THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
 Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Mrs. A. J. Stebbins and daughter of Norwich, N. Y., are visiting friends in town.

Miss Hannah Stillman of Alfred Centre, visited Miss Bertha Harman last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Porter of Tioga, Pa., spent Thanksgiving with Andover relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Smith of Allegany, visited the family of D. J. Comstock during the past week.

Mr. J. W. Richardson and family spent Thanksgiving with his father, Alvin Richardson of Friendship.

Mrs. J. W. Lauphler and son Walter, of Hornellsville, attended the Thanksgiving dinner at the M. E. church last Thursday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church have never had such a variety of beautiful things for their Fair as they have this season. Come and get your Xmas presents and hear Miss Baker.

Now that the Catholic church has a fine new pipe organ, why don't some of the other churches follow suit? (N. B.—As the expression "follow suit" may not be understood we will say that it means substantially "go and do likewise.")

The program for the next C. L. S. C. will be as follows: Music No. 31; Quotations, miscellaneous; one fact each about Solon, the Athenians, and the Spartans; Lesson, one-fourth the questions in the Dec. Chautauquan on Grecian History, the U. S. and Foreign Powers. Table talk, some item of news.

The drama "Foiled" drew another large audience last Thursday evening, and deserved it. All that was said in commendation of the play and the actors in its first presentation is applicable now, and the special features in the last performance were well rendered and fully appreciated.

Miss Clara Rice, daughter of Rev. E. A. Rice, of Wellsville, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Atwood.

Skating was good on the pond the latter part of last week, but Monday's snow and warmer weather spoiled it.

The village trustees have adopted a code of by-laws. They will be printed in pamphlet form and distributed. The laws take effect Jan. 1st, 1893.

Miss Mildred Hila Baker will give one of her pleasing entertainments in connection with the Presbyterian Church Fair. Admission 10c.

The new sanitarium for giving patients the Gold Cure, at Wellsville, is already doing a good business. Those interested should read the announcement in another column of this issue.

It is rumored that the Erie railroad will issue 500 mile books, good only between Hornellsville and Canisteo, at one-half cent a mile. This is done to compete with the electric railway which will soon be in operation between those places.

The following people visited the family of J. W. Richardson last Friday and Saturday: Mrs. F. C. Lester of Richburg, with her two daughters, Rega and Ruth and son Herbert; Floyd Richardson and wife also of Richburg.

The Thanksgiving Dinner at the M. E. church was well patronized, considering the condition of the roads, and a good sum was realized. The manner in which the victuals disappeared indicated that the cooks had made a success of their part of the work.

Prof. Estee of Canisteo says: "Miss Baker, although young, ranks among the best readers in the lecture-bureau. Her grace of manner and pleasing address upon the stage captivate all." At the Fair, Prest's Opera House, Wednesday evening, Dec. 7th. Admission 10c.

The Chairman of the Board of Supervisors told the News man a few days ago that he considered Andover's Supervisor one of the best members of the Board. As Mr. Boyd served on several of the more important committees during the recent session, it would seem that the chairman had "sized him up" about right.

The Comet Didn't Come.

The city papers contain many accounts of people who watched for the comet last Sunday night. In Elmira Advertiser says many people took positions at some advantageous window and eagerly watched for the appearance of the comet which it was predicted would come in collision with the earth about 9:30 o'clock. With the majority of people it was merely a matter of curiosity, but there were many others who were really alarmed over the consequences of the threatened collision.

In Philadelphia hundreds of men, women and children gathered on the streets to see the expected heavenly wonders. Threatening clouds hovered over the city and positions out of doors were rendered decidedly uncomfortable by the damp, chilly air, but the crowds maintained their positions long past the hour fixed by the astronomers for the collision, when they were driven in by a drizzling rain. There were many who were afraid to venture from their home and preferred to die by their own fire side, if the expected death was to come. Three cases of insanity through fear of the destruction of the world were reported by the police, and prominent physicians who were seen predicted that many cases of nervous prostration and possibly death would result from the intense strain upon the nervous systems of the weaker superstitious.

If these people had read the News last week they would have known that the "scrap" was declared off. Instead of approaching the earth, the comet is going in almost the contrary direction, and is carrying its tail behind it.

A Prosperous Parish.

Sunday was the thirteenth anniversary of the Very Reverend Dean Leddy's pastorate of the Church of Immaculate Conception in this city and the Rev. Father spoke of the event briefly, but feelingly, in his sermon at late mass.

In November, 1873, Rev. H. M. Leddy was transferred from a prosperous parish and loving people in the central part of this state to Wellsville. Here he found a parish sadly in need of a good executive to bring it out of debt and start it on a new road. Father Leddy began the work at once, with all the vim of a young man who knows no such word as fail and to-day a prosperous parochial school, a fine parochial residence and a beautiful new convent stand as a monument to his unceasing labors and sleepless nights of planning. But few of our people realize the self-sacrifice of one who is called upon at all hours of the day and night and in all kinds of weather to administer to the spiritual wants of so large a congregation as make up the Catholic society of Wellsville.

The very successful result of the recent fair is a very great source of satisfaction to Father Leddy and gives the society a big start towards the fund for a new and elegant church, which it is the great ambition of the Reverend Father to see possible for his congregation.

New Church Organ.

The members of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in this place have for several weeks been raising money with which to purchase a new pipe organ for their church. The organ has been secured and a few days ago was placed in position in the church. It has not been used yet, however, the intention being that the first notes from the new instrument shall be heard at a grand sacred concert to be given during the holidays. If the present purpose is carried into effect the concert will be something well worth hearing, and will doubtless draw an immense audience. Full information will be given the public in ample time to enable them to prepare for the event.

HAVE YOU A FRIEND WHO DESIRES TO TAKE THE GOLD CURE?

TELL HIM THIS:

The perfect treatment of to-day is the result not of one man's work, but of many. The greatest objection, at present, being that most, if not all, of the so called cures use atropia (belladonna or deadly nightshade), a violent poison, to which drug has been due the cases of blindness, insanity and death occasionally reported. The use of this drug we know is not necessary, and it ought not to be used. Also remember, we have cured men who have been drinking for thirty years, without receiving a drop of whiskey during treatment. We believe we are the only company in the world who even attempt to do this. The cure is more permanent and certain. In any disease the less medicine used so effect a cure the better. A wrecked constitution may be worse than the original disease. Our patients leave us in better condition than when they came.

Our terms are $50 for a guaranteed cure, usually in three weeks; while others often require from four to six weeks and charge by the week ($25) making cost of treatment $100 to $150.
