THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Office up stairs in Prest's new Brick Block, Main Street.

"The Woven Web" tomorrow night.

H. F. Wilcox was in Cuba last Thursday.

Mayor Grant Duke, of Wellsville, was in town Monday.

D. A. Yentzer of Roulette, Pa., is in town.

Fred Smith returned on Sunday from Van Buren, Ohio.

C. M. Wood and daughter Maggie went to Wellsville Monday.

Mrs. Ella Bundy and Mrs. E. J. Laughlen drove to Hornellsville to-day.

Archie and Myrtle King, of Riverdale, Wellsville, were in town Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Parker of Spring Hill visited the family of C. M. Wood Saturday.

Mr. V. Jackson of Olean has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. F. Stearns, during the past week.

Mrs. Nellie Martindale has returned to this place, and we understand she will hereafter reside here.

Mattie B. Langworthy, of Lansing, Valley returned to her professional duties at Erie County Hospital, Monday, last week.

Johnson's orchestra will furnish music for "The Woven Web" Thursday evening. Don't fail to go and hear the fine and see the great drama.

History repeats itself each year. And the "blasted fruit crop" story is heard as spring-time draweth near—King frost is in his glory.

The grapes are ruined, peaches too. And frost's an apple eater; We read the tale and think it's true. But retraction follows later.

"The Woven Web," May 30th. Secure seats at L. A. Burrows' drug store. S. S. Latta, who was recently taken insane, and who was removed to Friendship, is not improved, and his condition is quite serious.

Commencement exercises of Andover Union School and Academy will be held June 20. The graduating class will be composed of seven members.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Travis are home from Washington for the summer, provided an extra session of Congress doesn't change the Captain's plans.

Mrs. S. J. Freeborn, of Wellsville, and Mrs. O. H. Palmer, of Salamanca, were called here last week on account of the death of their aunt, Mrs. Fulmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Prest, who have been spending a short time at the home of Mrs. Prest's parents in Hartsville, have returned to their home in this village.

Rev. G. M. Janes will exchange pulpits next Sabbath with Rev. F. H. Bisee of Almond, who will preach both in the morning and at the union service in the evening.

Mrs. G. B. Proper, Mrs. H. A. Benedict, Henry Phillips and Colin McCarn were delegates from this place to the Christian Endeavor convention held at Alfred Station last week.

The News office is issuing two papers now instead of one, The Angelica Every Week is being temporarily printed here on account of the fire last week, which destroyed the entire outfit of that office.

Mrs. S. S. Latta is prepared to do dressmaking at her residence in J. A. Robinson's house on Dyke street. She solicits a share of patronage, and all favors in this line will be thankfully received.

Mrs. Edward J. Laughlen, of Blunt, South Dakota, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Crandall, is visiting her parents and sister, Mrs. Ella Bundy. She may remain during the greater part of the summer.

Mrs. O. Rosebush sustained a stroke of paralysis on Monday, which affected one side of her body and rendered her helpless. She is somewhat improved this morning, and is apparently gaining a little each day.

Tickets for "The Woven Web," which are on sale at L. A. Burrows' drug store, are going off rapidly. There are many good seats left, however, and everybody should make haste to secure a choice of those that are left.

Deputy Sheriff Nobles of Wellsville was in town Thursday evening looking for a chap who had passed counterfeit money in Wellsville that day. The fellow evidently passed this town without trying to pass any of his spurious coin on our citizens.

The acreage planted to potatoes in this vicinity is, it is said, unusually large this year. The prospects for the hay crop are not flattering, and potatoes, which usually find a ready market, are considered as profitable a crop as the farmers can raise.

Relatives in this place of Mrs. W. L. Sutton, of Hornellsville, have received news of an unfortunate accident which happened to that lady last Saturday, when she fell and fractured her hip. Mrs. Sutton is about 70 years of age, and the mishap is a serious one.

It is said that sheep running in a potato patch will keep the vines free from potato bugs and not hurt the potatoes. We have heard of a number of instances where this has proved true, and if there is no mistake in the assertion the farmer may kill two birds with one stone.

W. W. Miller went to Castile Saturday evening to pass Sunday with his wife, who is much improved, and who expects to return home about the first of June. Mr. Miller went from Castile to Buffalo, thence to Chicago and New Orleans, being call there on business connected with the timber lands.

The members of the committee appointed to secure relics for the museum at Wellsville June 25 and 27 are requested to leave a list of the articles they have secured at Mrs. Mourhouse's millinery store, on or before Friday of this week. Also, any persons who possess anything that will add to the collection, which they are willing to loan, are requested to report the same before that day, either to a member of the committee or at the store.

Sprinkling pots from 25c to 40c at the bargain store. Ice cream will be served in the room adjoining H. E. Miner's store, on Decoration day.

A. O. Donnell has been finding some big hen's eggs in his nests. He brought us three that weigh three fourths of a pound; one of them weighs 4 1/2 ounces and measures 3 1/2 x 1 1/2 inches in circumference. The smaller one of the three is a queer shaped egg, being very long and not very large around, measuring 8 x 5 1/2 inches.

Two houses and lots for sale on easy terms and for reasonable prices. Inquire of Crayton L. Earley.

Telegrams will reach P. S. Place, the undertaker of Alfred, who has charge of J. A. Robinson's undertaking business, at any hour of the day or night.

W. F. Snyder will hereafter superintend Uriah Davis' phosphate business. All persons applying to him at his residence immediately opposite the barn where it is stored will be supplied.

THE KELLEY SHOES

Have gotten to Andover and can be found only one place in town. That is our Shoe Department and we predict as great a sale for them in Andover as in New York and Chicago, when first introduced.

The Kelley Shoes from an artistic stand point, are surely the perfection of style and fine shoemaking.

If you are the owner of a homely foot you will not recognize that pair of feet when dressed up in Kelley's Shoes.

Don't buy a new pair of shoes until you have seen our new foot wear which is now ready.
