admission twenty-five cents.

Down Goes Meat Again.

You can buy Pork Loin for 12½ cts. per lb., and dried beef sliced for 14, and Pork Sausage for 12½. Lamb chop for 12½. Beef Steak from 10 to 12½, roast and stewing pieces in proportion. Now give Mr. Dutcher a call and try his goods, they are all first class. Bologna 10 cts. per lb. or three lbs. for 25. You will always find him there.

D. DUTCHER.

ANDOVER, July 20, 1892.

This May Interest You.

The Field & Alden Granite Works of Rochester, N. Y., will not occupy their building on the Hornellsville Fair Grounds this year, but will have the space in the main building at the left of the main entrance. They will have on exhibition some fine pieces of monumental work and some hand some new designs of monuments.

They will also distribute, free, photographs of the Hornellsville Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, which is now being made by them, also photographs of their new quarters in Rochester, N. Y. They will also offer some special bargains in Granite Monuments, and if you are contemplating the purchase of a monument in the near future you will consult your own interests by calling on Mr. W. W. Babcock, their agent, who will have charge of their exhibit at the Fair this year, and get his prices on any work you may need.
