James Owen was in Buffalo a few days during the past week.

"The invisible four" of Wellsville took in the "Woven Web" last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown has removed to Friendship, where she will remain for the present.

Ed. Bradley, of Hammondsport, who has been visiting friends in town, returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Travis were in Rochester and Buffalo a few days recently. They returned Monday evening.

Mrs. W. D. Hood and her daughter, Mrs. S. B. Knight, of St. Louis, Mo., visited Mrs. O. P. Crandall and Mrs. Ella Bundy the latter part of last week.

Benjamin C. Estes of Rochester, who will be the principal of Andover Union School and Academy next year, was in town a couple of days the first of this week.

G. B. Proper, Worshipful Master of Andover Lodge No. 508, F. & A. M., went to New York Monday evening, where he will attend the annual convention of the Grand Lodge of the State of New York.

L. D. Scribner, of Greenwood was in town Monday.

A new serial story is begun in the News to-day. Don't fail to read the opening chapters.

The Allegany Baptist Association is in session in this village. The meetings will continue till Friday noon.

Peter Rogers of Trumansburg, N. Y., is in town, being called here by the death of his brother-in-law, A. J. Rogers.

The Excelsior Band boys have received their new uniforms. They have reason to feel proud, both of their suits and music.

T. McTighe is again a resident of Andover, having moved here from Hornellsville. He occupies his newly purchased property on Hill street.

Children's day will be observed at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, with an appropriate program. All are invited.

Are you getting ready for the centennial celebration at Wellsville June 26 and 27? We publish the official program this week.

The ninth annual meeting of the Allegany County ex-Prisoners of War Association will be held at Friendship, N. Y., Wednesday, June 19, 1895.

The road commissioners held a meeting here yesterday, which was largely attended. This was the final meeting, and they will render their decision on or before June 12.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Helen Hincer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hincer of this place, and Edward Freeland of Wellsville. The date named is June 12.

Master Victor Stearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stearns, celebrated his fifth birthday last Saturday by inviting a number of his friends to spend the afternoon with him. The little folks had a merry time.

Grant W. Brush, of Buffalo was in town Monday. Mr. Brush is connected with Prof. B. B. Brown of this place in the management of the School of Physical Training which will be held at Silver Lake this summer.

The three barber shops in this place were closed last Sunday and we understand they will hereafter remain closed on Sundays, in conformity to the new law. If a man wants a shave on Sunday he will have to get it Saturday night.

Fire has done a large amount of damage during the past few days on South Hill. Timber lands owned by C. M. Wood and Messrs. Adams, Church and the Sullivan estate have been burned over with much loss to standing timber, fences, etc.

Memorial day observance was a success in this place, as it always is. The services were carried out according to program, and there was a large attendance. The address by Rev. D. A. Blöse of Belmont was a forcible and eloquent one, and Seaman Post, G. A. R., made no mistake when it invited him to speak.

The Columbian Society will hold a banquet in the parlors of the M. E. church on the evening of June 17. This society proposes not to be left in the round of enjoyment at this time of year and will provide a most excellent feast for its members and guests. A toast list is being prepared, and it is safe to say the literary part of the program will be full of pleasure and profit. The ladies of the M. E. church will provide the supper, which is sure to be all that could be desired.

Died, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Truman G. Burdick, in Lemphear Valley, Alfred, June 1st, 1895, Umberto J. Collins, in the 41st year of his age. He had been for a long time an invalid and a great sufferer. He leaves a child, the adopted son of Eli S. Turner, a father, four brothers and two sisters, Mrs. S. M. Austin of this town, being one of the latter. Funeral services were held at the house on Monday afternoon, Rev. B. C. Davis, of Alfred officiating.

The drama, "The Woven Web," which was produced last Thursday evening at Prest's opera house, under the auspices of the Andover Alumni Association, was most excellently presented, and those who took part have received well merited praise from all who attended. The play is one of the best that has been given in Andover, and the persons selected to take the various characters carried out their respective parts with much ability. Cannon's orchestra made fine music, and the entertainment was heartily enjoyed by a large audience. The receipts were about $65, which will make a considerable sum after paying expenses.

The annual school catalogue is in press at the News office. The book will contain several pages of advertisements, and those wanting space should make arrangements at once with the Board of Education.

THE KELLEY SHOES

Have gotten to Andover and can be found only one place in town. That is our Shoe Department and we predict as great a sale for them in Andover as in New York and Chicago, when first introduced.

The Kelley Shoes from an artistic standpoint, are surely the perfection of style and fine shoemaking.

If you are the owner of a homely foot you will not recognize that pair of feet when dressed up in Kelley's Shoes. Don't buy a new pair of shoes until you have seen our new foot wear which is now ready.
