The summer millinery season is drawing to a close, and we are making a positive sacrifice on many goods in that department rather than carry them over.

$2.25 trimmed hats reduced to $1.85
2.95 trimmed hats reduced to 2.15
3.50 trimmed hats reduced to 2.85
5.00 trimmed hats reduced to 3.95

Hats for morning wear, for garden, lake, country, $1.00 and upwards. Black flats 19 cents, fancy flats 25 cents.

Fine white leghorns 95 cts and $1.18.

A few summer capes and jackets at closing prices.

Our buyer is in New York this week taking advantage of the mid-summer clearing sales of the great dry goods houses.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.
Office up stairs in Prest's new Brick Block, Main Street.

The Almond Chronicle has ceased to exist.

Mrs. A. B. Richardson was in Wellsville Monday.

W. W. Miller returned from the south the latter part of last week.

Miss Mary Robbins of Pueblo, Col., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. B. Herlick.

Mr and Mrs. David Slocum and little son Earl visited friends in Almond last week.

Jessie and Evalina Slocum went to Ceres Monday, where they will remain through vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Van Noy attended the funeral of a relative at Black Creek on Monday.

Miss Jennie Shourds of Friendship, has been visiting friends in town during the past week.

The frame is up for R. A. Pease's new house on the corner of Greenwood street and East Avenue.

Fishermen at the pond have been numerous since the recent rains, and many good catches have been made.

Mrs. John Diffin and Miss Jennie Comstock attended the Commencement exercises of the Bolivar Union School last week.

Michael Hickey, Jr., the Hornellsville clarinetist, whose delightful music has been heard many times in this place, has secured an engagement for the summer at Asbury Park, N. J.

A. A. Woods and C. Lester of Richburg are in town today.

A. J. Corwin of Decatur, Mich., is visiting relatives and friends in town.

Mrs. Edward Adams and son, Master Cassar, of Cuba, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wilcox.

Miss Louise Strang of Geneseo, has been visiting the family of J. C. Bassett for a few days past.

Henry Parshall of Oakley, Mich., and Hiram Parshall of Springwater, N. Y., are visiting relatives and friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Durand and little daughter, of Moscow, N. Y., are visiting Mr. Durand's mother, Mrs. J. L. Cunningham, and their numerous other friends in town.

David Davenport is building a new house on a lot purchased of G. M. Barney on Barney street. Mr. Davenport is a new comer, having formerly lived in the town of Willing.

Andover was well represented at Wellsville today, but it is expected that tomorrow this town will be practically deserted, as the people will turn out en masse to attend the great celebration.

J. H. Elwell of Chippewa Falls, Wis., is visiting relatives and friends in town. He formerly resided here and is acquainted with many of the older residents. Mr. Elwell is a brother of Mrs. J. M. Goodwin.

Miss Louisa Cochrane went to Brockport last Saturday. Her sister, Florence, graduated this week from Brockport Normal School, and the two young ladies will spend a couple of weeks visiting in Rochester.

Jesse Snyder is having water pipes laid to his farm house. It is an expensive job, the cost being over $100, but it is expected the convenience to those living on the place will be in proportion to the cost.

Last week Thursday and Friday came the rain that made the farmer's heart glad. It came too late, perhaps, to be of material benefit to meadows, but the good done to pastures, grain and other crops was incalculable.

D. A. Daniels of Friendship has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master of F. & A. M. for the 23d district, comprising the counties of Allegany and Steuben, for the ensuing year. This is a high honor worthily bestowed.

Mrs. J. S. Smith of Allegany, N. Y., was the guest of Mrs. D. J. Comstock a few days last week. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. Wright, the latter remaining for treatment under the care of Dr. F. E. Comstock.

The Excelsior Cornet Band of this place have made an engagement to furnish the music at Jasper on the fourth of July. There will be a big celebration in that town, and our band boys will do their share in providing entertainment for the crowd.

The Krusen family will hold a reunion in this village on the last Tuesday in August. There are many members of this family in this town, Greenwood and other places in this vicinity, and there will doubtless be a large attendance at the reunion.

All the business places in this place will be closed tomorrow (Thursday), to give the proprietors and clerks an opportunity to attend the great celebration at Wellsville. The stores will not be opened after 8:30 tomorrow morning until Friday morning.

Miss Alice C. Whitney returned to her home in Mt. Morris the first of this week. Miss Whitney will not teach in Andover the coming year, as has been announced. She has been released from her engagement by the Board of Education, and will teach in Sherman, N. Y.

The Angelica Every Week is again printed "at home," and Mrs. Rumpff has her office in good running shape. Only four issues of the paper were printed outside her own office, and the amount of hustling necessary to re-establish an office in a month's time is no small matter.

A law passed by the last legislature bars residents of corporations from having anything to do with the election of highway commissioner, and the name of the highway commissioner will hereafter be printed on a separate ticket at the town election, and only those living outside the corporation limits can vote this ticket.

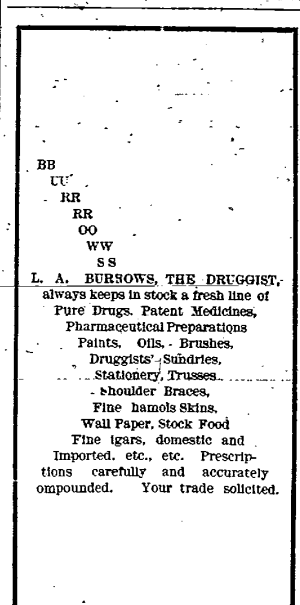

Last Tuesday James Guinn, who lives about four and one-half miles easterly from this village, was driving a team of colts down the hill near his residence, when the horses took fright and ran, throwing Mr. Guinn to the ground. He was severely cut and bruised about the head and face, and sustained several bruises upon different parts of the body. He has since been confined to the bed, but is improving nicely.

A party composed of F. M. Bissett, H. Moorhess, D. D. Remington, J. C. Cartwright, E. O. Wescott, J. A. Travis and County Clerk Geo. A. Green, spent a few days fishing in the wilds of Pennsylvania last week. They returned Friday evening, and report a heavy catch of fish and a rousing good time.

The Citizens' Hose Company of this place has accepted an invitation to attend the fourth of July celebration at Franklinville. The boys will be accompanied by the martial band of this place, and if both hose company and band don't "average up" with the rest of the crowd we'll miss our guess. It wouldn't take much urging for us to wager that our boys will command a position very near the head of the procession.

For Sale.

THE
SHOES

Have gotten to Andover and can be found only one place in town. That is our Shoe Department and we predict as great a sale for them in Andover as in New York and Chicago, when first introduced.

The Kelley Shoes from an artistic stand point, are surely the perfection of style and fine shoemaking.

If you are the owner of a homely foot you will not recognize that pair of feet when dressed up in Kelley's Shoes.

Don't buy a new pair of shoes until you have seen our new foot wear which is now ready.

BENTON AND STEPHENS.
Office and Lumber Yard near the Depot.

Don't Be Misled.

Quoting prices on goods is nothing but misleading, as you have no conception of the article unless you see it. There are, however, prices on certain articles which reveal to the naked eye, and only such prices we are going to quote you:

Men's mixed gray suits, worth $6.00, our price $3.90.

Men's all-wool black, blue or slate colors in fine unfinished worsted, worth $10.00, our price $6.50.

Men's all wool clay worsted suits in sacks or cutaway frock, worth $16.00, our price $9.50.

Anything else in our store sold at greatly reduced prices. Come and see and you will admit that there is no chance even for the most economical buyer to dispute our low prices. For good goods and low prices call at.
