The New Orleans Picayune says: The feeling in Georgia is so strong against women's suffrage that the State convention of the W. C. T. U. adjourned without discussing the subeject, though it was on the pro-

Rev. Mr. Fairbanks, an American missionary in India, attributes a large part of his success to the use of a bicycle. Not only is he enabled to cover a more extensive territory with it, but the natural curiosity of the natives brings large crowds to see "a horse that needs neither grass nor grain."

Gypsies in France have hitherto managed to avoid being numbered and traced. They roam through the country in bands, and as long as they did no serious harm were let alone by the police. Now the gendarmes have orders to take a census of these nomads and to see that those who are not French are registered like other foreigners,

Every Paris school has its "canwhere free meals are given to the children who cannot pay, while those who are better off pay in part or in full, states the New Orieans Picayune. Each child brings his clean napkin, his little bottle of vin ordinaire, and sometimes fruit or a bit of cheese for dessert. The cooking is usually done by the janitor, and the meals are served at little tables in the play room. The cost of the portions, generally stews of meat and vegetables, is about two cents for each child.

To the thoughtful stranger within our gates, observes the New York , the exodus of Americans, indicated by the cabin lists of the great steamship companies, amounts almost to a depopulation of certain quarters of our city. He is tempted to figure a little on the subject. Over 3000 persons leave this city for foreign shores every week, and each goes with, say, $1000 to spend in having a good time. - He thinks this estimate within bounds. If so, the steamship companies and Europe get out of us every week $3,000,000. There is one thing certain. If you are worry ing about poverty and hard times just go down to the piers of the leading lines and look at the crowds going abroad. You will forget then that there was ever a thought of distress or depression. There is a story going around that a man may go to Europe, remain two weeks in London and Paris, and return safe and sound for $260. It may be possible, but precious few get off under $1000, if they see anything of life in the Old World.

The New York Tribune announces that New Jersey has successfully pointed the way in the matter of road betterment, and the work is to be carried much further immediately. Hudson and Bergen Counties have done considerable. Union County has done more. Camden and Burlington have shown a like commendable spirit. Now Morris County is giving an earnest of its purpose to keep up other progressive counties. About 100 miles of road in that county are to be improved this season, and it is estimated that 2000 men will be kept at work for several months. Not only are these roads to be macadamized, but the grades are to be improved, a four per cent. grade (that is, a rise of not more than four seet in 100 feet) having been adopted. Much heavier loads can thus be carried by the farmers and all others engaged in transportation, while for pleasure driving and bicycling Morris County bids fair to become a paradise. The entire work is under competent engineering direction. Morris County just now is furnishing a valuable obct-lesson to all who are interested in road reform

Another Graphic Account of the Disaster.

Harrowing Tales of Misery Told by Third Officer Hansen, Who Escaped on the Deck House-Lifeboats and Rafts Seen and Many Nude Bodies Floated by Him.

San Francisco, June 3.—Capt. H. L. Read, the well-known marine surveyor of this city, in a dispatch from Mazatian gives some additional particulars of the Collina wreck obtained from Third Officer Hansen, who escaped on the decknows, and A. J. Sutherland, who clung to the seats of an overturned lifeboat.

to the seats of an overturned lifeboat.

The Heaviest Squall of All.

The heaviest squall of all those exexperienced came after the steamer had foundered and while passengers and crew were struggling in the water. The force of the gale at this time was dreadful. Many were washed from the wreckage to which they clung. Some were killed or rendered unconscious by being struck by timbers, which were dashed about with resistless fury. Rafts and boats were overturned. Had it not been for this squall many more undoubtedly would have been saved.

Saw Several Rafts and Boats.

Saw Several Rafts and Boats.

Saw Several Rafts and Boats.

The gale drove rafts and wreckage before it with great rapidity. Mr. Hansen saw a raft pass at 6:30 p.m. on the day of the disaster. On it were three men. He also saw a raft on which were Mr. Childberg and six others. These men had two oars and seemed to be making for shore. Mr. Hansen also saw a boat in which was F.rst Officer Griffiths and four or five men. When last seen this boat was trying to pick up the purser, but it was not seen again and is supposed to have been swamped by the heavy sea.

The Survivors Badly Bruised.

The Survivors Badly Bruised.

Every one of the survivors except Sütherland is badly bruised by being struck by the wreckage. He was protected by being under the lifeboat after it had overturned five times with him.
He says he saw two laddes alive and then saw them drown without being able to render them any aid. Sutherland and Hansen say the wind would eatch up planks and lumber from the deck load, hurl them in the air with furious force and dash them down
upon those in the water.

The Captain Washed into the Sea.

The Captain Washed into the Sea,

The Captain Washed into the Sea.

It is reported that just as the steamer went down Cap. Taylor was washed from the bridge into the sea, and that there he was struck by a piece of wreckage and killed or stunned so that he was unable to make further effort to save himself. He had attempted to heave-to under the slow bell, but could not get the vessel's head up to sea. Then he tried going ahead at full speed two or three times, but the wind threw her off and she fell into the trough of the sea.

the sea.

