Mrs. W. L. Nichols has returned from a visit among friends in Andover and Alfred. — Bolivar Breeze.

Mrs. E. W. Chappel has been quite ill for several days past, but at present writing she is slightly improved.

Rexville Tent, No. 354, K. O. T. M., will hold a dance at Maccabee Hall, Rexville, Friday evening, May 10.

Mrs. Maggie Walker has moved from Mrs. Lanphear's house on Main street to the rooms over Ross & Snyder's store, N. Clair's building.

Last week's Friendship Register was edited by the members of the W. C. T. U. of that place. They have reason to be proud of their work.

Mrs. S. A. Morris, who has been spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. H. S. Smith, returned to her home in Hornellsville Tuesday.

G. H. Craiddall, agent for the Standard Dictionary, informs the News that the Dictionary will be delivered to Andover subscribers next week.

Ray & Peterson have dissolved partnership, and A. I. Ray goes into the barber shop over Trainer's restaurant. The new arrangement takes effect today.

Andover friends of Miss Lella May Reed of Friendship have received announcement of her marriage to Fred H. Mason, of New York, April 22. The newly married couple will reside at Friendship.

At the special school meeting held Monday evening, to vote upon the question of purchasing the Davis property as an addition to the school ground, the proposition was defeated by a vote of 111 against to 56 for.

J. A. Robinson is in very poor health. On Monday he went to Hornellsville to consult the physicians at the sanitarium. He will remain there and take treatment. It is hoped that Mr. Robinson may be speedily restored to health.

The Canaseraga Times appeared last week printed on a new press, from new type. We are glad to know that Brother Miller has reestablished himself so quickly after his recent loss by fire.

Edward Donnelly and wife, of New York, arrived in town last evening, and will remain a couple of weeks or more, visiting the family of his father, and other friends. Mr. Donnelly has been out of health for a number of weeks, and will try to renew his strength by breathing the fresh Allegany air.

Last Sunday several local bicyclists mounted their wheels and rode to various points, some going to Belmont, some to Hornellsville, and three went to Portage, by the way of Belfast and Hume. The last mentioned trio didn't arrive home in time for supper, nor yet in time for breakfast the next morning, and we understand some of them were a few minutes late for dinner.

A message was received yesterday by the family of Hubert Padden of this place, announcing the death of Mr. Padden's son John, at Willow Springs, Ill., which occurred yesterday morning. The deceased was 27 years of age. He left home three years ago, since which time nothing has been heard from him until the above mentioned telegram was received. The remains will be brought here for burial.

Surveyors have been at work during the past week, laying out lots and making plans for a new street, across the so-called Baker farm, now owned by Mrs. C. A. Dolson and children. It is proposed to run the new street from the point of intersection of Center and First streets across the railroad tracks, and continue across the Baker land to a point near the intersection of Baker and Grove streets, near the residence of Charles Freeborn.

A number of Andover people attended the celebration of the 76th anniversary of the organization of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which was held at Canisteo last Friday. The town was full of people, and handsome decorations were seen on all sides. A parade was held, in which lodges and cantons from many Steuben county towns joined. A base ball game between Canisteo and Friendship nines was one of the features of the day, the nine from Allegany county being victorious.

The Supreme Court has appointed Lot Reznor of Arkport, Theodore Cobb of Spring Mills and Edward F. Willets of Hornellsville, commissioners to decide upon the matter of opening a new road through portions of the towns of Andover, Greenwood and Hartsville, which has been described in the News. The Commissioners will hold a meeting at an early day to hear arguments for and against the opening of the road, and will also inspect the route proposed for the same, after which they will render a decision which will be final.

Prof. B. B. Brown will not teach during the coming year. As has been stated in these columns before, he will be one of the instructors at the Silver Lake School of Physical Culture during the summer. When the season at the Lake is over, he will enter Yale college. Prof. Brown seems disposed to stop at nothing below the highest round of the ladder, in educational matters, and his legion of friends in Andover will wish him abundant success. The Board of Education of Andover Union School has engaged Prof. Benjamin G. Estes, of Rochester, for principal of the school the coming year.

Andover is the place to buy wall paper. In no other village can such handsome patterns be found at such a reasonably low figure as at the stores in this place. Purchase some of it and get A. L. Jones to put it on and you will be decidedly "in it."

Pasture to let. Inquire at this office.

Any person wishing to use Milson fertilizer can procure the same of us. We will be in Andover village every Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

Three to five dollars saved on every ton you buy. QUINN BROS.

Latest New York styles at Mrs. Everett's, Greenwood street, at a low price. The person that took the hat and flower from my store without permission, April 27th, is requested to return the same immediately and save trouble, as it is known who took the same.

Mrs. E. C. MARTINDALE. Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his cane. He says the balmment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by L. A. Burrows.

Lost, in Baptist church, April 27, a silk handkerchief. Will the finder please return to Mrs. Levi Hann?

On account of the illness of J. A. Robinson, P. S. Place of Alfred, will assume charge of Mr. Robinson's undertaking business here, and will conduct the same until Mr. Robinson is sufficiently improved in health to resume the duties. All orders left with L. A. Burrows will receive prompt and careful attention.

Lost.

A golden opportunity, if you do not call and look over Slocum & Parker's stock of Millinery good before purchasing elsewhere. Everything new, and goods received weekly. Finest stock ever in Andover. Remember the place, first door south of J. A. Hunt's store.
