

THE ANDOVER NEWS
ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, Editor.
ANDOVER, N. Y., Nov. 16, 1892.

The Illustrated Park, a reliable trade journal, says the New York World uses 40 tons of paper daily, and buys it at $8 a ton less now than before the McKinley bill went into effect, thus a saving of $320 a day or $106,800 a year. The World evidently doesn't care a flip for expenses, else it would not have opposed the bill.

A FEW OPINIONS.

For Senator, William Fearless Sheehan of Erie.—New York Sun.

A blizzard has developed in the Northwest.—New Haven Register.

At last the Democratic party knows where it is at.—Rochester Herald.

The people have triumphed over the Plutocracy.—New York World.

Now we may begin to cipher where to get a turkey for Thanksgiving.—Bradford Era.

It is the voice of the American people that there shall be in this country no English cheap labor.—New York Herald.

Ben Harrison's Buffalo Caruck-hunter must have accidentally let a few Canadians into New York state.—Hamilton Spectator.

All intelligent business men know that the election of Cleveland brings no threat of free trade, or of even an approach to free trade.—Philadelphia Times.

The election of Cleveland, whether obtained in the Electoral College or the House of Representatives, will be one result of the folly, soon to be repented of, that has seized the American people.—Scranton Standard.

It is with no undue exultation over a fallen foe that we regard this result, but with profound gratitude that the American people has chosen so wisely and so justly, and with firm confidence in the future.—New York Times.

The people of this country vote to place themselves on a level with Great Britain in the matter of wages in order to avoid the possible invasion of England's skilled laborers, attracted by our prosperity.—New York Advertiser.

The Democratic success cannot be wholly accounted for by Mr. Cleveland's popularity, but the vote must be accepted as indicating a widespread and overwhelming desire through the country for a change.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

If it proves that a Democratic President and a Democratic Congress have been elected, the consequences to the business- and the industries of the country will probably not be such as to insure that party a long lease of power.—New York Tribune.

G. A. R. Old Soldier's Gratitude COMRADES, READ THIS.

Torturing, Life Destroying Dyspepsia Cured. Another Triumph for Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Mr. James S. Dean, Commander of Gen. Grant Post, G. A. R., Rondout, N. Y., and Chief U. S. Mail Agent of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad and one of the most popular and well known Gentlemen in the East, whose veracity is beyond question says:

I was all run down with DYSPEPSIA. I doctored and doctored but it all resulted the same way. I grew worse. I suffered untold misery night and day. My case was pronounced incurable. I suffered this way for fully TWO YEARS. I chanced to meet Dr. Kennedy on the street about that time, and in a short while after that I was ENTIRELY CURED. Just think of it, entirely cured. That terrible distress, everything I ate breaking up sour in my throat had all gone and I have not had a moment's discomfort since. To-day there isn't a healthier man in this country and my appetite is grand. I believe I could eat a KIBB OF MEATS if I had to and digest them with ease. FAVORITE REMEDY is the foe of Dyspepsia and poor health. Yours truly, JAMES S. DEAN. Rondout, March 14th, 1892.
