THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Office up stairs in Prest's
new Brick Block, Main Street.

Next Sunday will be Easter.

Ward Otley is visiting at Canaseraga and other places.

E. L. Lewis of Belmont was in town the first of the week.

Miss Julia Lynch is teaching this term in Shovel Hollow.

Misses Mindie and Bertha Hall visited friends in Olean last week.

L. A. Burrows' soda fountain has opened business for the season.

G. M. Baker is improving and there is now some hope of his recovery.

Miss Pauline Barney returned to Genesee Normal School yesterday.

Burdick & Smith have named their store the "Parlor Grocery." Read their ad.

G. B. Proper is having his barn torn down, and will replace it with a new one.

Mrs. Johnson, of Westfield, Mass., is at the home of her father, George M. Baker.

At the M. E. church, April 17th, warm sugar, warm biscuit, hot pancakes, supper at 6 p. m. 15c.

Dr Stillman is recovering from his recent attack of pleurisy, and yesterday was able to spend a short time at his store.

A number of Andover people went to Hornellsville last Saturday evening to see Chauncy Olcott, in "The Irish Artist."

The bicycle market bids fair to be good this season, and the number of new wheels bought in Andover will doubtless be larger than in any previous year.

Mrs. Ina J. Hendryx, of Buffalo, and Floyd E. Baker, of New York, who have been here during the illness of their father, G. M. Baker, returned home last week.

Died, in Amity, N. Y., March 30th, 1885, Edie, youngest daughter of Willis and Carrie M. McOmber, and granddaughter of John Lusk, aged 2 years and 17 days.

One of J. Clarke's hens laid a big asst egg. It measures 6x8 1/4 inches circumference, and weighs one-quarter of a pound. The egg is on exhibition at the Wilcox-bargain-store.

P. C. Lynch has sold his fast pacer, Andy L., to western parties for $1,500. His horse developed remarkable speed while owned by Mr. Lynch, and will be heard from when the racing season opens.

An Easter social and supper will be given by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church, at the home of Mrs. L. Cunningham, Monday evening, April 15. Supper from 6 to 8 o'clock, and a good time every minute. Every body is invited.

The Whitesville News appeared last week, and is a well gotten up, newsy sheet. It is published by Fortner & O'Leary, and we are pleased to note their good judgment in the selection of a name for the new paper. We wish the new enterprise success.

Rev. E. H. Lattimer, Presiding Elder, will conduct Easter services at the M. E. church, next Sunday morning, in a manner appropriate for the occasion. In the evening an Easter song service will be presented by the Sunday school. Every one is invited to be present at both morning and evening services.

Alderman Wm. Rogers, who pulls the throttle on the pusher engine No. 222, had a narrow escape from instant death Friday morning. While running at a good rate of speed between Andover and Tip Top the side rod on his engine broke, stripping her and making a week of engine No. 232. Luckily the short end of the rod that was slipping up through the bottom of the cab, otherwise genial "Billy" never have been able to tell how he escaped.

The disabled engine was hauled to the Hornellsville shops for repairs.

L. C. Van Fleet left for Rochester this morning, where he will argue the appeal in the case Dr. F. E. Comstock against Benjamin Green, which is on the calendar of the General Term of Supreme Court. The case will probably be reached tomorrow.

Ross & Snyder, proprietors of the People's Cash Clothing Store, are giving employment to three assistants in the tailoring department, and have been trying to get more help. This indicates a large business. This firm is making a special drive on hats this week.

Mrs. H. A. Benedict has purchased L. C. Van Fleet's new house on the hill east of this village. Possession will be given at once, and Mr. and Mrs. Benedict will soon occupy the place. We expect to see several new houses built and occupied on Van Fleet's hill before another year rolls around.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Robbins have removed to this place from South Lancaster, Mass., and have taken possession of the premises purchased by them of A. M. Burrows on Church street, north of Elm. Mrs. Robbins formerly lived in Andover, and will be remembered as Miss Emma Bozard, daughter of Wm. Bozard.

