ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NOBBS, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., Oct. 12, 1892.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

A fierce snow storm visited this place last week Wednesday.

Mrs. Julia A. Bidwell, of Galesburgh, Mich., is visiting her brothers, R. S. and J. D. Jacobs, and other relatives in town.

E. D. Potter, Esq., was very sick last week of cholera morbus, and was treated by Dr. Comstock, of your place.

As there are so many places clamoring for the County Seat, we might as well chip in, and if we are lucky enough to get it we can attach runners to the "darned thing" and use it to ride down hill when the snow is deep enough for good sledding.

The Barney Bros. have completed the Whitesville Public Hall, which is 80 x 28 feet and two stories high with a basement, heated by a furnace, and there are 350 chairs, besides numerous benches. A fine stage rises about three feet from the floor, the inside is sealed throughout and the dining hall will seat 75 at one time, while the upper story will be used by the different lodges. It is a fine building and worth going miles to see. On the evening of the 17th inst., Col. George W. Bain, of Kentucky, will dedicate the hall by delivering a humorous lecture entitled: Boys and Girls, Nice and naughty, or The Pen-dulum of Life, for the benefit of the hall.

There was a musicale by the young people of Whitesville in the new hall last Saturday evening, to raise money to help pay for a grand upright piano costing $400, which I understand will be a permanent fixture of the hall.

A number of out of town people attended the funeral of the late Mr. Luther Green, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Green, of Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bassett and daughter, of Andover, Mrs. H. C. Coleman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Green, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Backus, Mr. B. S. Bassett, Mrs. H. C. Coon, Mr. and Mrs. Delwin Green, Mrs. Alpha Smith, of Alfred, and Mrs. Jesse O'Donnell of Hornellsville.

G. A. R. Old Soldier's Gratitude COMRADES, READ THIS.

Torturing, Life Destroying Dyspepsia Cured. Another Triumph for Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Dr. James S. Dean, Commander of Gen. Grant Post, G. A. R., Rondout, N. Y., and Capt. P. S. Neal, Agent of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad and one of the most popular and well known gentlemen in the East, whose testimony is beyond question.

I was all run down with DYSPEPSIA. I had been to several doctors but it only resulted in more misery night and day. My case was pronounced incurable. I suffered this way for fully TWO YEARS. I chanced to meet Dr. Kennedy on the street about that time, and I told him of my condition and he said, "Jimmy, you need not suffer so, come to my office and I'll give you a bottle of FAVORITE REMEDY, take it morning, noon and night, and it will cure you. I took the medicine as directed, but had no confidence in a cure, as my case had been tried by so many. After using it a week I began to feel better, and in a short while after that I was ENTIRELY CURED. Just think of it, entirely cured. That terrible distress, everything I ate, breaking up sour in my throat had all gone and I have not had a moment's discomfort since. To-day there isn't a healthier man in this country and my appetite is grand. I believe I could eat a KEG OF NAILS if I had to and digest them with ease. FAVORITE REMEDY is the foe of Dyspepsia and poor health. Yours truly, JAMES S. DEAN. Rondout, March 12th, 1892.
