Corporation election next. Citizens' Village caucus next Monday evening.

Nelson S. Kemp of Scranton, Pa., was in town last week.

The Political Equality Club will meet with Mrs. H. C. Norris next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. N. Perkins picked some pansies in full bloom at her home, the first of this week.

Attorney Crayton L. Earley was in Hornellsville several days last week, on legal business.

A minstrel show is being considered by one of our local organizations. Look for further announcements.

Miss Jennie Comstock returned last week from Chenango Forks, N. Y., where she has been visiting at the home of her uncle, James P. Tracy, brother of the late Mrs. Thomas Comstock.

The Cuba Post last week was edited entirely by women. We don't know how many of them it took to get out the paper, nor where their husbands boarded during the week, but we do know that the paper was a "hummer."

Several members of the Masonic fraternity of this place paid a visit to the Whitesville lodge last evening, when the third degree was conferred. Many visitors were present and a most enjoyable time was had.

B. A. Hammond has purchased the property on the corner of Main and Dyke streets in this village, heretofore owned by Bernard Doran. Mr. Hammond will move his laundry to his newly-purchased building.

There will be a boxing exhibition at Prest's opera house in this village, Saturday evening, March 16, in which several well known champions, from different parts of the country, will appear. Local talent will also take a hand in. See bills for particulars.

Mr. Epstein, the Hornellsville clothier who is to start a branch store in this place, is now in the city buying goods for the new store. Workmen are now busy making changes upon the interior of the south store in A. Porter's block, which will be occupied by Mr. Epstein.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. F. S. Clark next Monday evening. Program as follows: Sketch of Burns' life, Mrs. W. H. Phillips; quotations from Burns; usual work in Chautauquan; reading, "Cotter's Saturday Night," Fanny Spaulding; Table talk, Cowper.

The glass blowers' entertainments closed Saturday evening, when all the prizes won during the week were awarded. The greatest strife was for the baby prize—an elaborate collection of fruit covered by a glass dome. This prize was won by Rita, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stearns.

It is reported that the Wellsville, Condersport & Pine Creek Railroad is to be extended this spring seven miles from Perryville to Gold, where it will connect with the Goodyear road. This arrangement will give direct connection between Wellsville, Williamsport, Philadelphia and Washington.

Floyd Hammond of this place and E. A. Armstrong of Belmont have opened a laundry at the latter place. Mr. Hammond is the son of B. A. Hammond, proprietor of the Andover laundry. If the new Belmont firm turns out as good work as is done by Mr. Hammond here, the people of that place will be satisfactorily served.

The good people of Belfast are jubilant over the prospects of becoming an oil town in the near future. John McCue, an experienced oil man, has leased several thousand acres of land in the town of Belfast, and it is said will put down three wells. The first well has been located on the Guilford farm, about three miles east of the village.

The greatest event of the season in the line of entertainments will occur at Prest's opera house on Wednesday evening, March 13, when the celebrated Slayton Jubilee Singers will give one of their grand concerts. Everyone should improve this opportunity to hear them. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents, for sale at L. A. Burrows.

The evening of February 27th a company of over forty of the Baptist church and society of this place took a sleigh ride and went to the family residence of Robert Macaulay, where they were most kindly received and pleasantly entertained. By the way, there were various experiences of a broken tongue, bare ground, hilly roads and a precarious "turn out." The occasion will be long remembered as one of much interest and enjoyment, thanks to the hospitable host and hostess.

New glass water sets for 75 cents at Benedict & Van Nooy. All kinds of food and fruit ground meal at Langheiser's mill.

A few representatives of Andover's jolly young people, together with invited friends from neighboring towns, spent a very enjoyable evening at Greenwood, Tuesday, March 5th. After a pleasant drive, with one little accident (a break down), two loads of ladies and gentlemen stopped at Mr. Fred Davis' hotel, where they were royally entertained. Dancing was the principal amusement till the welcome call, "Supper!" was heard. It is needless to say that justice was done to the splendid efforts of Mrs. Davis and her assistants. Dancing was resumed after supper, and only stopped when the dawn began to break. At about 7 o'clock a. m. a tired but happy party reached their homes, feeling well paid for the efforts made to attend one of the long-to-be-remembered events of the season. All join in saying, "Success to Mr. and Mrs. Davis."

Langhear has purchased the roller mill and machinery heretofore used by Langhear & Williamson, and is prepared to do all work in the line of grinding, etc., that was done by said firm. A share of public patronage is solicited. Charges reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed.

For Sale.

Two good building lots in the village of Andover. Call on or address Miss Minnie Freeborn, Andover, N. Y.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller I also all other preparations in this market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs, colds and croup. A. W. Baldrige, Millersville, Ill. For sale by L. A. Burrows.

Don't Go Astray.

When you've made up your mind to have a pair of new shoes, come here. There are shoe stores and shoe stores but this a good shoe store, that is we sell only. The difference between our two dollar shoes and the average two dollar shoes is that our's is worth two dollars.

Our increasing shoe trade adds every day to the testimony that this is the place to buy

GOOD SHOES.

A big lot of new spring styles received this week.
