SUNDAY'S SERMON.

ONE OF REV. DR. TALMAGE'S STERLING DISCOURSES.

Subject: "Points of Compass."

TEXT: "They shall come from the East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit down."—Luke xiii., 29.

The man who wrote this was at one time a practicing physician, at another time a ratelegated painter, as a nother time a powerful preacher, at another time a reporter—an inspired reporter. God bless and help and inspired reporter.

But already the buts of the arctic hear the songs of divine worship. Already the snows fall on open New Testaments, Already the warmth of the sun of righteousness begins, to be felt through the bodies and minds and souls of the Hyperboreans. Down from Nova Zembla, down from Spitzbergen seas, down from the land of the midnight sun, down from the palaces of crystal, down over realms of ice and over dominions of snow and through hurricanes of sleet Christ's disciples are coming from the North. The inhabitants of Hudson Bay are gathering to the cross. The Church Missionary Society in those polar climes has been grandly successful in establishing twenty-four gospel stations, and over 12,000 natives have believed and been baptized. The Moravians have kindled the light of the gospel all up and down Labrador. The Danish mission has gathered disciples from among the shivering inhabitants of Greenland. William Duncan preaches the gospel up in the chill lattudes of Columbia delivering one sermon nine times in the same day to as many different tribes who listen, and then go forth to build school houses and churches.

the prophecy of my text, to be completely fulfilled in the near future, "They shall come from the North."

But my text takes in the opposite point of the compass. The far South has, through high temperature, temptations to lethargy, and indolence and hot blood which tend logard, multiform evil. We have through my text got the North in, notwithstanding its frosts, and the same text brings in the South, notwithstanding its torridity. The fields of cactus, the orange grorss and institute of the Lord Almighty. The South! That thickets of magnolia are to be surrendered to the Lord Almighty. The South! the world for God. The horrible war between Japen and China will leave the last wall of opposition flat in the dust. War is harbarism always and energether. We hold up our hands in amazement at the massacre at Port Arthur, as though Christian Nations could never go fant such diabolism. We forget fort Pillow! We forget the fast that during our war both North and South rejoiced when there were 10,000 more wounded and slain on the opposite side. War, whether in China or the United States, is hell let loose. But one good result will come from the Japanese-Chinese conflict. These regions will be more open to civilization and Christianity than ever before. will become a fortress of light. The last idea of Hindoolsr will be pitched into the fire.

The Christ who came from the Reat will yet bring all the East with Him. Of course there are high obstacles to be overcome, and great ordeals must be passed through before the consummation, as witness the Armenians inder the butchery of the Turks. May that throne on the banks of the Bosphorus soon trumble! The time has already come when the United States Government and Great Britain and Germany ought to intome the indignation of all civilized Nations. While it is not requisite that arms be sent there to havege the wholesale massacre of Armenians, it is requisite that arms be sent there to havege the wholesale massacre of Armenians, it is requisite that by cable under the seas, and by protest that shall thrill the wires from Washington and London and Berlin to Constantinople, the Nations and the seas and by protest that shall thrill the wires from Washington and London and Berlin to Constantinople, the Nations and the wire of the Kallan of Turkey is responsible. Mohammedan of Turkey is responsible. Mohammedan of Turkey is responsible. Mohammedan of Jurkey is responsible. Mohammedan of all time. I mean the most longer of National And the will come at the mean of the East. "And they will come at the mean of the Last." They shall come the missionaries. Dissolute Americans and Englishmen who have gone to Calcultia and Bombay and Canton to make their fortunes defame the missionaries because the holy lives and the pure house-bolds of those missionaries are a constant rebuke to the American and English libertines stopping there, but the men and women of God there stationed go on gloriously with their work. People just as good and self denying as was Missionary Mofat, who, when asked to write in an album, wrote these words:

My album is in savage breasts, Where passion resigns and dark

Is all my soul's delignt.

In all those regions are men and women with the consecration of Melville B. Cox, who, embarking for the missionary work in Africa, said to a fellow student, "if I die in Africa, come and write my epitanb." "What shall I write for your epitaph?" asid the student. "Write," said he, "these words: "Let a thousand fall before Africa be given up."

There is another point of the compass that my text includes. "They shall come from the West." That means America redeemed. Everything between Atlantic and Pacific Oceans to be brought within the circle of boliness and rapture. Will it be done by wordly reform or evangelism? Will it be law or gospel? I am glad that a wave of reform has swept across this land, and all the cities are feeling the advantage of the mighty movement. Let the good work go on until the last same foling the advantage of the mighty movement. Let the good work go on until the last sumnicipal evil is extirpated. The birds would appear to have exercised considerable-discrimination in selecting the most juicy varieties. The drought is generally regarded as responsible for the trouble, and it is to be hoped that by next season they will have forgotten the flavor of the apple and will devote their attention to their legitimate food supply.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Independ-et says that the Hawaiian Islands have been found to be richer in ani-mal life than was formerly supposed. as a result of a year's investigation by the British Association, through by the British Association, through its committee, it has been found that of birds there are seventy-eight species, of which fifty-seven are peculiar to this group. All the land and fresh water shells are peculiar, and of 1,000 species of insects, 700 are not found sewhere. It thus seems that these islands have by no means been populated from the continent, but have been centres of independent creation.

It appears that in Australia, which

It appears that in Australia, which originated and gave the name to the kind of balloting so generally now in use in this. country, they have made a peculiar change in their own system. I wider it a voter may indicate his first and second choice for a candidat. by marking against names upon a ticket the numbers I and 2 respectively. In this way, if the candidate marked 1 has only a scattering vote in comparison with others, his votes may be transferred to the candidates marked 2 if those votes be sufficient to elect the latter over a randidate who was not marked by these voters by any number. To illustrate its operation in our State, the prohibition or populist vote would be counted for the Republican or the Democratic candidate, provided the figure 2 was placed against such candidate on the ballot. It is a curfous way of enabling a man to vote to sustain a principle by his first preference in voting and yet to utilizahis vote between two other candidates at the same time.
