HASKELL'S American Silks.

Westbrook, Me., Sept., 1892.

Rockwell Bros. Wellsville, N. Y.

For several months past the price of raw silk has shown a gradual and steady advance. This has been caused by an increased consumption by both European and domestic manufacturers, and is not due to any speculative tendency, but to a legitimate condition of affairs.

In consequence of this advance in raw material we are compelled to notify you that on October 1st, we shall advance 2 1/2 cents per yard, all our grades now quoted or sold by us at one dollar or less, and five cents per yard on all other grades. We also reserve the right thereafter, without further notice, to make such other changes in our prices as the condition of the raw silk market may render necessary.

Respectfully, HASKELL SILK COMPANY.

We have just received a notice, stating that since the issuance of the foregoing circular the advance on raw silk has nearly doubled.

In view of the above facts we have supplied ourselves at the old prices and shall make no advance whatever in Haskell's silks until our present stock is closed out, which will take about 30 days.

Senator Sherman Renews his Attack.

Senator Sherman renewed his attack and refused to be convinced even by the oratory of the Iowa Senator. He wanted the Senate to do the straightforward thing, and not fizzle about it.

"Give the Fair $5,000,000 and do not make believe that you are deceiving yourselves in giving it a 70-cent silver dollar, or two 35-cent half-dollars." If the Children cry for it, as the Senator has said they did, "Why not give them Castoria?" said Sherman. He knew that it was a popular thing with the little ones, more popular he thought than even the souvenir half-dollars would be. The galleries looked down in surprise as these remarks came from Sherman, and Congressmen who entered the Chamber just as Mr. Sherman uttered them, dropped into the vacant chairs nearest the door.
