The celebrated Hornellsville orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the Alumni banquet. The supper will be served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, and all will be merry as a whole chime of marriage bells.

Mrs. A. C. Frisbey returned last Thursday from Pewamo, Mich., where she has been for a few weeks in consequence of the serious illness of her brother, Capt. A. W. Sherwood. When Mrs. Frisbey left for home the patient appeared comparatively comfortable, and his physicians thought there was a possibility that he might live a number of weeks, although his death at any time would not be wholly unexpected.

Hon. Milo M. Acker, of Hornellsville, a graduate of Andover Union school and a member of the Alumni Association, will be present at the banquet to be given next week Wednesday evening at Prest's opera house, and will respond to the toast, "The State of New York." Aside from the pleasure of attending the banquet as it has been upon past occasions, additional interest will be felt this year in the prospect of seeing and hearing so able and popular a gentleman as Mr. Acker.

We are requested to state that the Board of Education is desirous of giving every business man or woman an opportunity to advertise in the annual Catalogue of the school, which is now in press. If any have been skipped by the soliciting committee the omission was unintentional, and there is a desire to have everybody represented upon the advertising pages. If you have not already placed your order for an ad, the matter can be arranged by interviewing any member of the school board. It should be done this week without fail.

The persons who have agreed to furnish relics for the Historical Museum at Wellsville are requested to deliver the same at Mrs. Mourhess' millinery store on or before Thursday of next week, June 20. Each article should be labeled with the name of the owner, also a description of the article, in case it has historic value. Any person who has any article not already listed, which would be of interest in the Museum, is requested to bring that also, and it will be thankfully received. All articles will be properly cared for and returned to the owners in due time.

Mrs. M. L. Rumpff, publisher of Every Week, at Angelica, was in the city last week and purchased a new outfit of printing material to replace that which was burned a few weeks ago. She had no trouble in settling with the insurance adjusters at the full amount of her insurance, as her loss was a total one. Last week the paper contained an article reviewing her ten years of work in publishing and printing Every Week, and she made a strong argument showing why the people of Angelica should in the future give her a still more liberal support than they have done in the past, although as a matter of fact she has enjoyed a good patronage all the time. She lost in the fire just about the amount of her profits for the time she has published the paper, and will now have to begin over again. Her paper has been printed at the NEWS office since the fire occurred, and will continue to be until her new material shall be put in shape. Workmen from her office have been here, and Mrs. Rumpff has paid out more during some weeks for express and telephone charges and postage than some offices pay weekly for hired help, if the paper has proved to be as profitably named, and appreciated as it is. It is hoped that that place should not be so far from their appreciation of her work, that they will be able to do so, and otherwise obtained.

On Thursday of this week a group meeting of the State Banker's Association, will be held in this city. Representatives are expected from most of the banks of Tioga, Tompkins, Broome, Chemung, Schuyler, Steuben and Allegany counties, which comprise this group. The officials of the First National and Citizens' National banks will entertain the visiting brethren with a banquet at the Fassett House and a drive about our beautiful village.—Wellsville Reporter.

The Kelley Shoes from an artistic standpoint, are surely the perfection of style and fine shoemaking.

If you are the owner of a homely foot you will not recognize that pair of feet when dressed up in Kelley's Shoes.

Don't buy a new pair of shoes until you have seen our new foot wear which is now ready.
