There was a lively fire in one of the show windows of A. M. Burrows' store about ten o'clock last Saturday evening. The window was filled with goods, and a piece of mosquito netting was hung across the window behind the goods. A gust of wind took the netting into the flame of a gas burner, and in an instant the flame spread to all the adjoining inflammable goods. Prompt action averted serious damage, but the loss was considerable.

The inhabitants of Houghton, in the western part of Allegany County, were startled Sunday by the report that murder had been committed within the bounds of their quiet little village. Italians employed by the railroad company laying new rails have been quartered in two box cars on the side track at Houghton the past week or so. Two of them, names unknown, quarreled over a game of cards. One of them struck the other with a knife, cutting a fearful gash across the chest. The knife entered the lungs and the heart killing him almost instantly. The murderer has been arrested by Deputy Sheriff Holnett of Fillmore, and is now in the lockup at that place. The coroner's inquest is in progress. Coroner Thomas and District Attorney Charles H. Brown are on the ground looking after the interests of the people.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Davis have been absent from home for the past two weeks visiting friends and sight-seeing in and about Meadville and Saegertown, Pa. It is a very scenic, generally level country, situated from 25 to 35 miles south of Lake Erie, which place was taken in on the trip. Among other places visited at Saegertown, the Eureka Mineral Springs and Sanitarium, a poor house and cemetery are worthy of special mention. At Meadville, the Miller and Sibley stock farm, Greenvale Cemetery and Spencer Hospital rank among the many distinguished features of that place. The Spencer Hospital, a Catholic institution, is a clean and commodious building. Among the three hundred horses owned by Miller and Sibley, and trained on their kite-shaped track, is Sunol, who ranks among the best trotters in the world. It was a very pleasant and enjoyable trip. **

Every preparation is being made to insure a larger and better exhibition than has ever been held by the Society before. The Circus Coming.

The country is profusely billed for the appearance of Adam Forepaugh's shows, which will exhibit at Hornellsville, Sept. 5, and Olean, Sept. 6, and which will be the only big show to exhibit in this vicinity this season. The Adam Forepaugh shows need no recommendation to our people. For years it has been the largest and best conducted of all tented amusements. Its advertisement is always looked forward to as an event of prominence, and is the occasion of a general holiday in all lines of trade and professions.

In addition to the usual circus hippodrome and largest menagerie on earth, the management—at an expense of $250,000—have added an original Bible spectacle, "The Fall of Nineveh," which will be presented in addition to the regular performance without extra charge. Arrangements have been made with all lines of travel for a special low excursion rate; therefore this big exhibition can be visited with comparatively small expense. All particulars can be obtained as to rates and time of trains by applying to the local ticket agent.
