The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Andover is holding its first and final Thursday in each month.

All the police judges of Madras, India, are professed Christians.

The greatest duty every father owes to his children is to walk where it will be safe for them to follow.

There are 797 prisoners in the state prison of Kansas, of which only 14 are women. That looks as if women are not a very dangerous class to hold the ballot.

Beer as well as spirits cannot now be sold in Christiania, between the hours of five p. m. Saturday and eight a. m. Monday. Exceptions are made in favor of some cafes and restaurants "where no abuse is feared."

All that you and I are responsible for is doing our duty. Ours is the seeding, and God alone beholds the end of what is sown. How do we know how much good we accomplish when we do any good thing or utter any truth in love? Eternity will be full of surprises to us. Wait and see.

Normandy's law against intoxication is that on the third conviction for public drunkenness, the offender is liable to the following: 1, loss of vote; 2, may not be voted for; 3, may not serve on a jury; 4, may not exercise an administrative faculty, such as acting as executor of a will; 5, loses the right to carry arms.

A patient was arguing with his doctor on the necessity of his taking stimulant; he urged that he was weak and needed it. Said he: "But, doctor, I must have some kind of stimulant; I am cold and it warms me." "Precisely," came the doctor's crusty answer; "see here: this stick is cold," taking up a stick of wood from the box beside the hearth, and tossing it into the fire. "Now it is warm, but is the stick benefited?" The sick man watched the wood first send out little puffs of smoke, and then burst into a flame and replied: "Of course not; it is burning itself." "And so are you when you warm yourself with alcohol; you are literally burning up the delicate tissues of your stomach and brain."

Make the Celebration a Success.

The officers of the Allegany Historical Society have issued an appeal to citizens of this county for funds to enable the Society to successfully carry out an appropriate program at the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the first settlement of the county. We make the following extract from the address mentioned: "To pause, at the end of a hundred years, and review the stupendous changes they have wrought and honor the achievements of our forefathers is not only a pleasing privilege but a filial duty."

"A program of exercises worthy of the occasion is being prepared covering two days for its performance, in the town of Wellsville, June 19th and 20th, 1895. The people of that town come to the aid of the celebration with splendid enthusiasm but their generosity is not equal to the great occasion. Besides, the occasion is not only Wellsville's burden, and glory. Every resident of the 29 towns of the county and every wanderer from their borders is equally interested and solicited to extend money aid to make the celebration successful."

"Wellsville promises $1,000. For her it is enough considering the immense work to be imposed upon her citizens. The entertainment of the people at the celebration, alone will be a serious tax upon hospitality. The Allegany County Historical Society therefore appeal to the people to come quickly to the aid of Wellsville and with at least one thousand dollars."

A committee of one person for each town in the county has been appointed to receive subscriptions. Those in this vicinity are as follows: Alfred..... Silas C. Burdick Almond..... S. S. Kari Andover..... T. N. Boyd Independence..... Theodore Cobb

Mr. and Mrs. V. I. Cook of Belfast were rendered unconscious a few nights ago by coal gas, which escaped from a door in a coal stove which was, unknown to the occupants of the house, left open when the family retired. Mr. Cook and his wife had a very narrow escape from death.

From something over 100 trees, a Villenova farmer has just marketed 400 bushels, chiefly winter apples. The trees were sprayed four times. From some other orchards in the neighborhood no apples were sold. Their owners "hadn't time to fuss with spraying" and the trees concluded to take a vacation.

A dispatch from Dunkirk last Saturday says: "Engine No. 54 arrived this afternoon with train No. 3 over the Erie, two hours late. The locomotive was a mass of snow and ice from the pilot to the smokestack. Engineer Charles Arnold says that he encountered high drifts all the way from Salamanca to Dunkirk. He was covered with sleet and snow from his boots up. His cab was filled with snow and his fireman's hands were frozen."

At the United States District Court at Albany last Friday, the jury in the case of Cashier John W. Love of Watkins, charged with embezzlement from the bank, returned a verdict on not guilty. Great indignation is expressed by the people of Watkins upon the outcome of the trial, as Love is considered a guilty scoundrel. Immediately after his discharge Love was arrested on another charge growing out of the bank matter, and it is said there are several other indictments pending against him.

An Albany dispatch says: "Assemblyman Robbins, of Allegany county, has introduced by request, a bill to grant state money to New York soldiers who served in the Civil War. It provides that all soldiers belonging to New York organizations who were confined in Confederate prisons for 30 days or more after their term of enlistment had expired shall receive from the state $3 a day for every day they were so held until their discharge. No heirs except wife or children, father or mother, brother or sister, shall be paid under the law. The bill came to Mr. Robbins with the indorsement of County Judge Norton of Allegany. It is wanted by every Grand Army post in that county, Mr. Robbins said, and a petition for its passage has over 1,000 signers. There are said to be about 200 in the state whom such a law would benefit in small amounts."

Three hundred producers of oil met in Butler, Pa., last Thursday. Ex-Senator J. W. Lee was elected chairman. He stated that the object of the gathering was to devise means whereby the independent oil interests of this country would be enabled to carry on successful competition with the Standard company in refining, transporting and marketing of oil. Three years ago he said the Producers' Oil company began to do business with a capital of $600,000 and this has since been increased to $2,000,000. Although hampered at every turn by the Standard, there are now two independent pipe lines, extending from the oilfield to the seaboard. One line carries refined and the other crude. Now the Standard is trying to buy these independent lines and thirty independent refineries. Money is required to keep these lines and refineries from becoming the prey of the Standard and if the producers will invest $300,000 in stock to sustain them they will be operated on a successful basis. Many prominent oil men addressed the meeting. After the speeches were delivered the subscription list was opened and in a very short time $30,000 was subscribed. In a few days the balance of the amount called for, $300,000, will be made up.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves." Dr. J. F. KINCHLOE, Conway, Ark. "Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
