Moss Lake, a small body of water of about 50 acres, situated between Canadea and Rushford, is becoming quite popular as a local resort. Picnic parties are there nearly every day.

A dispatch from Albany to the Wellsville Reporter on Monday says: "The New York & Pennsylvania railroad was incorporated today with a capital of $300,000 to run a steam road from Willing, Allegany county, through the towns of Independence, same county, West Union, Greenwood and Canisteo, Steuben county, and terminating at Hornellsville. The directors are Wm. and Theodore Cobb, Spring Mills; W. S. Chase, Whitesville; J. N. Peck, Coudersport, Pa.; W. H. Crittenden, Oswayo, Pa.; G. M. Webster, Greenwood; Wm. Schuman and B. M. Cornell, Hornellsville, and Wm. G. Porter, Canisteo.

The site of the new Erie station at this place was officially located Monday, by Supt. Gilpin of Hornellsville, and the work of filling in and preparing the land ready to receive the foundation for the same was begun Tuesday morning. The building will be erected on the north side of the main track, beginning a short distance from the Main street crossing. Mr. Costigan of Friendship, has charge of the work now being done, and a large gang of men are employed unloading the cars of dirt brought here from the gravel pit at Wellsville. It is estimated that at least 100 cars of dirt will be needed to make the site large enough for the building and groupings.—Cuba Patriot.

The shower that visited Wellsville Tuesday was only the short end of a terrific storm and cloud burst that poured down unlimited quantities of water further up the valley. On the O'Brien farm, Trapping Brook, great damage was done, and the Nye farm was injured by the terrible downpour. The Erie tracks at Dyke and this side were inundated and trains somewhat delayed. Immense quantities of soil came down Dyke's creek. The reported damage up the Trapping Brook road is large. The road is badly washed out, bridges gone and the stream full of wreckage. The damage to bridges, payable by the town of Wellsville, will be $200. Voorhees Hill also suffered seriously.—Wellsville Reporter.

At the Republican county convention to be held in this village August 9th, it is generally conceded that Hon. S. McArthur Norton will be renominated for County Judge and Surrogate without opposition. For the office of Member of Assembly there are two candidates—Hon. Fred A. Robbins, the present incumbent, and Grant Duke of Wellsville, although it is hinted that Mr. Duke will not be in the race to any great extent, but will set his pins for next year. If Mr. Robbins shall be renominated he will be the first man to receive a third term as Member of Assembly from this county in forty years. It may also be stated that he has done better work than any Assemblyman from this county has done within the time mentioned—so much better, in fact, that the people of this county would sadly neglect their own interests by not returning him again.

For the office of District Attorney there are two candidates prominently mentioned—Chas. H. Brown, the present official, and D. D. Dickson of Angelica, while several others are spoken of as being willing to take the office.

New Assessment Rates.

The Maccabees, at their last Supreme meeting adopted a new table of assessment rates which took effect July 1st, on all members joining after that date. By this act it is expected that the assessments will never reach over 13 each year. All old members are now sure of as cheap insurance as any society can furnish. It is also expected that every member who does not pay promptly by the last day of each month will be suspended.

Wellsville's New Catholic Church.
The new Catholic church at Wellsville will be a large Gothic structure, 144 feet by 90 in dimensions. There are to be two spires with respective elevations of 148 feet and 96 feet. Also two transepts 26 feet in width adorned with cathedral windows, 24 feet in height. The church promises to be one of the largest and handsomest pieces of architecture in the south-western part of the state. The material used is Warsaw blue stone and the cost will be about $30,000. The contractor is to have the building completed by early winter.

You Hit the Bulls-eye, Mr. "Gazette."
Leading citizens of Angelica have organized a company and propose to put in a water works system, which will be second to none in that county. And, by the way, though it may not be extensively known as yet, the village of Andover is claimed by her people to have the most perfect system of water works in the state, being supplied with several large springs of the purest water. The system employed involves no open reservoir for ducks and geese to swim in, but conducts the water direct to the users without exposure to the sun, delivering it pure and cold.—Elmira Gazette.

Whitesville to Have a Fair Again.
Until within a few years past Whitesville had a Fair Association, and very successful fairs were held each year. Finally the association had a run of hard luck and the fairs were discontinued. Last week Saturday a new organization was effected, and it is proposed to again hold a fair each year. The officers of the new association are as follows: President, Theodore Cobb, Spring Mills; Vice President, G. H. Chapin; Treasurer, A. L. Chase; Secretaries, N. S. Bartlett and A. C. Howe. The following are the names of some of the members of the association: Theodore and William Cobb, Spring Mills; Parker & Babcock, Hallsport; W. C. Hawks and W. B. Cutler, Genesee, Pa.; A. D. Howe, A. C. Howe, A. L. Chase, G. H. Chapin, Frank Bassett, R. S. Langdon, Willis Wilson, L. V. Jones, B. B. Edwards, D. M. Rollins, Whitesville, and J. B. Rumsay and W. W. Crittenden, Oswayo, Pa.

Cemetery Matters.

By a legal notice which appears in another column, it will be seen that the premises owned by the late William C. Lever are to be sold September 9th. The property to be sold includes the cemetery, which will be sold separately. It is to be regretted that a cemetery in this place is not owned or controlled by an association, in which case the same could be kept in proper condition and made to bear the appearance of a burial place for the dead instead of a neglected parcel of pasture land, grown up to underbrush and noxious weeds. As it has heretofore been, a large portion of this cemetery has been left to take care of itself until the above description is not materially overdrawn. A number of the lot owners have kept their lots in good order, but a lack of system and unity of action has rendered it almost impossible for those so inclined to do the matter justice. The fact that the premises are to be sold suggests the idea that it may be possible to bring about a change for the better. It may be that a more feasible plan would be to secure new territory, in a different location, or purchase the cemetery west of the village, and if necessary and possible make suitable addition thereto.

We believe the subject should command the attention of the people of this place, and that after a proper consideration a plan should be formulated and executed whereby a great improvement over previous conditions may result. The law provides the manner in which cemetery associations may be organized and conducted, and there is no reason why this village should not have within its limits a suitable resting place for the bodies of those who have lived, loved and labored here, as well as of those who shall hereafter cross the threshold of eternity.

The Erie is to establish a railroad postal line between New York and Chicago, similar to that on the New York Central. The Pullman company is to build new sixty-five foot cars of modern pattern for their line. They will probably be used on train 8 and 5. The present mail cars on the Erie are all to be sent to the shops and made over according to the latest standard.

The Erie's Summer Excursion to New York and the Seaside.

To meet the public demands the Erie Lines will run a popular half fare seaside excursion to New York, Tuesday, July 30th. To the summer tourist the metropolis and its adjacent ocean resorts present attractions that have no equal on the continent.
