The America's cup has only about $35 worth of silver in it, but more than $2,000,000 has been spent in trying to win it.

The new Chicago directory claims 1,695,000 names; the New York directory 1,995,640. Each city charges the other with numbering its goats and stray cats. The New York directory shows 16,530 Smiths.

A horse expert says that had temper is indicated by an eye "which shows the white, glancing backward." This opinion is entitled to respect, the New York World thinks, if only for its antiquity and a more or less general belief that it applies to men as well as horses.

Superintendent Kirkwood, of the Soldiers' Home, at Quincy, Ill., has given notice that any veteran marrying a new wife will be dishonorably discharged. This, the New York World explains, is on account of the new law, making veterans and families a county charge on the order of any Grand Army post, which was encouraging wholesale matrimony on the part of the inmates of the home.

Americans who go to Italy to be educated in music have a great advantage-if they marter the Italian language and study its melodies. Otherwise they have none, maintains the New York World. The whole secret of the musical nature of the Italian people lies in the musical enature of the Italian language. No one can speak it habitually without becoming nconsciously educated in the laws of melody which underlie all music, Judge Millen of the law division of the Postoffice Department has rendered a decision, concerning the delivery of mail matter by jail officials to convicts; and the same ruling will apply to inmates of charitable institutions. He holds that "state and county institutions for the confinement and punishment of parties conricted of crimes have the right to prescribe rules and regulations as to communications from outside parties to convicts. While they have no right without the consent of the convicts, to open the letters addressed to them vet they have the power to refuse to deliver or permit to be delivered to the convicts any letters addressed to them, unless they will consent that the letters be opened in the presence of some officer. Where mail is addressed to a convict, it is proper to deliver the same to the officer in charge of the prison. While this would not authorize the officer to open such letters, he would have the power, if the state and county laws or regulations of the prison so autho ized, to refuse to deliver such letters to the convict during his imprison. ent unless be consents that they be opened in the presence of the officer.'

CONDITION OF TRADE

Improvement in Markets and Prices Continues.

Only a Question Now in What Branches, If Any, the Rice May Go Too Far-No Anxiety About Monetary Affairs-Crop Prospects Good-Unnatural Rice in Iron.

Good—Unnatural Rice in Iron.

New York, Aug. 31.—Dun's weekly review of the business situation will say to-day: Improvement in markets and prices continues, and whereas a few months ago everybody was nursing the faintest hopes of recovery, it has now come to be the only question in what branches, if any, the rise in prices and the increase of business may go too far. A strong conservative feeling is finding expression, not as yet controlling the markets or industries, but warning against too rapid expansion and rise. In some directions the advance in prices clearly checks future business. But encouraging features have great power. Exports of gold continue, but are met by syndicate deposits, and are expected to cease soon. Anxieties about the monetary future no longer hinder. Crop prospects, except for cotton, have somewhat improved during the week. Important steps towards reorganization of great railroads give hope to investors. Labor troubles are for the moment less threatening, and some of importance have been definitely settled. The industries are not only doing better than anytenents. Labor troubles are for the moment less threatening, and some of importance have been definitely settled. The indus-tries are not only doing better than any-body had expected, but are counting upon great business for the rest of the Unnatural Rise in Iron.

The advance in prices of iron and its products has added about $2 per ton more in a single week to the price of Bessemer iron at Pittsburg, and yet the great steel companies are buying wherever they can, while the air is full of reports that this or that finished product will further advance. Many of the ablest men deplore this rapid rise, mote that it may expose some branches to foreign competition, and urge that consumers begin to hesitate. But the various combinations which now control many iron products have so successfully lifted prices thus far that the markets seem to lack the restraint of individual caution, and meanwhile builders of large quantities purchased for future sale or delivery want to get all they can for them. The demand, whether on old or new orders, appears large enough to sustain all advances yet made, and strikes of ore handlers and Marquette miners cause fear that supplies of Bessemer ore may run short.

Leather, Shoes and Wool.

run short.

Leather, Shoes and Wool.

Since the speculative spirit and the power of combinations pushed up prices of hides, leather and shoes, the demand has distinctly declined, at least for the present, and many works are out of orders, while few are now receiving enough to support a full production. Shipments from the east in August foot up 356,376 cases, against 353,344 last year, and 323,494 in 1892. Leather and hides are firmly held at top prices, though it is noticed that some who refused 9 3-4 cents for western hides are now seeking bids. Wool has been speculatively hoisted, so that sales have fallen below last year's in August 23,200,400 pounds of which 10,902,900 were foreign, against 25,748,850 last year, of which only-4,539,200 were foreign. The demand for dress goods is still large, and some cancellations of orders for foreign men's cloths are reported because goods do not come up-to-samples. At the same time the receipts from abroad continue heavy, and the outcome is so far in doubt that manufacturers are not buying beyond their actual needs.