Our readers are referred to the advertisement of James Joyce, who is agent for the celebrated Deering Mowers and other farm machinery. The Deering mowers, reapers and rakes seem to command a place in the front rank of this class of machinery, and Mr. Joyce is prepared for a large business in selling the machines.

The arrangements are about completed for the C. M. B. A. reception, which will occur next Wednesday evening, April 17. The celebrated Hickey-Merriman orchestra, of Hornellsville, will furnish the music. The supper will be served by the ladies of the Blessed Sacrament Church, and everything indicates a most enjoyable evening.

The seventh annual meeting of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of Western New York will be held at Hornellsville on Wednesday and Thursday, April 24th and 25th. Plans are being made for an especially interesting session and the meetings will be among the most important to be held by the Baptists in Western New York this year.

The War Song Concert, given last Saturday evening by members of the Baptist church and Sunday school, was one of the best home talent entertainments held here in a long time. It was a pleasure to listen to the old war songs especially from the fact that they were well rendered by singers of much ability. All of the songs, choruses and solos were well rendered and proved highly entertaining. The solo by Miss Minnie Clair was especially fine. Leslie Hann, son of E. L. Hann, brought down the house by singing "The Kingdom Coming." The drills by the young folks came in for a large share of praise, and the participants received well merited applause. The good night drill by the little tots, was pronounced the best thing of the kind ever seen here. Previous to the concert a supper was served by the gentlemen, and they carried out their part of the program to perfection. The total receipts were about forty dollars.

Some Changes in Residence.

Quite a large number of families have changed their residence this spring, among whom are the following:

J. C. Ross, moved from the Hunt residence on Main street to the Hunt brick residence on Church street.

T. H. Ross, from Mrs. N. Clair's house on Dyke street to O. P. Crandall's house on same street.

O. P. Crandall resides with his daughter, Mrs. Marsh Bundy, on Elm street.

E. R. Carpenter, from J. A. Robinson's house on Dyke street to Mrs. N. Clair's house on same street.

Geo. Matteson, from Mrs. W. Lanphear's house on Greenwood street to J. A. Robinson's house on Dyke street.

Eli Baker, from Mrs. Atkins' house on Greenwood street to J. A. Robinson's house on Chestnut street.

A. I. Ray, from J. A. Robinson's house on Chestnut street to Mrs. Atkins' house on Greenwood street.

Brian Doran, from R. O'Boyle's house on Greenwood street to Mrs. Lanphear's house on same street.

S. M. Austin, from this village to his farm west of town.

B. A. Hammond, from the John Beebe house on Dyke street to his new purchased property on the corner of Main and Dyke streets.

Mrs. Everett still continues her millinery business on Greenwood street. Look for ad. next week.

Those wishing board and washing with individual rooms call on Mrs. Magie Walker.

Mrs. Mosher has secured the services of Miss Fannie Esworth, of Salamanca. She is a good milliner of much experience.

THE OLD ADAGE

USED TO BE:

"Don't Borrow Trouble."

And this leads us to remark, when we reflect on some things that are taking place around us, that a newer adaptation of the old saying would be,

Don't BURROW Trouble.

The secret of our success in Andover is already apparent. It is, as we remarked before,

Best Goods,

Lowest Prices.

The Record of the Past Ten Days Has Been
One to be Proud of.

Not a Customer Turned Away!

They all found just what they wanted--and why?
Our Answer is,

Because We had the Goods and We had the Prices

To be more explicit: We have a full line, all sizes, of men's, boys' and children's Clothing. No shoddy stuff--but good, durable, lasting cloth, made up well, and made to stand wear.

We've Got Some Bargains, Too!

Think of SOCKS AT 5 CENTS A PAIR. You can't get them elsewhere for three times the money.

SHIRTS AT 48 CENTS

You can't buy elsewhere for $1.00.

Remember, we have two big stores and get

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES

We pride ourselves on being able to buy Clothing cheap, and on our ability to SELL CHEAP.

We have got the trade already, and are not envious if our neighbor gets the few crumbs from our table he makes so much ado about.
