the lot.

been visiting in Andover for a few weeks past, returned last week to her home in Tioga, Pa.

In another column in this issue, Uriah Davis gives his ideas concerning road work. The article is well worth reading and careful consideration.

E. D. Hardy has gone to Britton, Mich., where his brother, Dr. P. B.
Hardy resides. His sister, Miss Helen Hardy, went to the same place a few weeks since.

Yesterday the sixty men employed by Prangen Brothers cut and loaded 48

California, is not enjoying as good health there as her friends could wish.
It is hoped, however, that more favorable news concerning her condition may soon be received.

The Scott & Ransom Comedy Company will begin a four nights engagement at Prest's opera house this evening. This troupe was in Bolivar last week, and the Breeze speaks very highly of their entertainments.

cently sold his farm stock, machinery, and household goods at auction, will re-

Last Thursday evening the members of the Woman's Relief Corps who were on Mrs. Fowler's side in a contest recently held, entertained those on Mrs.
Frisbey's side by a supper at Mrs. Fowler's residence. Those present partook of an excellent supper, and enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Fowler and her assistants, and all report a pleasant evening.

Miss Bessie Bullard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bullard of this place, cutionary contest held in Belmont last evening by members of Prof. Wetmore's classes from the different towns. Miss Bullard will receive hearty congratulations from her many friends. Masters Sammie and Eddie Joyce of this place sang several songs at the entertainment, and received much applause.

The Youths' Companion is so popular among all classes that the following from its managing editor will be of interest: "The first volume of the Standard Dictionary has been in constant use in our office since it was received, and has proved extremely useful. We have selected the Standard as the Dictionary for the use of the proofreader in his own room." The agent for this work, Mr. Crandall, expects to complete his canvass of Andover this week, and those who intend to secure this valuable Dictionary should not wait too long before placing their orders.

Quite a large crowd including some of Wellsville's most enthusiastic Sunday school young ladies enjoyed the sleighing to Andover and a dance at the American House Friday night.

Reporter. There, now, you've given the whole thing away. Those Sunday School young ladies will now proceed to organize a boycott on the Reporter and everybody connected with it, and the next time a member of the staff goes to sleep on the cars and is carried beyond his destination the whole town will know it within two hours. As a matter of fact, the young ladies didn't dance enough to take one particle of the insult off from their religious purity. We heard it hinted that they couldn't dance.

A petition is being circulated among the voters of Almond with view of combining the three school districts and forming a Union Free School.

W. E. Smith of Wellsville, lately one of the proprietors of the Belmont Dispatch, was in town yesterday. Mr. Smith has sold his interest in the Dispatch to R. Stillman, who will hereafter conduct the paper.

Dr. J. M. Ryder of Almond was arrested Friday by Deputy Sheriff Haynes and Chief of Police Hickey of Horn-ellsville at the request of the District Attorney of Windsor county, Vt. Dr.
Ryder is charged with the crime of murder, committed in the town of Randolph, Windsor county, Vt. Ryder was arrested at the home of his brother-in-law, Frank A. Newell, on North Hill, in the town of Almond. He was taken to Hornellsville and confined in the police station. Chief Hickey sent a telegram announcing the arrest to the authorities of Windsor county, Vt., where the indictment was found. The Doctor said that he was 42 years of age, and had for many years been a practicing physician. He said that he had practiced medicine in various places; that eleven years ago he opened an office in New York for the practice of medicine, and that while there married his wife, who was a former resident of Almond, and a highly respected young lady. Ryder said that he located in Randolph, Vt., about two years ago, and at the importunities of his wife, who had come to her brother's home among the hills of Allegany in the hopes that the bracing air would benefit her health, which was delicate, he moved here and purchased the farm of his brother-in-law. The Doctor thinks that the arrest may be a scheme to get him back to Vermont that he may furnish evidence in a divorce case which is pending there, and in which he was interested in a professional way. He is confident that Gov. Morton will not sign requisition papers. The Doctor, so far as known, bears a good reputation.
