THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Office up stairs in Prest's new Brick Block, Main Street.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 8, 1892:

RECEIPTS.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

REMARKS.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

REMARKS.—Ordinary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

- Five churches.
- A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.
- A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.
- An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.
- Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.
- An abundant supply of natural gas for fuel and lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.
- A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Mrs. C. M. Wood is visiting relatives and friends in Wellsville.
Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lasphear are visiting in Belmont this week.
Mr. Townsman and Miss Seixsmith of Wellsville were in town last evening.
Mrs. E. D. Fitzwater of Penn Yan is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Van Voy.
Miss Flora Bundy has been visiting in Hornellsville for a few days past.
Stillman Burdick and H. D. Smith expect to open their new store the first of next week.

Miss Minnie Hearons visited in Andover and Hornellsville this week.
Secure seats at L. A. Burrows' drug store for Saturday evening's play "The Lightning Rod Agent."

H. F. Wilcox expects to open his new store in Prest's Main street brick block within two or three days.
Mrs. I. J. Hendryx of Buffalo, who has been visiting her father, George M. Baker, returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrett and Mrs. Levi Barrett, of Olean, visited at J. W. Richardson's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Padden of Andover visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hallett the past few days.—Conitico Tidings.
A merry load from Wellsville attended the dance after dancing school last evening. They don't mind the cold any.

There will be a hit-and-miss social at the home of Calvin Slocum, Wednesday evening, Feb. 13. All are cordially invited.

O. A. Vanalstine, wife and daughter, of North Sanford, N. Y., visited Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Benedict during the past week.

Mrs. D. Dailey has been seriously ill for several weeks past. At present writing her condition is not materially improved.

We understand T. McTighe has sold the house and lot on Seneca street in Hornellsville purchased by him a few months ago.

We understand about twenty-five Andover people have been served with subpoenas, requesting their attendance at court next week.

Last Saturday was Candlemas Day, and the kind of weather we have been having since leads us to believe the bear saw his shadow.

The Sappho Quartette will give their benefit concert Feb. 20th. The Euterpe Club will give some of its best selections.—Wellsville Reporter.

Dr. C. W. O'Donnell has leased a suit of rooms in the new bank building, and will remove his office to that location about the first of March.

E. L. Lewis' term of dancing school will close Feb. 19th with a grand reception at Prest's opera house. There will doubtless be a large attendance.

T. H. Ross and W. E. Snyder, who will soon open a new store, as stated last week, will occupy N. Clair's building on Main street, heretofore occupied by N. Clair & Son.

Two stores in Wellsville, located in different parts of the village, narrowly escaped taking fire Monday night, on account of too much gas being left burning the previous evening.

The Greenwood correspondent for the Hornellsville Herald says: Will Burger has rented a farm in the town of Andover for the coming year. D. Pingrey of Andover has purchased what was known as the P. Rollins farm.

Sheriff George H. Swift of Cuba was in town last Thursday, and in company with his deputy, Clarence O'Donnell, made several calls among our citizens. They were principally social calls, however, and for that reason were very agreeable to all concerned.

Last Saturday evening a number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Baker, it being Mrs. Baker's birthday. The gathering was a surprise to Mrs. Baker, but duly appreciated and enjoyed. The mechanics' band serenaded the company. Refreshments were served, and all present had an enjoyable time.

"The Lightning Rod Agent" will be produced at Prest's opera house in this village, Saturday evening, Feb. 9, under the direction of Frank Cotton, assisted by home talent. Everybody who wishes to spend an evening of solid pleasure should be there. Mr. Cotton will play the part of the Lightning Rod Agent, and he will play it to perfection. The other parts are sure to be well taken, and our readers are referred to bills for the full cast. Cannon's orchestra will furnish music, and Sammie and Eddie Joyce will sing some of their best songs. Admission 25 and 35 cents. Reserved seats at L. A. Burrows' drug store.

Pretty valentines for 5c. at Benedict & Van Noy.

Attorney Clayton L. Earley has changed his location and now occupies a suit of rooms up stairs in the new Andover State Bank building. Mr. Earley is now as pleasantly situated as the most fastidious person could wish to be.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. H. A. Benedict Monday evening next at 7:30 o'clock. Program as follows: sketch of Jean Ingelow, by Miss Barney; quotations from the same author; regular work in the Chautauquan; reading by Mrs. Williamson.

Last Wednesday evening the Euterpe Club were in Wellsville, at a private party given at the home of William Browning. There was a literary and musical program, and the songs rendered by the Euterpe Club were among the best features. After the program had been rendered and refreshments served dancing occupied the attention of those present until a late hour.

Valentines for all at B. & V's. Ivoire washing powder and a 10c. cake of soap for 42c. at Williams'.

SHOES.
Did you notice that dry load of boxes stopping at our store door on Monday of this week? Those boxes were full of new shoes and rubbers, which are now open for your inspection, and must be sold. See to it, that you get your share.
