

THE ANDOVER NEWS
ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR
ANDOVER, N. Y., Feb. 27, 1895.

Hawaii will be annexed, electrically, when that cable from San Francisco to Honolulu is laid.

Dr. Cleveland has given up all hope for this Congress, but it will not die until the 4th of March.

If America can set up its own standard regardless of the rest of the world, in one thing, why not in every thing?

Between Japanese bullets, royal executions and suicide the Chinese army is rapidly getting reduced to a peace basis.

Comedian Gentry, who killed his sweetheart the other day, must have had a longing to play the leading part in a tragedy.

Great improvement has been made in newspapers by allowing women to get out one entire issue. Why not try the idea in Congress?

President Cleveland chased himself around with his financial crisis baguette at a rate that was very profitable to shrewd bond buyers, if not to Uncle Sam.

Count de Castellane is said to object to the publicity which has been given his intended marriage to Miss Anna Gould, but he doesn't object to the cash trimmings of the deal.

The report that ex Senator Platt contemplates lecturing on "Political Ingratitude," lacks confirmation, but there isn't the slightest doubt of his ability to do justice to the subject.

Men have attained high political positions by going via the Standard Oil route, but Hon. Rob't T. Lincoln should remember that the traveling is more slippery than it used to be.

Perhaps the proposed revival of the Olympian games in Greece is but a new name for the same old skin games which the Greeks have so long played upon rich Englishmen and Americans.

In the total paid yearly out of the United States Treasury for pensions, the State of Ohio stands first with a pension roll last year of $14,800,000.

Then come Pennsylvania with $13,600,000, New York with $12,000,000, Indiana with $10,800,000, Illinois (larger in proportion than Indiana) with $10,200,000, Mississippi with $7,600,000, and Michigan with $7,200,000. Massachusetts has a smaller pension roll than Kansas. At the breaking out of the civil war the population of Massachusetts was 1,230,000, and that of Kansas 110,000. Massachusetts furnished 152,000 soldiers; Kansas furnished 20,000.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.
