HAMILTON C. NORBIS, EDITOR ANDOVER, N. Y., Jan. 23 1895.

Gloversville has a resident whose name is Louis Whiskey. In a Pro hibition community he would be re quired to take cut a license to live.

According to late advices, the Japs have concluded, to slightly para phrase Gen. Grant, to fight it out on the present line, if it takes all winter.

The schoolboys' anti-cigarette organizations are thriving in numerous places. They should be duplicated and encouraged wherever there is a schoolbeuse.

If the people were as wide apart in their ideas of what constitutes a sound financial system as members of Congress are the case would be hopeless, indeed.

The country has heard much about Congressional bosses, but if there is any man living who can boss this Congress he would be welcomed as a public benefactor.

The next woman's suffrage campaign will be fought in Idaho, as the present session of the legislature of that State is expected to authorize-a popular vote upon the question.

Cold days for other than politicians are beginning to be known in the extreme south. When men freeze in Georgia one begins to get a little mixed on his geographical and climatic ideas.

The franking privilege has been restored to the members of Congress by a paragraph in a bill relating to public documents The privilege existed from 1825 to 1875 when it was abolished on account of its abuse. It will again be abused—and abolished.

Dr. Daniel Lewis of New York, has been appointed State Commissioner of Health. His many friends in this vicinity will be pleased to note the fact and none can deny that the honor was worthily bestowed. Dr. Case Jones of Rochester and Owen Cassidy, Esq. of Havana are theother appointees of this commission.

Judge Hamilton Ward is now one of the associate Judges of the General Term of Supreme Court, he having been appointed to fill the posi tion on that bench made vacant by the election of Judge Haight to the Court of Appeals bench. Judge Ward's ability is recognized when ever and wherever an opportunity

The usual bill to reduce the cost of telegraphic dispatches has been introduced in the Legislature. The author evidently believes that the Western Union company has no right stock-holders. The Postal company stretches over the entire country and its stock holders are not enjoying the luxury of any dividend at all.

The great effect of the Lexow-investigation is not in New York alone, but it has made corrupt officials in all other cities tremble for fear that euch a movement might be started and expose their misdoings. There has been a noticeable tightening upof discipline, a sudden check in muni cipal extravagances and an effort for better government in cities far distant from New York, because of the terrible exposures there made. The investigation has been a benefit to the

The first step was taken last week looking to a reapportionment of Congress districts in this state. The beginning was in the form of a resolu ginning was in the form of a resolution, offered in the Assembly by Mr. Conkling of New York. It provides that the Judiciary Committee of the House shall report to that body before February 1st whether it is with the Judiciary Committee of the House shall report to that body before February 1st whether it is with the Judiciary Committee of Rheumatism and Urinary disorders." fore February 1st whether it is with in the right of the Legislature, un -der the new Constitution, to hake a reapportionment of the Congress districts this year. Little doubt is felt that the Legislature bee full power to proceed, and it is likely to do so. & VanNoy.

As soon as the Judiciary Committee files its report, if it is favorable, a bill for the reapportionment will be drawn and presented for action.

Post Office Department has found a way of bringing about the change by calling the new county seat, formerly known as 'Nebraska," "West Appo-mattox," and restoring to the original Appomattox its historic name. An elaborate official explanation accompanying the change shows that the selection of the name "Surrender" was on the advice of Mr. Henry St.

TO THE PUBLIC: To correct some false reports, 1 beg leave to submit the following statement: Three years ago I had an attack of the grip which left me with neuralgia in the head. I found no relief except in opiates and before I was aware of it, without intending any wrong, I became a victim of the opium habit. Through the effect of this dead ly drug and hard work I became tem porarily insane. I am now entirely free from the opium habit and its halueinations, and I would not think of saying or doing the absurd things that I did then. I am in no ways financially to earn four or five per cent, for its embarrassed and my affairs in that direction were never in better shape. Anything different from this statement concerning this affair are malicious
