THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Office up stairs in Prest's new Brick Block, Main Street.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishing Association, held at Bolivar, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Art 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Art 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Art 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.
A Union School and Academy that is not exceeded by any school of its class as an institution of learning.
A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.
An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.
Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.
An abundant supply of natural gas for heat and lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.
A fire insurance company, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Dr. Kilmer's Sure Headache Cure never fails to cure all kinds of headache. For sale by O. E. Andover, N. Y.

Lester O. Baker of Whitesville was in town today.

Town Meeting and Village election will soon be here.

Superintendent of the Poor Crandall was in town Saturday.

We hear it rumored that a new paper will soon be started in Whitesville.

The Political Equality Club will meet with Mrs. W. B. Bundy next Tuesday evening.

There's nothing modern about this winter. It's old fashioned all the way through.

James P. McGinty and family have moved to Pittsburg, Pa., where they will hereafter reside.

W. O. Butts and daughter Mabel of Alfred were at J. W. Richardson's Monday and Tuesday.

The Mutual Gas Company finished a well on the Brundage farm last week, which is a fair gasser.

Don't fail to read the opening chapters of our new story, "A Deal in Wild Lands," in this week's issue.

W. F. Thomas was in Andover this week looking after the National Transit pipe line.—Bolivar Breeze.

Miss Inez Lever went to Hornellsville yesterday, where she has a position in Sutton's photograph gallery.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Baker of North Bingham visited the family of their son, Erwin D. Baker, last Sunday.

Attorneys L. C. Van Fleet and Crayton L. Early were in Bath last Saturday, on business before the Supreme Court.

April 11th will be Easter Sunday.—Bolivar Breeze. Easter Sunday doesn't fall on Thursday up this way, brother Herrick.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brundage died at her home in Greenwood, near this village, on Wednesday, Jan. 16. The funeral was held Jan. 17.

Robert Morgan left this morning for Oregon, where he will work for Hon. Rufus Mallory, who lives near Portland in that state.

Letters received from California by friends of Mrs. S. K. Hale announce that her health is much improved, which we are glad to note.

Mrs. Elmer E. Matthews of Newburg and Mr. Robert Crowner of Wellsville visited at the home of Mrs. J. Fulmer Wednesday of last week.

Mutual Tent, K. O. T. M. now holds its meetings in the hall over Perkins' harness store, Prest's block. The order is growing in membership.

Covered cutters are the latest design in vehicles. Come to think of it, one needs the protection of a cover as much in winter as in summer, if not more.

Geo. W. Probasco returned Friday from a visit in New York, Plainfield, N. J., and other places. It is expected Mrs. Probasco will return home this week.

Last Thursday evening, through the kindness of Father Murray, the choir of the Catholic church and a few other invited guests enjoyed a sleigh-ride to Wellsville.

A red, white and blue social will be held at the M. E. church parlors the evening of Washington's Birthday. Look for farther announcements, and get ready to go.

James Owen expects to shut down the tannery on Thursday or Friday of this week, thus closing what has for years been one of Andover's principal industries. What shall we do for a fire alarm when the tannery whistle ceases to blow?

A number of the members of Andover Lodge, No. 558, F. & A. M. visited the lodge at Greenwood last Wednesday evening. The third degree was conferred by Greenwood Lodge, after which refreshments were served. Those who went from here report an enjoyable evening and hospitable treatment.

R. Hardy had about a dozen and a half teeth pulled the other day, and if you meet a man of his build, with a somewhat changed countenance, you will know it's "Rosa." He took a new anaesthetic, and says he didn't intend to have more than two or three pulled, but when he found how much fun it was he didn't let dentist Wiles stop while there was any material to work on.

L. A. Burrows is making great improvements upon the interior of his drug store, in the way of papering, painting, etc. When the job is finished the walls will be "out of sight."
