THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers Association, held at Bolivar, April 26, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:
 Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
 Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
 Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Mr. W. W. Miller left for Dakota Monday evening.

Mr. Joe Clossy of Canisteo was in town on business, Tuesday.

Mr. Jesse S. Phillips left on Monday evening for Ann Arbor, Mich., to continue his law studies.

What's the matter with Allegany? Mr. Henry Crandall cut a very fine second crop of hay to-day on the old woolen factory lot.

Members of the C. L. S. C. will bear in mind the meeting at Mrs. A. M. Burrows', next Monday evening, and go prepared to pay their dues.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Social at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Bines, Friday evening, Oct. 7th. A good supper will be served.

Rt. Rev. S. V. Ryan, Bishop of Buffalo, will be at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in this place, Thursday, Oct. 6th, 1892, and will hold confirmation services.

Mrs. E. D. Clarke returned last evening from New London, Oneida county. Miss Mattie Langworthy remains to care for her mother, who sustained a fractured hip and cannot be moved for two or three weeks.

The Harvest Home last Wednesday was very successful. The weather was fine, the crowd large, the dinner excellent, the speeches just suited to the occasion, and everybody had a good time. The remarks of Mr. Jesse S. Phillips of this place were listened to with great interest and brought out many words of praise for that rising young gentleman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of Greenwood, entertained a large number of young people Monday evening. Those present from this place were: Messrs. John and James Cannon, Ziba Cook, E. J. Atwood and sister and their guest, Miss Patterson, Minnie Ezeborn, Jean Brundage, the Misses McCracken and their guest, Miss Briggs, Miss Gussie Pease and Will Snyder. All report a royal good time.

The Erie will soon have a new depot at Canisteo.

The W. R. C. will meet at 7.30 next Saturday evening.

Miss Kate McGuire of Hornellsville spent Sunday with Miss Lizzie Pardon.

Allen is making an effort to become the County Seat of Cattaraugus County.

Mrs. Ella Seaman is home again, with a new stock of fall and winter millinery.

Postmaster Frank Bassett of Whitesville was in town Friday did not forget to call on the News.

Coal is high, and going higher. This piece of news will not interest Andover people, however. We burn gas.

The Allegany County Teachers' Institute, for the second district, will be held in Belmont the week beginning Oct. 31st.

Dr. A. W. Sullivan of Richburg made a brief call at W. L. Catlin's on Saturday, on his return from Pres. Allen's memorial services at Alfred Centre.

Master Archie, son of Ira Kemp, brought us some very fine specimens of rice pop corn. The ears are large, one of them weighing three-quarters of a pound.

It is announced that a new postal money order system will go into operation next month. The amounts issued will be from $1 to $3. On payment of 5 per cent and the amount to be sent, the order will be torn off about the same as an express order. There will be no writing on it by the postmaster, the sender endorsing it as a check or draft.

The comet now approaching the earth, will almost equal in brilliancy the celestial wonder that illuminated the heavens in 1858—this comet, old timers say, was so brilliant they could read by its light. It may now be seen in the eastern sky in the morning with the aid of an ordinary opera glass. It is rapidly becoming a magnificent sight.

Messrs. Anthony McAndrew & Son of this place have purchased the right to use Sweagle's Axle Cutter in Allegany county, and will make a canvas of the different towns with this useful machine. Dr. C. W. O'Donnell, Clarence O'Donnell and F. Kinney of this place, have purchased the right for all the territory east of Allegany county in this state.

Miss Nellie Hinchey of Andover was the guest of Miss Mae Osborn Friday and Saturday of last week. A merry party consisting of Miss Mae Osborn as chaperone and driver, Miss Nellie Hinchey of Andover, and Bertha Osborn, and Messrs. Ned Freeland and Wm. Anderson enjoyed a ride to Andover Saturday evening, not returning until the wee small hours Sunday morning.—Wellsville Democrat.

The Hon. B. C. Rude, at one time an honored resident of Wellsville, has formed a copartnership with the Hon. Charles D'Autremont, a former Alleghanian, and now mayor of Duluth, Minn., for the practice of law in the last mentioned city. Mr. Benjamin Rude, son of the first named gentleman will also be connected with the new firm. Mr. B. C. Rude has been in St. Augustine, Fla., for a few years. He was debarred from practicing law in that state on some trumped up charge but was afterwards reinstated.

The young people of the Catholic Church are preparing to present the drama, in four acts, entitled "Foiled; or A Struggle for Life and Liberty," on the evening of Oct. 12th, for the benefit of the organ fund. It is a beautiful play, founded upon incidents occurring during the late war, and abounds in thrilling scenes and situations, vividly portraying the ups and downs of army life. The comedy is exceedingly mirth provoking, the character of Barney O'Grady alone furnishing laughter enough to make one's sides sore. An exceptionally brilliant musical program will be rendered by Cannon's full orchestra. More particulars later.

An extraordinary term of the Oyer and Terminer Court has been called by Gov. Flower, to be held at Belmont, beginning on Monday, October 17th. This was necessary because the supreme courts were appointed by the judges to be held alternately, at Angelica and Belmont, before the half shire act was repealed, and there is no provision of the law that gives judges any authority to revoke the appointment or change the place or time where or when they shall be held. But the governor has the power to call an extra term when necessary. There will be a grand jury drawn for the November term of county court.

If the weather is favorable, gas will be turned off from the lines for a short time on Friday or Saturday in order to make repairs at Church's Creek crossing. MUTUAL GAS CO. Sept. 27th, 1892.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Eber Warfield were held at the house last Thursday afternoon and were very largely attended. Rev. Jared Kenyon of Independence officiated. The deceased left a wife, one son, Eugene Warfield of this place and one daughter, Mrs. Horace Stillman of Almond.

Well Known in Andover.

Peter B. McLennan, of Syracuse, one of the ablest and best known lawyers in Onondaga county was nominated for justice of the supreme court by the republicans of the first judicial district Thursday.

Mr. McLennan is a native of Allegany county and a graduate of Alfred University, where he took the degree of A. M. He was at one time attorney for the West Shore R. R. and has been prominent in Syracuse politics for the past fifteen years. There is little doubt of his election to the position for which he is so eminently qualified.—Wellsville Reporter.

Card of Thanks.

The family of the late Eber Warfield publicly express their gratitude to neighbors and friends for timely and generous aid during their recent bereavement.

The services rendered by S. J. Fowler, undertaker, were so entirely satisfactory that we desire to make special mention of this fact, and accord to Mr. Fowler all due praise for his excellent services.
