THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892.
Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Mr. Peter Ward of Pixley Hill died on Sunday.

The new show case at Mourhess' is a beauty and don't you overlook it.

Prof. A. D. Howe and family and Mrs. M. D. Briggs, of Whitesville are visiting the family of H. Mourhess.

Mr. Ed. Norton, deputy postmaster of Belmont, was in town a few days ago, inspecting the Andover postoffice.

With good crops and fair prices, neither our farmers nor our merchants are making much complaint of hard times.

A great crowd went from Andover yesterday to hear Chauncey M. Depew and Whitelaw Ried, who spoke in Belmont. The cornet and martial bands accompanied the crowd.

The exciting questions of the presidential campaign will soon take a rest, and in the absence of all-engrossing topics, why shouldn't we take into consideration the formation of a fire company?

Persons who contemplate the establishment of manufacturing industries will do well to take into consideration the fact that Andover has a full supply of natural gas—an item not to be overlooked or underrated.

Miss Martha Williams, of Elm Valley, who has been seriously ill for a long time past, has so far recovered, under the treatment of Dr. W. W. Crandall, that she is now visiting the family of her brother, J. L. Williams.

The News acknowledges a pleasant call from Hon. Ivan Powers, of Rochester, Ex-District Attorney of Monroe county. Mr. Powers was formerly of Cuba, where his parents still reside. Both he and his father were educated at Alfred University.

Chairman Van Fleet has worked like a beaver during the campaign. He has been on the warpath in season and out of season regardless of any obstacles in the way, and if Allegany county lags in the name of the procession it will not be his fault.—Belmont Post.

Mr. P. F. Lynch of Friendship was in town Sunday.

James Owen is building a barn in the rear of his residence.

Mr. Lawrence La Forge of Alfred Centre was in town last Friday.

During a visit to Olean on Monday, J. L. Williams bought a carload of flour for his firm.

Erie carpenters Allen, McCann and Cole are engaged in the erection of a tower at W. R.

Go and hear townsman L. C. Van Fleet at Prest's opera house Saturday evening, Nov. 5.

Mr. J. C. Cunningham of Hornellsville was in town a day or two the latter part of last week.

W. H. Crandall, of Alfred Centre, was in town last week, on business, of course; he is a business man.

Silver Lake Quartette and Hon. T. R. Carskadon at Prest's opera house next Sunday afternoon.

The potato and apple trade is still booming here. Every day this week has seen several cars loaded.

Miss Walsh of Buffalo, who has made an extended visit with friends in Andover, returned home Monday.

Miss Mina Crandall of Bolivar, and Miss Kate Harman of Wellsville, are visiting the family of H. A. Benedict.

Mr. Ward Oatley has sold his vacant lot on East Avenue to L. C. Van Fleet and O. Rosebush. Consideration, $500.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Comstock returned last evening from a four weeks' absence passed at Pittsburg and Allegheny City, Pa., and Salamanca, N. Y.

No school this week. The Teachers' Institute is being held in Belmont. Prof. Armstrong of this place is one of the assistant instructors.

Dr. A. J. Remington, Mr. James Chase and wife and Mrs. A. D. Howe, of Whitesville, were in attendance at the Prohibition mass meeting.

Mrs. Martin Grover, widow of the distinguished jurist and Judge of the Court of Appeals, Martin Grover, died at her home in Angelica last Saturday.

M. H. Harman has sold his house and lot on Dyke street, known as the Marsh Bundy place, to Henry Bullard. We understand Mr. Bullard will occupy the house.

Hon. T. R. Carskadon, who is to speak at Prest's opera house this week Saturday afternoon, is a farmer, and a good talker. The farmers are specially invited to hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Beebe will soon commence house keeping in the house recently occupied by W. E. Green, who has moved into the building lately vacated by Gideon Trowbridge.

The immense quantity of potatoes annually shipped from this station suggests the thought that some enterprising person might find it to his pecuniary advantage to establish a starch manufactory in Andover.

Mrs. A. E. Sherwood and daughter of Pewamo, Mich., are visiting the family of Mr. A. C. Frisbey. They lady's husband, a brother of Mrs. Frisbey, will be remembered as Capt. Sherwood of Co. I, 86th N. Y. Volunteers.

Mr. E. A. Newton, tinsmith of Belmont has just completed the job of putting eave troughs on Mr. E. Z. Cook's new house west of this village. Mr. Newton is a good workman and dealing with him is always satisfactory.

Hon. T. R. Carskadon, of West Virginia, will speak for Prohibition at the new town hall in Whitesville, Saturday evening, Nov. 5th. He is a plain farmer, a plain talker and a plain dealer with the vital questions of the hour.

Whitecaps went to the home of Tom Hanley in Belvedere, a few nights ago, took him out of bed and dragged him to a telegraph pole, where he was tied and given a severe thrashing. Hanley had been in the habit of whipping his aged mother. He has since disappeared.

Next Monday morning the students at Wellsville Union School and Academy will occupy the handsome new school building on Main street in that village. The people of Wellsville have reason to be proud of the structure, and Andover comes in for a share of the pride because a resident of this place—Mr. John Prest—erected the building.

The body of Moses Smith, an eccentric character about 60 years old, was found floating in the outlet of Chautauqua Lake, on Wednesday night. Thirty years ago Smith was one of the leading young lawyers of Chautauqua county, with a charming little family around him. He became addicted to the use of liquor, neglected his profession, and for many years has been a wanderer, living upon the charity of his former friends. His widow and daughter live in Pittsburg. It is thought he accidentally fell into the outlet while intoxicated.

Nettie Royce of Belfast, three years ago fell from the transit bridge into the Genesee river, owing to want of a suitable railing. She thereby sustained injuries from which she has since been and will always be a cripple. Through her attorney, S. M. Norton, she has just begun an action against the towns of Angelica and Belfast for $10,000 damages.

The C. L. S. C. will meet in the parlor of the Baptist Church, next Monday evening. The program will be as follows: Music, No. 27. Roll call, tell some Grecian myth. One fact each about Maximilian and Bolivar. Lesson, ten questions on Grecian History and nine on U. S. and Foreign Powers, and the questions and answers on the cities of Greece. Table talk on Whittier.

Why Hallowe'en should be set apart for mischief is like the ways of Providence, "inscrutable and past finding out;" but more than one person has been "looking for a sign where there is no sign," since the News office sign took flight to Eld. Brewster's residence and Frank Gilder's barber sign took a prominent position before Smith's bakery establishment. Mr. Frank Bassett's steps climbed the hill, and horseblocks, &c., were "not in it" when All Saints Day dawned.

Dr. George William Winterburn and Miss Florence Hall will edit a new magazine, the first number of which will appear Nov. 25th, 1892, to be called Childhood. It will cover a field not hitherto occupied. It will be addressed to parents, and will endeavor to inculcate the most advanced ideas in regard to the moral, intellectual and physical development of children. It is believed that there are a very large number of parents who desire to give their children the advantages of the best training, but who, defectively trained themselves, do not know how to secure the end desired. Childhood will attempt to be the guide of such, and by presenting the subject in all its phases by means of short, well written contributions, to supply information which cannot be found elsewhere. Childhood will contain thirty-two double-column pages, and will be published monthly at 10 cents a number—$1 a year.
