

POLITICS.

THE OLD SCHOOL.

It would appear that Grover Cleveland's labor record is something like his war and pension record...

The Democratic gain in Vermont was 227 votes; the Republican, 5,501 votes. And yet Democratic papers are pointing with glee to the result in Vermont.

The New York Democrats, before they waste more time on Commissioner Peck, had better suppress the statisticians of Canada...

Hill intimates that he is a Democrat still, but nobody accuses him of being a Cleveland man.

Why is it that the air of Democratic assemblages is not so full of "Bill ion-Dollar-Congress" as it used to be?

If Grover does not finish that letter before long, there won't be anything for him to accept after it is written.

Robert G. Ingersoll's latest political epigram is this: "Cleveland in my opinion is a Jonah, and the Democratic whale will not swallow him this year."

The placation of Senator Hill affords more satisfaction to Republicans than to Mugwumps.

There were many Republicans in 1872 who had not then made a careful study of the tariff question...

THE VERY OLD SCHOOL.

Republicans assert that Democrats cannot read nor write, yet they are mad because some Southern States have passed suffrage laws which require voters to be able to read and write.

Mr. Peck, of summary notoriety, seems to think that public office is a private crematory.

The Republican National Committee has not yet announced Corporal Tanner's mouth among the fall openings.

The Republican party, which began its life as the apostle of freedom, is ending it as the advocate of slavery.

Senator Hill never disappoints his Democratic friends. But he is a terribly disappointing man to Republicans.

There is good cheer for Democrats in the reflection that the Republicans have never carried a doubtful State under ballot reform.

As a matter of fact, therefore, the first returns made by Massachusetts manufacturers under the McKinley Act show less satisfactory results than for any one of the three previous years...

If there is pauper labor anywhere on earth, it is to be found here in the United States, where it has been pauperized by the debasing practices of Protection.

The burning of the letters of information from the manufacturers to Mr. Peck leaves nothing but smoke for the labor report to rest on.

THE NEW SCHOOL.

For every dollar paid to the schools to enlighten the mind, we paid twelve dollars to the saloon to darken and destroy the intellect.

lift humanity, we paid twelve dollars to carry the darkness of eternal death into the home. Reader, what are you going to do to change this?

When you vote the ticket of either of the old parties, this fall, you will help to put temptation in the way of your own and your neighbors' sons and daughters...

A million votes in 1892 in the Prohibition party would start the avalanche that shall destroy the saloon power...

Stop! Think well before you vote. Your vote for either the Democratic, Republican or the Third Party ticket, is for the perpetuation of the saloon.

A political party, no matter by what name called, that fosters and protects by license a traffic that produces drunkards, gamblers, blasphemers, seducers, prostitutes, murderers and demons...
