Allegany's Centennial Celebration.
 The people of Wellsville are making extensive arrangements for the Allegany Centennial Celebration, to be held in that village in June. A committee of Wellsville citizens has been appointed to take the lead in making the arrangements. A joint meeting of this committee and the officers of the Historical Society was held in Wellsville last Thursday afternoon, at which plans for making the celebration a success were discussed. The Reporter says, concerning the matter:
 "No definite plan was adopted. It may be said though, that without doubt the demonstration will be the most elaborate, entertaining and instructive ever seen in old Allegany. An oration, addresses, historical sketches, a poem, processions, an historical pageant, an excursion to the spot at Elm Valley where Dike, the pioneer settler, built the first log house and mill erected in what is now Allegany county, a museum of historical relics; an old time reception, perhaps; visiting bodies of the State Militia with the Governor and staff may be features of the grand demonstration. The Centennial will not only commemorate the coming of the first white settler into the county, but will celebrate the 100 years of progress in Allegany. The demonstration will be made to embrace the best features of all the celebrations ever held here. The firemen, the secret fraternities, the boys and girls, the schools, the farmers, mechanics, business and professional men of the county shall each have a part and contribute to the success of the great undertaking. The educational value of the coming two days of reminiscence and celebration of the progress of civilization, in overcoming seemingly insurmountable obstacles, can hardly be exaggerated."

Married.
 At the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in Andover, N. Y., at 10 o'clock on the morning of Jan. 16, 1895, by Rev. T. A. Murray, Mr. James Boyle of Belfast, and Miss Maggie McAndrew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McAndrew of Andover. Mr. Frank Boyle, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Mame McAndrew, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The bride is well known by the people of Andover as an estimable young lady. The groom has come to us with high recommendation. The bride was beautifully attired in a rich costume of brown silk, trimmed with white silk lace. A high mass was celebrated and largely attended. As the happy groom turned to lead the newly made wife from the altar, the joyful strains of a wedding march pealed from the organ above. In the afternoon and evening a grand reception was held at the home of the bride. Congratulations and presents were numerous. The happy couple left on the evening train for New York and other places. Among those from out of town who attended the wedding were Rev. Father Haire, Mr. and Mrs. P. Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. F. Durnien, Mr. John Guill, Mr. Frank Boyle, Mr. J. Durnien, Miss Rose Guill, of Belfast, Mrs. P. E. Eagan, Mrs. R. Dugan, of Belmont.

Those having accounts with me are requested to call and make settlement in some way at once. The change of firm renders this necessary and a ready response will greatly oblige. Yours, W. H. PHILLIPS.

WHY NOT HAVE ELECTRIC LIGHTS?
 A Strong Probability That Andover Could Enjoy This Advantage at Very Small Expense.

Those who have taken the trouble to investigate the matter are of the opinion that there is enough water going to waste from the reservoir on Van Fleet's hill to furnish sufficient power to run a dynamo for lighting the streets of this village. The reservoir is located 160 feet above the business portion of the village, which gives sufficient pressure to a stream of water to furnish a great amount of power, and with a small outlay a plant could be erected which would put this village right in line with many larger places in the matter of street lights.
 The plan appears so feasible that in all probability the opinion of an expert will be asked, in order to determine to a certainty whether there is any reason why we cannot enjoy, at small expense, the advantage of electric lights.

As Regularly as a Clock Strikes.
 Oil wells that flow from eight to ten barrels a day are being struck with great regularity in Andover.—Hornellsville Herald.

Struck by a Cake of Ice.
 Last Monday William Boyd, who lives in Mrs. Warfield's house on Hill street, was struck by a heavy cake of ice while working at the pond. The cake was being carried up the elevator to the ice house, when in some manner it got loose and shot back, striking Mr. Boyd in the back, and inflicting injuries which will doubtless lay him up for some time.

Steuben Alliance Officers.
 The officers of the Farmers' Alliance of Steuben county recently elected are as follows: President, Sanford Mead, of Greenwood; vice-president, D. W. Hober, of Troupsburg; secretary, D. V. Sutin, of Howard; treasurer, Geo. Bennett, of Howard; executive committee, Charles Moore, of Canisteo; Alonzo Owen, of Troupsburg, and Gordon Pease of Greenwood.

The New County Scheme Again.
 The plan of forming a new county from portions of Allegany and Steuben counties has again been brought to the surface, and we understand the people of Hornellsville will endeavor to have the matter brought to a focus this winter. Hornellsville is to be the county seat and Andover will be in the new county. It is a little too early to say whether the scheme will materialize, but the News will not allow this town to be moved into another county without informing its readers of the fact.

The Future of the "Erie."
 The future of the Erie Railroad is exceedingly bright, according to an article in the railroad department of the Commercial Traveler's Home Monthly Magazine. It says:
 "Improvements amounting to $2,000,000 are to be made on the New York, Lake Erie and Western and New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroads. The first mortgage bondholders, all of whom are English capitalists, have decided on the financial reconstruction of the Erie lines. The plan is calculated to relieve the road of all debts in thirty-seven years and expend $2,000,000 within the next five years, so it will be in first class condition to handle traffic between New York and Western cities."

New Road Projected.
 A survey was made Monday of this week, with a view of opening a new road from the farm of John Mitchell, in "Shovel Hollow," near the foot of Greenwood hill, to the site of the Quinn cheese factory, thence up the valley to the Slate Creek road. The new road, if built, will be about two and one-fourth miles in length, and will pass through portions of the towns of Andover, Hartsville and Greenwood. It is claimed by those interested in securing the road that it will be a great advantage to those living in that vicinity.
 Attorney Crayton L. Earley has in charge the matter of making the application, etc., and will present the case to the proper authorities within a few days.

There May be a Will Contest.
 L. C. Van Fleet and E. J. Atwood, executors of the will of the late Marsh Bundy, offered the will for probate last Friday at Friendship. The will, which was made in December, 1887, gave to Mrs. Mary Church, for use during her lifetime, and after her death to her children, about eighteen and one-third acres of land on lot 89 in this town. The balance of Mr. Bundy's property was bequeathed to his wife. By a codicil added in February, 1893, the clause relating to the eighteen and one-third acres of land was revoked, and the said land was bequeathed to Mrs. Bundy. Upon offering the will for probate a protest against the probate of the codicil was offered by attorney C. A. Dolson, in behalf of Mrs. Church and her children. The matter was adjourned until February 23d, at which time Surrogate Norton will come to this place and hold Surrogate's court in the office of Van Fleet & Phillips.
