THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 1, 1892:
Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged 4¢.
Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.
A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.
A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.
An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.
Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.
An abundant supply of natural gas for fuel and lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.
A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

I've a secret in my heart,
Sweet Marie,
As I would impart,
Sweet Marie,
If you ever love me,
You must always love me,
You must always love me,
Sweet Marie, told by Benedict
& Van Noy.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cochran, Sunday, Dec. 30, a boy.

Miss Nettie Perry of Friendship has been visiting friends in town for a few days past.

Elton Harder and Miss Lottie Lee of Wellsville were visiting friends in town last week.

Miss Marie Kinney of Hornellsville visited Miss Ella McLaughlin during the past week.

Miss Dell Carpenter of Ashaway, R. I., is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bassett.

The Political Equality Club will meet with Mrs. W. R. Orris Tuesday evening, Jan. 8, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Willis Keyser of Cattaraugus has been visiting the family of C. M. Wood during the past week.

The Mutual Company is drilling another well on Mrs. Brundage's farm, about three miles east of this village. The drill was started Monday.

J. C. Greene, J. C. Cartwright, Prof. B. B. Brown, Dr. F. E. Comstock and Miss Hattie McCormick went to Buffalo Saturday on the excursion.

The stores now close at 8 p. m. Don't forget this when there isn't any coffee in the house for breakfast. The post-office also closes at the same hour.

Miss Jennie Comstock will spend the winter in Binghamton. She left this place Saturday, and will visit a short time in Westfield, Pa., before going to Binghamton.

A lively crowd of young people from Alfred came to Andover for a sleigh-ride Monday evening. They were entertained for a short time at the home of P. Cannon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Crandall and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crandall and family, of Independence, and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Fowler took Christmas dinner at A. C. Crandall's.

John Conwell's auction sale, which was to have taken place last Thursday, was postponed until today, on account of the storm, which rendered it impossible for the people to attend.

Mrs. Lawrence Breneman of Columbia City, Ind., who has been in Andover for a couple of weeks, left for her home Friday evening. She was accompanied by her father, Thos. Comstock, who will spend some time in the west.

Among the young people from this place and vicinity who are absent from home, who spent the holidays here were E. D. Hardy, Volney McCarn, Will Snyder, B. A. Barney, Misses Rena Hunt, Helen Hardy and Roxie Bundy. Colin McCarn has also returned home to stay.

The K. O. T. M. dance and supper last Thursday evening was an enjoyable affair. Forty-three couples were present, which was an excellent attendance considering the weather. Mutual Tent is ahead about $8.00, and those present had full value for their money in the pleasure afforded by the occasion.

Saturday afternoon eight couples of young people took a sleigh ride to the county seat town, stopping at the hotel Belmont. Landlord Clark spared no pains to see that the crowd enjoyed themselves, and after a most delightful evening spent in the spacious house the company returned, all voting the occasion a most delightful one.

The News is indebted to Rev. Father Walsh, of Buffalo, for a copy of a pamphlet containing an article entitled "The Catholic Church and the Saloon," from the pen of Archbishop Ireland. The article was originally printed in the North American Review and sets forth at some length the position of the Catholic Church as being the "determined foe of the American saloon."

Friday evening, Dec. 21, the Erie station at this place was broken into and several express packages, a mileage book and a small amount of money were taken. Suspicion pointed to Frank Barrett as being the guilty party, and upon being charged with the crime he confessed. He was arrested and taken before Justice Kinney, who held him for the grand jury. Deputy Sheriff Slocum took him to Angelica Dec. 25.

At a recent meeting of the Presbyterian Y. P. S. C. E., the following officers were elected: President, Mary Snyder; Vice President, Henry Phillips; Recording Secretary, Clayton Cunningham; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. D. T. Betzner; Treasurer, Maggie Wood; Organist, Jennie Owen. That this society is taking an interest in the welfare of the church is proven by the work it has accomplished during the past six months. Through its efforts the prayer meeting room has been repaired, having been papered, the wood work repainted, the room furnished, new window shades put up and the furniture most worthy of note is that the old benches have been replaced by chairs, which gives the room a more pleasant aspect.

L. C. Tinker and S. T. Jennings, who walked from Rochester to Tallahassee, Fla., on a wager, arrived in the latter place Dec. 29, six days ahead of time. It will be remembered that these young men passed through Andover.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by the members of Andover Lodge, No. 558, F. & A. M. and their wives, Saturday evening, Dec. 22. The officers for the ensuing year were duly installed, after which refreshments were served. All present seemed to enjoy themselves, and the occasion was voted a success.

Among the dwelling houses to be built in this place next season will be a fine residence for Hon. A. C. Barney of West Union, who we are glad to note will remove to this place. The stone for the foundation of the house is now being quarried at Belmont and will be shipped here when the work of cutting is finished.

During the past week we have had winter enough to make up for all that failed to come previously. Thursday morning the ground was covered with snow, and the storm continued nearly all the forenoon, with wind enough to make a genuine blizzard. Probably no more severe storm has visited this section in years. The snow-fall was followed by extreme cold weather, the thermometer registering from twenty to thirty degrees below zero early Saturday morning. John Deming reported thirty-two degrees below zero at his residence on Barney street.

Through the kindness of H. S. Hastings, auditor of the Central New York & Western Railway Co., we had the pleasure of a trip over that road a few days since. The road between Angelica and Hornellsville is better equipped than ever for transporting freight and passengers, and we are informed that the western portion of the road, which runs from Bolivar to Olean is in equally good shape. Under the supervision of M. S. Blair, general superintendent of the road, the operations have been put on a substantial, business basis, and the accommodations afforded the people along the route are excellent in every respect. During the recent storm the trains were run practically on time, which is more than can be said of many other roads through the country.
