Money and Watch Stolen.
A week or ten days ago a young man named Charles Lackey went to the residence of Messrs. Wm. and Edward Jones, who live about three miles from this village, on Corwin Hill. He helped with the work on the place, and stayed until yesterday, when he took a gun and went hunting, about two o'clock p. m. He did not return at night, and a little investigation revealed the fact that he had also taken a watch belonging to Edward, and $45 belonging to William. Prompt search for the missing man was instituted, and it was learned that he had left the gun at the Elm Valley post office with instructions to return it to Mr. Jones. No further trace of him has been found.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.
The I. O. G. T. will give a dime social at their hall Oct. 29, inst. Everybody invited.

Mr. Wm. Cantine, of Whitesville, was buried Saturday. Heart failure was the cause of his death.

It is reported that the brother of Dr. A. J. Remington has been secured to preach in the M. E. church, Whitesville.

A Mrs. Nearing, who resided with her son-in-law, Mr. Frank Forsyth, died Saturday and interment took place Monday.

Mr. C. F. Potter enjoyed a visit from his mother last week.

Comrade J. T. Livermore has a job of painting and papering in Wellsville that will probably occupy his time for the next four or five weeks. Jim knows how 'tis done and does it O. K.

It is rumored that Mr. Lewis Berry, of Whitesville, is about to purchase the old Edmund Livermore farm in this place, and will soon move thereon.

SOME GUMPTION.
We want to emphasize what we have said before, which is that the Presidential campaign is in the hands of the rural voters of the State of New York. - Binghamton Republican.

FULMER VALLEY NEWS.

Potato digging is in full blast and they are yielding a bountiful crop of very nice goods. The beautiful weather for securing them, together with prospects for an active market, makes the heart of the worker glad.

Mrs. H. M. Bonney of Alma, accompanied by her son George and daughter Hettie, visited relatives here Friday and Saturday.

Miss Elida Livermore of Independence visited in this place last week.

E. M. Livermore is spending the week at Belmont as a juror.

Mrs. J. Trask spent Saturday with Mrs. F. O. Livermore.

Our school began Monday of this week with Maggie A. McAndrew as teacher. As she has taught two terms here she will be able to take up the work where she left off and every one expects a very successful term.

Miss Cora Livermore has just returned from a two weeks visit among friends in Ulysses, Pa.

Political matters are attracting some attention, and we hear an occasional discussion of the issue between neighbors of different views. We have almost decided that Politics known by any name Republican or Democrat, all are the same.

Fill you come to the point where tariff comes in; here they split clear in two and contentions begin.

One argues Protection, the other Free Trade.

Excepting goods of a certain grade, and each will scheme, contrive and plan to induce honest people to vote for the man.

They go into Congress and there legislate for a few cents duty on imported tin plate.

Democrats say we can't make it here. Republicans reply, we'll do it, don't fear.

On the free list they put all sugars refined.

And affix a two cent bounty, now mind, on sugar produced within our own land provided, however, 'tis not mixed with sand.

The question of wages comes up for a share of attention from Congress, and it seems only fair

To arrange so a poor working man can live.

On the prices manufacturers can afford to give.

Two years of Protection, Republicans claim, Have increased wages and adds to the fame.

Of their own pet idea of industrial protection To American citizens of every complexion.

The Democrats thought to confront this bold claim With reports from manufacturers of every name.

Complied by Commissioner Peck—their own man And they finally decided 'twas a very good plan.

But "Pecks Bad Boy" has grown to a man, And can gather statistics where any one can.

He filed his report on labor and wages And made every Democrat mad as Blue Blazes. - M.

Hon. Seth Milliken Coming!

Hon. Seth H. Milliken, of Maine, will speak at a Republican meeting at Prest's opera house in this village next Monday evening. He is said to be a fine speaker. The Andover Cornet Band and the Alfred Centre Glee Club will furnish the music.

The St. John Meeting.

Arrangements are being perfected for holding an immense mass meeting in this place on Thursday of next week, Oct. 27th, afternoon and evening. Ex-Governor John P. St. John, of Kansas, will speak in the afternoon and John A. Nichols, of Massachusetts, in the evening. The rate of one fare for the round trip has been secured on the Erie road from all stations in this county, and those who bring lunch will be provided with tea and coffee free. The meetings will be held in Prest's opera house.

John A. Nichols will speak at Alfred Station, Oct. 24th; at the Red Schoolhouse in East Valley, Alfred, Oct. 25th; and at the Proctor Schoolhouse in Wellsville, Oct. 26th. He will talk prohibition for all he is worth.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. B. C. Cole, who, with Mrs. H. E. Miner, was visiting a sister at Austin, Pa., while making an evening excursion to the mammoth lumber mills which are illuminated by electric light, made a mistake and fell a distance of sixteen feet, receiving quite serious bruises but no fractures. She was for a time unable to be removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. Corwin, and was taken to a hotel in Austin, and cared for there by Mrs. Miner. Mrs. Cole arrived home Tuesday and is now doing well.