Harrowing Tales of Miscry.

Sutherland and Hansen both tell harrowing tales of the misery they witnessed while keeping themselves affoat. Many of the bodies which floated past them were entirely nude, either the clothing had been torn off by the fury of the wind and waves or the victims had been too ill or too terrified to leave their beds until the last, and had then rushed upon deck clad only in their chamber robes. Apparently the children were all drowned in the cabins. Had $160,000 of Treasure Aboard.

In the cabins.

Had $160,000 of Treasure Aboard.

It was the 19th trip of the Colima.

She had on board $160,000 of treasure, shipped to Mazatlan from the house of Meichers, Echegueven & Co. It is insured in London and Germany. Until the depth of water in which the steamer went down was positively known two diving plants and two steamers belonging to Hidalgo & Co., and the Cornego company, of La Paz, were kept waiting to attempt the recovery of this treasure.

200 Souls on Board.

According to the passenger list when the steamer left Masatlan there were 37 cabin and $4$ steerage passengers from San Francisco, 5 from Mazatlan and a crew of $6, making a total of 206 souls on board. Other passengers may have been taken on at San Blas and Manzaniho and some may have left the steamer, so the exact number on the ship when she foundered is not known here.

Galesburg, Ind., June 3.—The convention of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen have adopted the system of the state legislative board to look after legislation friendly to railroad labor in the several states. The grand master and first vice-grand master were given greater authority regarding the disposition of funds. The convention indozsed the policy of the grand officers during last year, by which strikes were avoided and the men lived up to their contracts with the railroad companies. It adopted the Cedar Rapids plan of federation combining the brotherhoods of engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and telegraph operators. The salaries of grand officers were reduced. Election of officers will probably take place to-morrow.

Fifteen Persons Injured in a Trolley Car Accident at Syracuse.

Car Accident at Syracuse.

Syracuse, N. Y., June 3.—A trolley car full of pleasure seekers, on their way to Onondaga Lake, jumped the track and rolled down an embankment yesterday morning. Out of twenty passengers only five escaped without injury. The car was going at a high rate of speed, and in going down the embankment tore loose from the trucks and rolled completely over, landing on its roof in a puddle of water two feet deep. That no one was killed is nothing short of .miracious. A brôken collar-bone, a broken leg, a broken arm, internal injuries, cuts and abrasions were sustained by about fifteen passengers. Two boys, who were riding on the side platforms, were thrown insensible into the shallow water, but were rescued by a policeman.

Against Her Husband.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 3.—Mrs. Annie Longreon. died at the Long Islandhospital, last night, from burnskirereceived from some cause still unknown, on last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Longreon was found in bed badly burned, and when questioned by the police said that her husband had thrown a lighted lamp at her, but, when the coroner took her ante-mortem statement, she denied her husband threw the lamp and said she did not know how she got her injuries. Her daughter found her in bed and notified the neighbors. The husband was arrested and is in jail, charged with having caused his wife's death.

St. John's N. F., June 3.—Colonial Secretary Bond's success in negotiating a loan has set afoot a scheme to run him for the premiership to replace Sir Wiliam Whitway, who is now old and regarded as being behind the times. Mr.
Bond leads the radical element of the Whitaway party, which outnumbers the others considerably. The movement is being pushed vigorously. Sir William Whiteway will be given a supremecourt judgeship, if a vacancy occurs.
If not, he will be relegated to a seat in the—legislative council. It is believed that two thirds of the Whiteway party will support Mr. Bond.

He was born in 1798, and was called to the bar at Gray's inn in 1827, afterwards becoming a member of Lincoln's inn, of which he remained a bencher until his death. He obtained a silk gown in 1846, and in 1868 he was appointed commissioner of bankruptcy for the London district, which office he held until the end of 1869, when he was appointed chief judge in bankruptcy. In August, 1870,
he succeeded to the vice-chancellorship vacated by Sir William M. James, and in 1875 was made a judge of the chancery division of her majesty's high court of justice. He continued in active work up to November, 1886, when he resigned
the vice-chancellorship. As a judge, his sayings were often memorable and his judgments were seldom reversed. He was appointed a member of the privy council upon his retirement.

Important Decisions Expected at the Close of the U. S. Supreme Court.

Washington, June 3.—The supreme court of the United States willy adjourn the term—of 1804 to-day. Dristons in about a dozen or lifteen cases, some of them of importance and general interest, are expected, which will clean up the work of the court for the year. It is stated, with some positiveness at this time, that the somewhat celebrated "foreign judgment case," entitled Charles Guyot, liquidateur of Charles Consons of A. T. Stewart & Co., will be camong those in which the opinion of the court will be announced. This case, as has been often stated, involves the questions whether or not the judgment of a foreign court against an American citizen or firm can be enforced by judicial proceedings in this country, and, if so, under what conditions. There are numerous decisions by lower courts upon the subject, which are about equally divided, and this is the first time the question has ever been presented to the supreme court for determination. The case of the Singer Manufacturing company, in which the right to the use of the word "Singer" as a trade mark is involved, will also be decided to day.
