Eight members of Seaman Post, G. A. R., and the Woman's Relief Corps visited the Whitesville Post and Corps last Saturday evening. They report a pleasant time.

Cheese is bringing a very low price so far this season, it being quoted at 6 1/2c in New York the first of this week. The large quantity of old cheese in stock is said to be responsible for the low price.

Last Saturday during the storm lightning struck the barn owned by P. A. Deane, who lives about two and one-half miles south-west of this village. One of his horses, a valuable animal, was killed. The fire was quenched before much damage was done.

The hot weather took sudden leave last Saturday, and we experienced what might properly be called a "cold wave." Monday morning ice was found in many places about one-fourth of an inch thick, and considerable damage was done to fruit and other crops.

The village assessors have completed the tax roll for the present year, and the same may be seen at the store of H. Mourhess until May 25, on which date the assessors will meet at Prest's opera house to hear the complaints of those considering themselves aggrieved.

There is a fakir traveling through the country painting advertisements on buildings. He pays a small consideration to the owners if they agree to allow no one to paint a sign over his, and takes a receipt therefor, which ultimately turns up as the proverbial promissory notes. Beware of him.

Mrs. Ann Green, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Probasco, celebrated her 85th birthday last Thursday. A few relatives and friends were present, among whom were J. K. Reading and wife of Alfred Station, D. A. Smith and wife of Hornellsville, J. P. Remington and Miss Nina Stebbins of Independence.

The postoffice at Alfred Station was recently changed to Keller by the government, to take effect July 1st. The citizens being dissatisfied, called a meeting, and decided to change it to "Shale" or "Sheol."—Alfred Sun. Why, John Mosher, you mean thing! But we notice you have to go there to get into the outside world.

At Van Fleet & Phillips' law office last Saturday, Deputy Sheriff C. J. O'Donnell sold about 35 acres of land belonging to the estate of the late Ruel Hamilton of Independence. The land was bought by Theodore Cobb of Spring Mills for $905. Mr. Cobb sold it the same day to Louis S. Bassett of Independence for $1,000.

Mrs. A. C. Frisbey left Sunday evening for Pawamo, Mich., being called there by the serious illness of her brother, Capt. A. W. Sherwood. Capt. Sherwood is quite well known in Andover, and everybody here will hear of his illness with sincere regret. The nature of his illness is such that no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Last Saturday Mrs. E. W. Chappel sustained a stroke of paralysis, and has been in a critical condition ever since. A few weeks ago she sustained a similar stroke, although much lighter in degree. Mrs. Chappel has been nearly or quite speechless, although a slight improvement in this respect has been noticeable since Monday.