Domestic Trade. Leather, Shoes and Wool.

Domestic Trade.

The volume of domestic trade is but slightly better than in perious weeks, exceeding last year's by 18.8 per ceftiganist 16.3 for earlier weeks of the month, falling 8.1 per cent. below 1892, against 9.1 in earlier weeks. Failures in three weeks of August show liabilities of $6,519,866, manufacturing $8.51, 377 and trading $2,852,989. In the same weeks leat year liabilities, were $8.214,470, manufacturing $2.845,338 and trading $8.844,41. Failures for the week have been 186 in the United States, against 196 last year, and 42 in Canada, against 40 last year. Domestic Trade.

$1.000,000 Added to the Gold Reserve Late Yesterday Afternoon. Washington, Aug. 31.—It is generally recognized here in official circles that the Belmont-Morgan bond syndicate will not-permit the treasury gold reserve to fall below the $100,900,000 mark. Pour times they came to the reaction which the summer of the reaction when such a result would follow constant drains on the reserve for export to Europe. Yesterday, at the last moment, the syndicate deposited $1,000.000 in gold in exchange for legal tender, without which the gold reserve would have dropped below the limit. At 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon Assistant Treasurer Jordan at New York telegraphed that $2:250,000 in gold had been withdrawn for export to Europe. This reduced this treasury gold reserve to $190,450,634. At 2:35 o'clock a telegram from Mr. Jordan announced that the syndicate had deposited $1,000.000 in gold, which raised the treasury gold reserve to $100,456,634. So far the syndicate has deposited in excess of the gold care has deposited in excess of the gold required for its $20,200,0000 in bonds nearly $10.000,000 to keep the reserve interest.

He noticed that it was quite heavy and began to the of the wrapper, when Deputy Wesner jumped forward and snatched the package from his chief's hands, at the same time shouting: "Look out for an infernal machine." The sheriff fell back in his chair as pale as death. Wesner put the alleged infernal machine on the table and surveyed it from a distance. He saw that it was a brass tube, one end of it plugged with cork and the other with cotton. Upon the cotton was adark powder, which upon closer examination was believed to be fulminate of mercury. A report was at once sent to the postoffice and the authorities upon a little investigation found that the package had been dropped into a box between 6 and 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning and collected at 9 o'clock. The writing on the paper was evidently disguised. No clue to the identy of the sender could be found, but the investigation is being continued.

Secretary Lamont Willing To Advance $50,000 as a Private Citizen-Senator Harris Promises the Passage by Congress of a Deficiency Bill Reimbursing Him.

Relency Bill Reimbursing Him.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The interest Secretary Lamont takes in the army was shown Thursday when he offered to advance $50,000 to Paymaster-General Stanton-to pay off the officers and men of the army who did not receive their June salaries owing to a deficiency in the appropriation for the pay of the army for the fiscal year ending June 30 last. The matter came up during a conference Gen. Schaton had with the secretary. Secretary Lamont suggested borrowing the necessary amount, but the general informed him that as secretary of war he had no authority to do this. Gen. Schaton added that Mr. Lamont as a private citizen, however, might advance the money. The secretary replied that the army ought to paid, and maid that he was inclined to advance the money himself. Gen. Stanton replied that if it was advanced he would gladly pay the troops. Here the matter ended for the time being, and what further steps the secretary will take or has taken remain to be disclosed.

Even if the secretary should advance the money there is a question as to whether the accounting officers of the treasury would approve the vouchers. It is feared they will hold that congress made a certain allowance for the pay of the army for the year in question and that the secretary and the paymaster general have no authority to increase this allowance. It is certain that neither of these officials has authority to borrow money. In case the secretary should make the advance from his private resources he would have to depend upon congress to make the loss good by a deficiency appropriation. Senator Harris of Tennessee, who was present during the conference, remarked that if the secretary would make the advance he would guarantee the passage of a deficiency bill by next January, reimbursing him.

guarance one passage of a deficiency off by next January, reimbursing him.

Falls Hardest on the Officers.

The enlisted men do not feet the loss of the month's pay in question as much as the officers do. In the case of men they are clothed, fed and furnished quarters, while the majority of the officers have homes of their own and families to care for. The deficiency in last year's appropriation will be small compared with the deficiency for the current year. The chief deficient for this year will arise from the action of the last congress in directing the payment to troops of retained pay and making no appropriation for the purpose.
